Chapter 304

YEAR 2000

I have been asked to choose the important events in history that I consider the most important. This may not be the list others may choose, but it is my list.

Before Christ

The two events before Christ that I consider the most important were: 1) - The creation of the world and, 2) - The creation of Hinduism.

1) - "In the beginning was the WORD and the WORD was with God and the WORD was God." This is the most important information that we will ever have. This WORD, our God, created "adam-man" and gave him the world to rule.¹

2) - Hinduism was created so far back in time that there is no real record of when it was created, but we do know that the writings of the first century Christians relate the following:

"When the accursed serpent saw Adam and Eve it ... made straight for Eve, and ran after her ... Then the Word of God came to the serpent, and ... a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the sea shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:1-9²

This verse is one of the reasons for the belief that India is the earthly home of Satan the anti-Christ. Another verse is this:

"Adam and Eve returned from the mountain ... and went down ... to the place where their corn was, but when there, a multitude of beasts came all round them. It was Satan's doing ... in order to wage war against Adam through marriage." I Adam & Eve 69:9-11³

We learn from this that the anti-Christ has from the beginning used racial intermarriage as a form of warfare to destroy man.

2 Adam & Eve is found in the Lost Books. Order from VPC, POB 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $13.

3 "Beast" wears clothing in Johah 3:8, "Beast", "cries mightily unto God". Johah 3:8, "Beast" has hands. Exodus 19:13, "Beast" capable of mixing with man. Jer. 31:27, "Beast" keeps the vineyard. Song of Solomon, Chap 1., Jesus called the Syro-Phoenician woman a "dog". Dogs, swine, beasts, descriptive words for lawless non-man.

Hari - Hara: God Of Integration

Hari-Hara is the Hindu God of integration. He is worshiped by the ITC, their White House agent and all establishment agencies and supporters.

Christian priests, accepting tax-exemption and media use as pay, preach Hari-Hara and call him "Jesus". Unless Hari-Hara is taught, the merchant cannot freely come to buy and sell, and turncoat priests won't be paid.

Jesus disapproves of Hari-Hara and commanded in the beginning: "The stranger (Heb: zuwr - racial alien) cat cometh nigh (the Tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 1:51.

Hinduism

From our study of Hinduism we learn that the Hindu system is divided into four castes. 1- King & his soldiers, 2- the Priest, 3- The merchant, 4- The workers.

We know further that in India the most important of these castes is that of the priest because in addition to ruling in spiritual matters, the great King Asoka on his death transferred 1000 million gold pieces to the monastery of Kukku-tarama to help with the Hindu missionary work. He also bequeathed to them the entire world. This unimagined wealth allowed the Hindu priestly caste to master the other Hindu castes and to use them to impose its will on the world.

We know something else. We know that Hinduism was so successful that the great King Asoka boasted of having used it to conquer the conquering Greeks of the classical age:

"King Priyarsi considers moral conquest (that is, conquest by Dharma), the most important conquest. He has achieved this moral conquest repeatedly both here and among the peoples living beyond the borders of his kingdom, even as far away as six hundred (yojanas) (about 3000 miles), where the yona (Greek) king Anti-yoka rules, and even beyond Antiyoka in the realms of the four kings named Turamaya, Antikini, Maka, and Alikasudara, and to the south among the Cholas and Pandyas (in the southern tip of the Indian peninsula) as far as Ceylon." The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, Chicago 1959, p29⁴

Hinduism is the international merchant's trade religion. Its missionary arm is Dharma which is carried worldwide by its missionaries, the Dharmamatras, who persuade the nation being proselyted to keep his own religion, but just add "Dharma" - to love everyone "without regard to race, creed, or national origin." When this is done that religion that accepts Dharma is no longer exclusive, it becomes inclusive. This caused the classical world of the Greeks to fester and become rotten. The Apocrypha tells us how their evil ways affected the land of Judea which was ruled by the Greeks:

"In those days went there out of Israel wicked men who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen ... Then certain of the people ... joined themselves to the heathen, and were sold to do mischief. ... After 2 years ... the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Juda, who came unto Jeruselem ... And spake peaceable words unto them, but all was deceit: for when they had given him credence ... they put therein a sinful nation, wicked men ...

"Whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her, and her own children left her ...

"King Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, And every one should leave his laws: ... Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath. For the king has sent letters ... that they should follow the strange laws of the land ... To the end they might forget the Law, and change all the ordinances. ... The king ... appointed overseers (surrogates) ... commanding the cities ... to sacrifice, city by city. Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law: ... and ... they rent in pieces the books of the law which they found, they burnt them with fire. And whosoever was found with any book of the testament, or if any consented to the law, the king's commandment was, that they should put him to death." I Maccabees 1: 11-63.

The time came when Judea had a stranger, an Edomite Jew named Herod as king and the Hindu contamanted religion of the priests tolerated its people to strip naked and play the Greek game of "discus"⁵ as well as tolerate sodomites.⁶

FIRST MILLENNIUM

The two most important things that happened in the first millennium, in my opinion, was 1) - The Birth of the Jesus - the WORD made flesh, and 2) - The continued spread of Hinduism westward to extinguish the WORD.

When Jesus Christ was born, the world of the Greeks and Romans had been contaminated with the Hindu Dharma. God the WORD was forgotten and the whole world was one rotten morass of evil.

Jesus brought the WORD to save his people and the priests killed the messenger in an attempt to keep the message from spreading.

In spite of this, the WORD was out and running. In time it severely impacted the trade of the Roman Empire. After unsuccessfully persecuting the WORD, the Empire solved its problem by nationalizing Christianity and turning it into an episcopacy complete with castes and ritual almost identical with those of India.

The New State Church

Christianity became a state religion. Roman provinces became dioceses. The four castes were, as always, the King

5 The discus is the weapon of the Indian god "Mara". It was a razor sharp weapon that could be thrown to cut off people's heads.

6 This thing taught today called "universal reconciliation" is a variation of the same universal oneness that Hindus find in Brahma.

& army, priests, merchants, and workers - the same as in India - and which is not necessarily their order of importance.

* The later Eastern Orthodox Church also had four castes with the emperor or Czar being the head, but the stranger who made up the merchant caste was the most powerful.

* Much later, when the Anglican protestant church broke away from the Catholic Church, the four castes remained the same. The king with his army was also head of the state church and was also the great merchant through his usury banks.

* The breakaway Lutheran Church began as a presbytery, but ended up as an episcopacy with the same castes just like all the rest. The powerful merchants selected the rulers whom they wanted and they appointed suitable prelates. The workers were always the same.

* In America, all establishment religious sects now look to the merchant's media-selected president and his IRS for leadership and guidance.

Chivalry

Knights fought knights. The winners became the good knights of legend and the losers became the bad ones. Scotland fought for its freedom from England. When England won the serfs remained serfs. When Scotland won - the serfs remained serfs. The Hindu caste system was firmly in place in the West.

The WORD that could have saved the people was banned by the church. The people were forbidden to read it.

SECOND MILLENNIUM

The two most important events of the second millennium, in my opinion, were 1) - The Reformation - the release of the Reforming WORD from the grasp of the priests, AND, 2) - The Counter Reformation - the establishment's attempt to again suppress the WORD.

The establishment church was very corrupt. English, Scottish, Swiss, French, and German theologians translated the WORD so that people could read for themselves what God required of them. The result was dramatic and predictable. The people of all different stations were incensed when they learned their God-given rights - rights long concealed from them by the church. They rebelled, seized both the king's and the church's land, which had earlier been taken from their ancestors, and divided it among themselves.

This revolt was followed by its bloody suppression. The land was taken away and the rebels were forced back into their castes. Hundreds of thousands were slaughtered. Following this, the Catholic and Protestant kings battled for 30 years to see who would rule the disputed land. When there were no soldiers left, the war ended.

America - S. Africa - Germany

After the Reformation there were three parts of the world which escaped the cartel. They were each forced back into the Hindu system one at a time.

America: Settlers who had arrived in a hostile America found a land that teemed with dangers. They had not much more than their Bibles to guide them. Away from establishment rule they developed the Self-Sufficient Farm System that left out both the international merchant and its caste system.

The International Trade Cartel (ITC), using their usury banking system, gradually absorbed the self-sufficient farms of the northeast and midwest. The Cartel then waged a great war to subdue the South and bring it back into the cartel. This section, which formerly needed almost nothing from the ITC, and whose people knew no depressions or hunger, now needed everything the ITC produced in order to survive.

South Africa: The same thing happened to South Africa. Its people fled British tyranny on the coasts, and trekked into the hostile interior that was free from the ITC. There they founded a nation of self-sufficient farms. They prospered greatly. To bring this small nation back into the cartel took the combined forces of the entire British empire.

Germany: Germany was defeated in WWI. In violation of promises made her, she was stripped of her colonies and many of her provinces. Her people were saddled with heavy reparations and were abused. A leader arose who led Germany in a rebellion. A world crusade was launched to bring her back into the fold.

This wrapped up the instances of rebellion against the Hindu International Trade Cartel. Dealing with the people in these defeated lands remained merely a wrap-up job which is being handled by the rebels own ministers who have been indoctrinated in their own cartel-endowed seminaries:

Seminaries:

For more than a century, generous gifts have been given seminaries by ITC corporations which allowed them to construct buildings and endow chairs. The result has been that numerous "Christian" seminaries now exist whose Biblical Law courses are taught by strangers. In fact, it can be said that the vast majority of Christian seminaries appear to spend more time studying Hindu teachings than Christian Law.

Hindu-Christian Priests Teach Hinduism

King Asoka of India, 300 years before Christ, posted at every major crossroads carved rock stele bearing his commandments. The following are examples:

* Rock Edict 12 teaches "against religious intolerance and discrimination" within the community.⁷ p. 51 Rock Edict 7.

* Rock Edict VI, teaches that King Asoka desires that members of all religions (and races) live anywhere they choose, or, "open housing". p. 61.

* Rock edict XII teaches that concord (being agreeable), alone is commendable. Through being agreeable men may learn the conception of Dharma that is acceptable by others. p.52 (Dharma - One must "love" without regard to race, creed, or national origin.)

* Rock edict XI teaches of the "kinship of all mankind". p. 44

* Rock Edict VII and Rock Edict XII teach "against Religious intolerance and discrimination". The Edicts of Asoka, p. 51

It is assumed that the reader knows that Hinduism accepts all religions as being merely different manifestations of the one god Brahma. Hinduism acceptance demands that you tolerate all other Hindu religions in return.

The WORD, on the other hand is the exact opposite. It rejects all that is not of the WORD.

One can readily picture Hindu-Christian ministers expounding from their pulpits at length on the Hindu concept of loving everyone without regard to race, creed or national origin. It is a common enough occurrence. It is just as easy to picture them expounding on the Hindu Rock Edict XII against religious intolerance and racial and religious discrimination or on Rock Edict VII regarding open housing for all races.

But, can you, in your wildest imagination picture these same priests expounding on the following that comes directly from the WORD and which they are supposed to teach!

The WORD

"God said let us make man in our image. So God created man in his own image." Gen 1:26-27⁸

"In the image of God made he man (Adam-man)." Gen 9:6

"The house of Israel, are my people... And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God." Ezek 34:30-31

"These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded the, saying, Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and unto any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Math 10:5-6;

"I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24.

"For thou art not sent ... but to the house of Israel." EZ 3:5;

"He showed his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19-20;

"I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine." John 17:9;

⁸ MAN: Heb: Adam 119 - "to show blood(in the face), i.e.: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red(ruddy). Strong's Concordance

"Thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: The Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:6

"And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of THY people, and speak unto them, tell them, Thus saith the Lord God." Ez 3:11;

"For the Lord's portion is his people." De 21:17

"O children of Israel... You only have I known of all the families of the earth." Am 3:1

"Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:28

By Their Acts

By their acts ye shall know them. The pulpits of America, with few exceptions, are manned by Hindu-Christian priests who teach Hinduism in preference to the WORD which is the God of the Christians, and which they learned in their own ITC endowed seminaries. They are so conditioned that when they run across a scripture such as, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature ..." - instead of assuming that it means "every creature of Israel", they believe that it means ALL the people of the world. This, of course, puts the verse in conflict with other verses in the Scriptures which makes God fight himself - which Scripture says cannot be.

As a result, people are falling away in masses from establishment churches and it is from these great masses that the WORD is finding root and growing.

THE THIRD MILLENNIUM

What do I see in this third millennium since Jesus Christ returned with the WORD? I see that the WORD is once again loose in the land. I see adam-man recognizing the WORD as his God.

I see the stranger leaving. I see their cities falling into ruin and being ploughed over and planted. I see cartel land seized and divided and the self-sufficient farm system returning with men ruling their land as kings and priests in obedience to the WORD which is God. I see a land of peace and goodwill as men strive to live according to the WORD in whose image they were made.

I see man coming out of today's wilderness as warriors who will never allow the Hindu stranger or his agents to rule them again.⁹

SODOMITES

One Voice Media - The Media - Esau's Scribe - is lamenting greatly over the sodomite who was beaten and tied to a tree where he died of exposure. This same media has nothing to say about the story of the 13 year old Saxon boy who was sodomized to death by two of Esau's golden children. The story has been completely blacked out.

The lesson is this: Any newspaper, radio, or TV outlet could have reported the story of the 13 year old, but didn't. As far as the Cloak of Esau is concerned - the murder by the sodomites didn't happen. This is one more proof that the mainstream media belongs to Esau the sodomite. ALL of the mainstream media all over the world belongs to him. Make no mistake about that. Reporters and announcers are Esau's servants. A servant cannot have two masters.

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." Matt. 6:24

The Rev Mel White

The Reverend Mel White, the sodomite leader to whom Jerry Falwell recently granted an audience and entry into America's mainstream churches (Jerry Falwell says that he "hates the sin but loves the sinner.")¹⁰ surfaced in Topeka, Kansas at Washburn University "preaching reconciliation".

Esau's media knows that Saxons have never been reconciled with sodomites. They know that the Saxon nation worldwide is the world's ONLY race that does not accept sodomy as an "alternate lifestyle". Saxons look on other Saxons who accept sodomy as deviates cursed by the WORD which is the Saxon's God.

"If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them." Lev 20:13

Following Jerry Falwell's lead, the outspoken anti-homosexual Rev. Fred Phelps of Topeka also met with Mel White where they expressed mutual love and "agreed to disagree". Mel White railed against hate, but admitted that he too had a little bit of hate when he said, "Hate is about all of us." Neither preacher commented on the fact that God the WORD teaches his followers to hate those who hate Him, and that sodomites hate the WORD which condemns them.

FRONT MEN

Carnegie - steel; Ford - automobiles; Murdoch - media; Ross Perot - government contracts; Bill Gates - computers. Successful entrepreneurs rewarded for their hard work and genius?? Don't bet the farm on it!

For a wolf to operate in a sheepfold he must first bribe the shepherd (the priest) to gain entry. Once inside, the wolf next must hire a ram to protect the wolf's interest. He gives his hired agent money to employ deputies and organize a permanent police force or standing army. The sheepfold now lives under the statutes and policy of the wolf, enforced by the wolf's agents who are the new kings and priests of the sheepfold replacing the old "king and priest" who was each and every individual sheep.

All the rest is the story of the wolf-invaded sheepfold being transformed into one more wolf den. But, it's an interesting story.

The Transformation

Robert Maxwell was a media mogul. It was said that he was the richest person in the world. He was found floating in the Atlantic. The Other Side Of Deception said that he got greedy and was liquidated by the Mossad.

How could someone get greedy with his own money? His own business monopoly? Maxwell's death produced the answer. When Swiss banks learned of his death they descended on his estate and demanded the return of "their" media. The banks actually owned the media that Maxwell managed.

I didn't know that. Neither did anyone else. Robert Maxwell, the richest person in the world, was simply a "front man" - a manager of vast bank assets belonging to someone else. He was someone else's agent.¹¹

Probate showed his personal estate was limited to just a few millions - not multi-billions as we had been told. Just paltry millions. All that hokum about how "a poor Jewish boy" arrived in England with only the shirt on his back, and by dint of hard work and saving his nickels and dimes and rolling them into multi- billions was just that - hokum.

Robert Maxwell is a recent product of all that which has gone before.

Henry Ford:

What about Henry Ford? Henry Ford built cars. So did a lot of other people. In Lynchburg the "Piedmont" was built on Hollins Mill Road. It was a good car. Piedmont owners swore by it. It was supposed to be as good as a Ford, some said it was better. Why did Ford succeed and Piedmont Motor Company go under?

The reason is that Ford got the money to build production lines, pay for expensive tooling and advertising, while Piedmont Motor Company didn't. That in itself could make Ford a survivor. But, there is more.

We are told that Henry Ford was anti-Jewish. When someone is recommended as being either definitely "pro-White", ¹¹ Who is that someone else? The closest I've come to discovering this was that the numerous Swiss bank failures of 1973 revealed that those failed Swiss banks belonged to the Catholic Church. Before 1973, Catholic Church involvement in usury bank ownership had been virtually unknown. Since then, numerous other Catholic bank troubles have surfaced - as well as troubles with banks belonging to the head of the protestant Anglican Church - the Queen. The recent appearance of Indians and Asians replacing Western "front-men" as bank and corporate CEOs point to unsuspected strong Near and Far East corporate control.

"religious", or, a "great patriot", it often turns out to be just eyewash. Talk is just talk, and talk is often used to persuade people to believe things that are against their own self-interests.

Without question, Henry Ford was highly intelligent. He was good at business. The media tells people that Henry Ford was responsible for The International Jew being written. The thing they don't tell is that at the same time he was being chastised for this book he also set up two foundations that controlled the greater part of his massive estate. One of these foundations was none other than The Ford Fund For The Republic. This is one of the most virulent anti-Saxonite left wing foundations in the country. In other words, The International Jew that brands Henry Ford as a "right-wing radical" hides the Fund For The Republic that finances all sorts of anti-Christian, anti-Patriot and communist causes. One Ford hand held the smoke and mirrors concealing the other hand holding the club that is being used to destroy the Saxon nation. Could someone as smart as Henry Ford make a mistake this big? What do you think?

Quickly reviewing: Henry Ford got financing when no one else could. The bulk of Henry Ford's money was placed into anti-saxonite trusts. Henry Ford, in my opinion, was another Robert Maxwell. A "front-man", a manager of assets for the International Trade Cartel.

Carnegie:

Andrew Carnegie was a poor Scot. His is the Saxon version of the "poor Jew" story. He came to America with hardly a penny in his pockets. By dint of hard work and saving his money he became one of the richest men in America. I believe the story of Snow White is more believable!

True, Carnegie was smart. He knew his trade. The banks advanced him big loans when no one else could get them. He used the money to put his competition out of business and buy them up when they fell on hard times, and he became one of the biggest steel operators in America. He then sold his vast steel holdings to a corporation that became known as U.S. Steel. Carnegie then took his profits, which were surprisingly small, and lavished them on charities to build good will where there had been nothing but hate before. In my opinion, Carnegie was another of Esau's money managers.

Bunker Hunt:

Bunker Hunt was one of our own. He inherited from his father and made money on his own. He saw a chance to corner gold. He put his corner in place and sat back. The money powers were caught. But, the wolf money powers are owned by Esau. They met and changed a 100 year old rule that couldn't be changed, and that broke the corner and ruined Bunker Hunt. The media had nothing bad to say about it or anything to say about Bunker Hunt since the establishment ruined him. Out of sight - out of mind.

The Rest:

The story of Murdoch is so much like that of Robert Maxwell that it doesn't bear repeating. Then there is Ross Perot. I don't believe for one minute that Ross Perot is "Ross Perot entrepreneur extraordinaire". I have been told that most of his money has been made through government contracts. We know that his conservative "white hope party" folded when it could have made a definite difference. This is what one would expect from an Esau manager. Then there is this super-rich, super smart, super salesman - Bill Gates. The money he gives away goes almost exclusively to liberal causes - which is what one would expect if the money he is giving away belongs to another who tells him whom to give to.

Esau's establishment knows that Saxons demand a leader - so they give us one - one of their own. Our only defense against these false leaders is the WORD. Judge everything they do and say by the WORD. If they pass muster - then follow. If they don't - wait. Our day will come. Busy, fearful Gideon already lives. God just has not tapped him on the shoulder because the time is not right just yet. Never fear! He's there, God's there, our time will come!!

LETTERS

VIGILANTES: "Dear Sirs: I would like to tell you how I became a Christian. I had accepted Christ as my savior but was taught by Judeo-Christians that God's Law was no longer in effect. I was not a very good Christian and ended up here. Then, four or five months ago a guy let me borrow a copy of Richard Kelly Hoskins' book Vigilantes of Christendom. This book sent me to God's WORD and I am no longer confused. I know that God is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow and I will not entertain doctrines that contradict God's Word." C. UNFILTERED NEWS

BLACK JESUS: "The National Catholic Reporter selected an effeminate "Black Jesus" from 1700 entries for its cover of a special millennium issue. The National Catholic Reporter is one of the best-known Catholic publications in the country. The painting shows a black Jesus against a pink background and includes the Buddhist yin-yang symbol, and a feather symbolizing the American Indian spirituality.

RKH: Episcopal religions were created to enable man to rule man. They change whenever needed to accommodate the ruler's desires.

ENEMIES OF THE STATE: "In America, the FBI's Megiddo Report names patriot Christians, in so many words, as 'enemies of the state.'" Ernst Zundel, Dec 17, 1999

CHRISTIAN-HINDU: The Times of London, July 2, 1999 reads: "Sikh Chosen to Lead Methodist Church." Sikhism is a hodgepodge religion from India combining elements of both Hinduism and Islam. The Times reports that the Rev. Inderjit Bhogal has been elected the next President of the Methodist Conference in Great Britain. The Rev. Inderjit Bhogal ministers to his Methodist church in Sheffield on Sundays and then goes to a Sikh temple nearby. His two children are being raised both Sikh and Methodist. "Bhogal adds Methodism to his mishmash of Hinduism and Islam and is rewarded by liberal Methodists in Britain who make him their leader." The Methodist Church declared, according to the London Daily

Mail of June 11, "that belief in God is now an optional extra for its members."

England's Methodists have been the denomination which has been praying to God "our Mother" in services. (Story in New Oxford Review)

PERSECUTION: Scott Marquart, a prisoner in the Michigan Prison System, has sued state prison officials so that he can practice the Christian Identity (Reform Christian) faith behind bars.

The state says that Reform Christian is a security threat. Marquart argues that the state is violating his right to practice his religion and he is suing to have Reform Christian recognized as any other religion.

In Georgia, in 1993, the state agreed to let members of the Christian Identity Church meet if they kept all references to race, separation, or disobedience over things Biblically Un-Lawful out of their services.

Marquart's lawsuit claims that prison officials decided Marquart was a "security threat" after he tried to get Reform Christianity recognized. He says he was deprived of recreation time, visitation rights and was denied group meetings. He said that in addition he has been harassed by frequent cell searches. Marquart "has been constantly subjected to atypical treatment and harassment by prison officials solely because of his religious beliefs and his status" as being labeled "security threat" solely because of his religion, he says in his lawsuit.

Marquart argues that the state recognizes other religions - particularly Muslim - that follow tenets of racial segregation and superiority. Members of those religions aren't automatically considered a security threat, he says. The department admitted that they did recognize a group that says darker-skinned people are superior.

A representative of the Michigan Regional Jewish Anti-Defamation League complained that such groups evangelize others. (Story in Detroit Free Press, Oct 27 1999)

Chapter 305

THE SILVER SPOON

The Stew Pot

The War was over. My great-grandfather, Major William Hoskins, late surgeon of the 59th Virginia Infantry, rode home to the Dragon Farm.¹ from his office at Carlton's Corner where he seen patients all day and was greeted by his sister, Matilda Byrd. Matilda Byrd held a stew pot over her head laughing.

There had not been a pot in the house since the war ended. There had been no way to make acorn coffee, hot cereal, soup or stew. A stew pot is so ordinary that people don't consider how necessary it is when you don't have one and, right then, a stew pot was a treasure and Matilda Byrd held one in her hands.

¹ The WORD says that the land is to be divided and never sold. (Lev 25:23, 28) Accordingly, those settling land planted their families there "permanently". Thus the name "plantation". After the war, Saxons were forced from their ancestral lands and land was turned into a commodity to be bought and sold. So, the name "plantation" became antiquated and the name "farm" was used. The ordinary farm is a business operation not a plantation. This process is basic to incorporate the Self-Sufficient Farm into a inter-nation(al) Empire.

A whole book could be written about the few lines above. I'll try to highlight just a bit of the story.

The Spoon

That night the family enjoyed stew for the first time in a long time. After dinner, William asked his sister where she had gotten the pot.

She answered that she had gotten it from an itinerant Jewish peddler. The next question was what she used for money since the family didn't have any.

Matilda Byrd replied that she had traded the last two silver spoons that the family had, spoons worth many stew pots in another place and another time.

Dr. William knew about the spoons. One of them was an ancient spoon bearing the Hoskins coat-of-arms and had been handed down in the family since it had come over in 1615 with Bartholomew the immigrant. There was silence. That's all. There were no recriminations. Everyone knew that it was better to eat stew than to keep a family heirloom.

The Jewish Peddler

Before the war there had been few Jewish peddlers - or Jewish merchants for that matter, except in the larger cities.² There weren't any in Essex County. There was little that peddlers had for sale that Virginians wanted. The plantations and farms either grew or made almost everything needed. Other articles came from the cottage industry of more distant farms. The interacting self-sufficient farm system of the Southland provided just about everything its people needed. A few luxuries came from Great Britain - the motherland. The Jewish peddler was the beginning of something new. He replaced what had gone before. He was the advance guard of the international merchant - the International Trade Cartel (ITC) - BABYLON!

² "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared with the words of thy mouth. Pr. 6:1; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21

The Predator Merchant Empire

A Self-Sufficient Farm System accumulates wealth, and the Southland had been gathering wealth for more than 250 years. Each generation added to what had been accumulated by the generations before. The land was fat and ready to be harvested. It was predator's dream.

During the War Between The States there were three large auction warehouses in Washington D.C. open 24 hours a day disposing of the gleanings collected from Southern plantations. Long lines of wagons streamed in from the Virginia countryside carrying loot - the very magnitude forced it to be sold by the wagon load sight unseen to make room for the next arrivals.

Merchant ships were contracted by the federal government. They left New York, Boston, and Baltimore bearing munitions and supplies and entered the Chesapeake Bay. From there they sailed up the Rappahannock River to Fredericksburg where they off-loaded their cargos that supplied the Federal armies. Returning empty, the captains would dock at plantation wharves and send armed landing parties ashore to gather a return cargo - cargos looted from the Tidewater countryside.

As the war went on, homes and plantations near the Rappahannock River were picked clean and the looters were forced to travel farther inland to find anything worth taking. One way to get inland was to take large ship's-boats and sail or row up the Dragon Run from the Rappahannock River. Thirty-five miles up the Dragon Run from the Rappahannock lay the Dragon Farm of Dr. William Hoskins.

The first raids were very profitable. They netted hogsheads of tobacco, horses and cattle. From the house were taken most of the silver, rugs, and portraits. Later raids took the window hangings and furniture. A coach that had been handed down in the family for 200 years was dragged down to the Dragon Run, but left behind because it was too heavy. The buggies were light enough to be loaded on ship's-boats and they were taken - as were the slaves. The latter paid for their involuntary passage by being bound to labor-short Pennsylvania farmers until their fare was paid. At the last, kitchenware and dishes were taken, and desperate for cargos, raiders would take the shoes from the children's feet. God help the old men they caught.

Northern newspaper scribes had regaled their readers with stories of hidden Virginia wealth, that Virginians didn't have banks and that they kept their money hidden at home. There are stories told of landing parties attempting to get to these mostly non-existent hidden treasures by torture. Some were said to have gone so far as to turn their prisoners over slow fires. Their captors wouldn't believe that most Virginians never had had much hard money. They got most of what they needed by trading farm produce and their own shop products.

These raids were the reason the Dragon had no pots and pans. The wealth of the South, accumulated for 250 years, disappeared almost overnight - rapidly redistributed by America's empire merchants. But, as is often the case - 80% of the loot was either destroyed on the spot or gathered and left to rot for lack of shipping space.

Mitilda Byrd

Family history says that Mitilda Byrd was a beauty. She was. She was a honey blond with classic features. I've seen her portrait. She could play the piano, was an accomplished rider, and could converse in several languages. Her dowry consisted of more than a thousand acres and she was courted by many men before the war. But, she never married. Why? The men who courted her were all dead. That's why she lived at home with her brother - like so many Southern women.

The Farm

Sherman burned Georgia farms. He burned Atlanta and Charleston. Sheridan and Custer burned the farms and fields of the Valley of Virginia. Hunter burned Lexington, Bedford City, and his advance on Lynchburg was heralded by a horizon black with smoke. Mrs. Jackson's home just over the hill on Old Forest Road has a big burned black spot in the living-room corner where Hunter's soldiers set fire to kindling piled in a corner as they tried to burn her house down. Some of Early's boys caught them at it and shot them. They then went to work and threw the burning brands out the window, thus saving the house. Mrs. Jackson's house is one of the few left between Lynchburg and Bedford. All this seems unnecessarily brutal, but the destruction of the self-sufficient farm system was necessary to the imposition of the new "inter- nation" economic system already imposed on the north.³

Leaving The Dragon

Following the war, Dr. Hoskins couldn't make a living as a doctor. Many men in that part of Essex County had been killed in the war and their families had gone to live with more distant kinsmen who could take care of them. Those who hadn't left Essex had no money. This resulted in too few people now living around the Dragon Farm needed for a doctor to make a living. Neither could he make a living from his land because of the lack of labor and because the bottom had fallen out of commodity prices. Making matters intolerable, whites had been disfranchised and blacks were put in political offices - another necessary step in the transformation of the Saxon political system into a multi- national system.⁴ Once blacks were in office they voted themselves huge salaries which were paid by new land taxes. Virginia

3 "Next, Karl Marx. The Protocols say, 'The aristocracy of the peoples, as a political force, is dead ... but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land ... At the same time we must intensively patronize trade and industry ... what we want is that industry should drain off from the land both labor and capital and by means of speculation transfer into our hands all the money of the world ...'

"Karl Marx in his Communist Manifesto exactly followed this formula. True he declared that Communism might be summed up in one sentence, 'abolition of private property', but subsequently he qualified this dictum by restricting actual confiscation to land and implying that other types of private property were to remain intact. (In the later Marxist event, of course, all private property was confiscated, but I speak here of the strict parallel between the strategy laid down before the event alike by the Protocols and Marx)." The Controversy of Zion by Douglas Read, Noontide Press, Newport Beach, CA, 1985. p. 219

4 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

landholders desperately planted crops and sold them for anything they would fetch to raise tax-money, thus destroying the commodity market, and themselves.⁵

The Country Store

Dr. Hoskins left the Dragon and moved about 15 miles away to the little village of Carlton's Corner where a cross-road brought more traffic. The move helped for a time, but even Carlton's Corner became isolated as taxes forced more and more people to leave their land and move to Richmond and Tappahannock to work for wages in the industry that was leaving the relatively high-wage North for the new low-wage Southern labor.

Dr. William Hoskins had needed a cooking pot. Other people needed pots. People also needed cloth to make clothes and they needed plows that used to be made in local forges and nearby foundries. They needed medicine, nails, shoes, leather, ink, pencils, harness and a hundred other things that their own self-sufficient farms made before the war. But now, so many farms, mills, forges and smelters had been burned and destroyed and so many people had been killed that there was a great scarcity of everyday necessities. So, Dr. Hoskins went into the business of supplying these needs. He built a dozen or more country stores to distribute products imported from up north. In effect, Dr. Hoskins went into business with the conquering multi-nation empire to help fill the newly created needs of his own Saxon nation. A new market had been created.⁷

5 "The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low ... he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail."
Deut 28:43-44

6 Corporations automatically move to low-cost production areas. They left England for the American North. They left the American North for the South. They are now leaving the South for the 3rd world. The Saxon king of his own SSF allowed himself to be dispossessed and forced to become a worker for the NWO - nothing more than a commodity who must compete with the Chinese coolie for his daily bread.

Dr. William Hoskins was sitting in his chair on his front porch at Carlton's Corner when his head dropped. A heart attack. He was 62 and at the time of his death. The oldest Hoskins who had ever lived in America up until that time. I've got his pistol that he carried during the War. A .44 Starr. I think I told the story about that pistol in Vigilantes.

Dr. Hoskins' children divided the country stores. His son Willard inherited the store at Dunnsville, about 20 miles from the Dragon. In time he built a mill at the Hoskins' Mill Pond. But, people continued to move away from country poverty to the cities and so the store closed and people shopped at the strangers' chain-stores. The mill continued to fill a need until environmental regulations backed by commodity giants owned by strangers forced it out of business following WWII.

After the War usury banks were established all over Virginia to lend money to people who needed it to pay taxes. People in Essex County also needed money to pay the northern merchants for articles which used to be obtained "in kind". So, Willard and a few neighbors founded a usury bank in Tappahannock. The bank has since been merged into the strangers bank system. Saxon managers still work there - thus far.

⁷ At the first the stranger uses a Saxon agent to front for him because of the reluctance of the Saxon to deal with strangers. "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared." Pr. 6:1-2. When the Saxon agent is no longer needed he is replaced by a stranger. When Dr. Hoskins' and his country stores were no longer needed they were replaced by a discount store in town which was initially managed by a Saxon front man. Now the discount store is managed by a stranger and even the clerks are strangers.

Those who learned to collaborate with the new empire system prospered - before they were replaced by strangers. Those who remained true to the old farm system were forced into grinding poverty.

Differential Freight Rates

One of the things that kept the economy of the Southland depressed was the differential freight rates. In Washington, laws were passed forcing the Southern states to buy expensive products from northern merchants instead of cheap products from British suppliers as had been the custom for almost 250 years previously. This forced Virginia to pay top dollar to the northern merchants who in turn paid bottom dollar for Southern farm products.

The differential freight rates caused the railroad and sea shipping costs for goods shipped from Richmond to Philadelphia to be much higher than the rates charged for goods shipped from Philadelphia to Richmond. These differential freight rates weren't done away with until after WWII and in no small way accounted for the Southland being looked upon as a land of poverty. It was.

In the meantime, the Hoskins family scattered. They followed in the steps of their northern kinsmen, chasing the highest paying jobs offered by the ITC wherever they led. The safety and security of the old self-sufficient farm system was now but a memory and empire merchant demands on the workers became more and more heavy.

Conclusion

The unfortunate ending of the War For Southern Independence marked the end of the great American experiment.

This period re-established the merchant's empire. The survivors learned to change. Even change was no guarantee for survival. Vanished was the concept of "safety", "peace of mind" and "care in old age".

Preparing the way for this new age the minions of war had made destruction general. The population was decimated. Strangers were placed over the Saxon to rule them. Taxes were enacted to bankrupt farmers off their land. Commodity values plummeted. Usury banks appeared everywhere to soak up the rest. The Southern city came into existence to house, feed, and stockpile workers who fearfully and desperately waited for the call from the corporation to come to work.

A new economic system replaced the old. A new political system replaced the one that had gone before, and a new religion made its appearance - a religion diametrically opposed to the WORD and the WORD made flesh which was the ancient God of the Saxon.

But, we still remember. The Saxon God-the-WORD once smiled on them. Then we were untaxed. We had a militia instead of a standing army and we ruled our own land as kings and priests. This world slipped through our fingers because in the spirit of goodwill we tolerated those things that our God condemned and our God is a jealous God.

Yes sir, the family of Dr. William Hoskins ate stew made in a cooking pot. It had cost two silver spoons worth many pots in other days, but that was the price for the lesson that was learned - in the multi-nation New World Order it is better to eat stew than to keep a family heirloom. The stripes on our backs have also taught us that from the very beginning of this country it would have been better to obey God than to face the consequences of disobedience.⁸

Armed with the WORD, we welcome tomorrow. The merchant's king knows this and he has planned Megido for malcontents in his kingdom. But, this is the third millennium since the WORD made flesh said, "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done - ON EARTH! It's time. God's enemies have declared themselves. We know who they are. God will send his avenging angels and there will be many silver spoons to replace the ones taken from us.

News From South Africa by K.J.

We joined with you in the December 30th fast and prayer. There is no doubt that certain matters were planned to take place here as well as in America on the arrival of Y2K. Thankfully, the powers that be changed their minds. Here, most institutions are running smoothly. The only bank that closed on January 3rd was the black African Bank.

At the same time the establishment media went after you, the same thing happened here with a young friend and his wife. He is the one who introduced me to Col. Jack Mohr and Pastor Peters. However, the new "state-Christianity" embraced by S. Africa's turncoat churches and preachers so sickened him that he later reverted back to Odinism.

Anyway, these two woke up on Nov 30 with at least 5 big newspapers attacking them. The "Aftonbladet's" front page had headlines like, "These people want to destroy our democracy, etc.", with names and pictures. The effort was made to get his wife fired from her work. Luckily her employer took her side.

⁸ The ultimate curse was when, "God took His WORD from Adam and Eve." I Adam & Eve 23:2. This is what has happened in the false mainstream churches today. But, for those who seek, we read, "It shall come to pass ... the blessing and the curse ... and thou shalt call them to mind ... and shalt ... obey his voice ... then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity (reverse your status as slaves)." Deu 30:1-3.

The black Prime Minister supports this sort of thing as well as all those who want to be politically correct which allows us to discover who the Saxon's friends really are. Even though our friend has done little of importance these last few years it seems that the ITC and their black followers hate him. A few years ago a very charming Jeffrey Kaplan paid them a friendly visit at their home and said many nice things about him and his family. At the the time we warned him about these people, but he saw the man as a friend and not somebody who would ever harm him. Shortly thereafter he began to have major problems with the Jews.

So far, Mr. Marais of the HNP has skillfully handled them, but as we are the only obstacle on the right who continuously write about nationalism and history, including the history of WWII, they will not leave us alone.

Our attacks on the Democratic Party did not go unnoticed. The Democratic Party here is almost completely a Jewish Party. They support the anti-gun agenda. One also wonders why, while whites are being killed every day, no Jews are killed by blacks. They still number 90,000 and are very visible and wealthy.

The attacks on white farmers never cease. I cannot see that talking to blacks in control will make any difference if they condone and encourage the attacks. While this goes on Afrikaans church leaders sit and quibble about accepting sodomites as our Christian duty and such nonsense. Our people are daily being lost to murderers and our youngsters to drugs. With these preachers no longer doing their duty, Mr. Marais stepped into the gap. Except for our party, S. African cultural organizations have all opened their doors to strangers of whatever colour. Our children still have camps on holidays where they learn their history, discipline and all about the nature around them.

This same group of Afrikaans students did very well in the matric exams. Only one lonely black did well. But we now have the problem with universities having quotas for blacks. They will not admit a white student even if he has distinction in all his subjects.

We have had an exceptional amount of rain for weeks now and the trees and grass love it. However, the vegetables suffer from bug varieties I have never seen before.

The driving by black bus drivers and trucks is worse than ever. Many accidents take place. For the rest of us it is no pleasure to be on the road. Most whites stayed at home on New Year's Eve. Holiday entertainment was with black music and that will keep most whites away even if they could afford the exorbitant prices. Luckily, it rained.

Our best wishes for the rest of this year to you and our kinfolk in America and safety from those who want to harm us. K.J.

The Boer by Arthur Conan Doyle

Arthur Conan Doyle the creator of the fictional detective Sherlock Holmes, wrote the following introduction to his The Great Boer War. The interesting thing is that it was written when the war was still raging:

"Take a community of Dutchmen of the type of those who defended themselves for 50 years against all the power of Spain at a time when Spain was the greatest power in the world.

"Intermix with them a strain of those inflexible French Huguenots who gave up home and fortune and left their country forever at the time of the revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

"The product must obviously be one of the most rugged, virile, unconquerable races ever seen upon earth.

"Take this formidable people and train them for seven generations in constant warfare against savage men and ferocious beasts, in circumstances under which no weakling could survive, place them so that they acquire exceptional skill with weapons and in horsemanship, give them a country which is eminently suited to the tactics of the huntsman, the marksman, and the rider.

"Then, finally, put a finer temper upon their military qualities by a dour fatalistic Old Testament religion and an ardent and consuming patriotism.

"Combine all these qualities and all these impulses in one individual, and you have the modern Boer - the most formidable antagonist ever to cross the path of Imperial Britain.

"Our military history has largely consisted in our conflicts with France, but Napoleon and all his veterans have never treated us so roughly as these hard-bitten farmers with their ancient theology and their inconveniently modern rifles."

KING CONSPIRACY: A jury found a widespread government conspiracy responsible for the assassination of The Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. A US House committee concluded in 1978 that Earl Ray killed King but may have had help from a small group of "racists". The jury found that government agencies were involved. The list included the FBI, CIA, and organized crime. (Story News & Advance A-3, December 12, 1999)

RKH: This old communist tactic is called "The Trust" - doing the act and blaming it on your opponent. The communists killed their own people and blamed the killings on their opponents.

King had become a liability. His usefulness was over. Before his assassination he was one of the most hated people in the country. The darling of the media, he came preaching peace but left American cities burning gripped in uncontrollable riots. The American public had turned against him. His only future use had become that of a martyr. He was executed and white "racists" were blamed. The same thing happened to Kennedy - another of the most hated people in America. When it was announced that he had been shot, the people in the brokerage office in which I worked cheered. The media immediately blamed whites in Dallas. Media "re-interpreters" aren't paid to tell the truth.

ANTI-SAXON PREJUDICE: The relative odds of admission to the University of Virginia show a strong degree of preference given to blacks over whites. The preference given to blacks over whites was 33 to 1 in 1996. For 1999 the preference had grown to 111.11 to 1. ANTISAXON VIOLENCE: Since 1972, the US Dept. of Justice has conducted a National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS) to determine the frequency of certain crimes. One category is interracial crimes. The most recent was the 1997 "Criminal Victimization in the US" report on data collected in 1994. In that year there were about 1,700,000 interracial crimes, of which 1,276,030 involved whites and blacks. In 90% of the cases, a white was the victim and a black was the perpetrator, while in 10% of the cases it was the reverse.

In other words, 90% of interracial crimes involves blacks attacking whites. Would you believe it if you had to judge by the media reports? (Story in The Washington Times, Aug. 19, 1999)

TREASON OR WISDOM? Some Militia leaders are working with the FBI to "contain terrorism". Jim McKinzey, commander of the 51st Missouri Militia has struck a surprising partnership with the local FBI agent. They work together to identify potential terrorists. McKinzey said, "We're not enemies. We have to build bridges." Montana militia leaders have also been sitting down with FBI agents to exchange information. "We talk to them (FBI)," said John Trochmann, "because we want to be sure they know where we're coming from."

In Bloomfield, Ind., federal agents and members of at least a half dozen local militia groups met last month. "Militia members have provided information helpful in criminal investigations, John Bell, the FBI special agent-in-charge of the Indianapolis field office said. "A militia leader passed on a tip last month involving a member who had been expelled from the group." In Kansas City, FBI Agent Kinnally says that his office has fielded similar calls from the 51st Missouri Militia.

Some militia leaders consider the cooperation no less than treason. "The FBI has no interest in opening a dialogue", said Bob Wright, commanding officer of the 1st Brigade New Mexico Militia. "They're interested in gathering intelligence. They're interested in finding some weak-minded fools to hustle." The leopard does not change his spots. Many forget that the reason for the re-emergence of militias is so that American citizens will have someone who will protect them and their families if the FBI decides to do another Waco. An easy way to determine if there has been a fair exchange of information is if the FBI has told local militia leaders which militia members are paid FBI agents provocateur. After all, that's the sort of thing the FBI does. (Story in The Detroit News, 9A, Dec. 3, 1999.)

MAGIC & FAITH: "In Italy where 84% are Catholic - soothsayers, fortune-tellers, palm readers, professional dreamers, astrologers, psychics and wizards flourish (2/99 Charisma). A huge underground community of 40,000 magicians and mystics boast of revenue of $100 million a year. Italians are Catholics, but they also believe in reincarnation, visit witches, and look out for the 'evil eye' bad-luck hex. Catholic leaders officially denounce the mixing of magic." Calvary Contender, March 1, 1999.

GERMANY - TERRORIST STATE: More people are being persecuted in democratic Germany today than was the case in Communist East Germany prior to its collapse. Horst Mahler, a left-wing torch-bearer, views these prisoners as "martyrs of Germany's national rebirth": Among the many are Günter Deckert (58), former senior assistant master, nearly 5 years imprisonment. Udo Walendy (72), leading Germany historian, seriously ill, 3 years imprisonment. Ehard Kemper (70), agricultural journalist, repeatedly imprisoned and re-arrested after his release. Fritz Rebhandel (80), journalist, historian, sentenced to about 4 years despite severe illness. Herbert Schweiger (73), author, severely War-disabled, about 25 months imprisonment. Emil Lachout (70), engineer, Protestant religious instructor, declared to be of unsound mind on the grounds of a psychiatric assessment in a political show trial. Jürgen Graf, education-alist, historian, author, 18 months imprisonment. Artur Vogt (80), seriously ill, 1 year in prison. Tiudar Rudolph (92), repeatedly imprisoned; etc. etc. Insider March 15, 1999, PO Box 17200, Groenkloof, Pretoria 0027, RSA

FIELD MARSHAL MONTGOMERY of WWII fame, advised the government in London in 1947 that Africa's Blacks were totally incapable of developing their countries economically. In a recently released paper, Montgomery proposed that all of Africa be placed under White rule. Montgomery was of the opinion that 'the African is a complete savage and quite incapable of developing the country himself.' Montgomery's racist assessment caused then Prime Minister Clement Atlee such embarrassment that the paper was kept under lock and key for 50 years."

The Borders Of Babylon

The stench of "Babylon" hangs heavy in the air around us. There is no real name that adequately describes it. Words such as "evil empire", "New World Order" and "International Trade Cartel" (ITC) offer a glimpse, but no newly-coined word really describes what once existed in the ancient world and has now returned once again to torment mankind.

The WORD says that it was a great city built by Nimrod¹ upon which all peoples labored. It seemingly was unending, vast - it reached the sky. Then, all of a sudden, God spoke; work stopped, and the great city fell into ruin.

The WORD spoken by God was "separation". Separation is the opposite of "integration". Without integration Babylon cannot be built. Integration of the world and its peoples builds Babylon - separation destroys it. Babylon is the enemy of all "separatists". God is the enemy of all integrationists.²

Babylon

The great city Babylon encompasses all of the following:

1. The Merchant: All the world's great businesses.
2. King & his Army: All the world's governments and their armies.
3. Priests: All organized religions wherever.

¹ "And Cush the son of Ham the son of Noah, took a wife ... and she bare a son and she called his name Nimrod. ... And Nimrod ... fought the battles of his brethren against all their enemies round about.... And when Nimrod had joyfully returned from battle, after having conquered his enemies, all his brethren ... assembled to make him king over them ... And he set over his subjects and people, princes, judges and rulers, as is the custom amongst kings. ...after having conquered all his enemies around, he advised with his counselors to build a city ... and Nimrod called the name of the city that he built Shinar ... and his kingdom became very great. And all nations and tongues ... gathered themselves to him ... and they brought him offerings (taxes), and he became their lord and king, and they all dwelt with him in the city of Shinar, and Nimrod reigned in the earth over all the sons of Noah, and they were all under his power and counsel. ... but Nimrod ... rebelled against the Lord, and taught all his subjects and the people of the earth his wicked ways." Jasher 7:23-46

² "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." 2 Cor 6:17; "For thou didst separate them from all the people of the world to be thine inheritance." 1 Ki 8:51; "Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitudes." Neh 13:3

This all-encompassing organization exists to organize the workers. The workers are kept at the never ending task of building the great city.

THE MERCHANT

*"Babylon ... for thy merchants were the great men of the earth."
Rev 18:21,23*

The great merchant, or the international merchant, is the most visible part of Babylon. He builds the world's great cities which all look alike. He provides the communications which in all countries work the same. Where the great merchant rules, Y2K presented no communication problem that would impact his trade, not even in his outposts in the most remote 3rd world country.

All the world's great commerce is owned or controlled by him - supermarkets, auto manufacturing companies, the great oil tankers and other great ships at sea, the great planes in the air, the world's banks, the world's corporate food production, preparation and transportation, the world's manufacturing - all are owned by the great merchant. All the "different" money systems of the world are his. All money must pass through his banks. The usury system is his;³ The lending of ten dollars for $11 ensures that all free property and goods eventually end up in his hands.⁴

⁴ See War Cycles / Peace Cycles, VPC, POB 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, the history of usury.

All media is owned by the great international-merchant. All radio, TV, newspapers, magazines and book publishing. Babylon's spokesmen say the same thing on the world's front page in Chinese, English and Russian. The gun-control campaign is the same in S. Africa, Australia, Europe and the United States. The worldwide campaign to abolish national tariffs is the same everywhere. The worldwide campaign to promote Babylon's one world government is the same, as is the worldwide campaign to impose alien immigration and integration on Saxon nations.

Small Business

Small independent Saxon businesses are tolerated and even encouraged. Those which succeed and grow are in time taken over and merged into the greater ITC. This keeps Babylon healthy and growing larger and larger.

Owners of businesses that have been taken over are paid with establishment money that is soon returned to the cartel through their usury banks, income taxes, and inheritance taxes. The downside for the former owners is that as Babylon grows, entire galaxies of small businesses disappear. Small grocery and drug stores disappear into Babylon's great trade chains, and small merchants of all kinds go to the wall when the outlets of the giant-merchant open their doors to mass trade.

In those nations where small businesses have been forced out of existence - those who formerly operated them, from corporation president down to floor sweeper, regardless of educational or monetary background, eventually find themselves in the great pool of workers serving Babylon. A worker pool that does not distinguish between natives and aliens, each struggling against the other for his daily bread.

The Appearance Of Freedom

Babylon tolerates a miniscule alternate press. Short-wave broadcasts are allowed as well as newsletters such as HR. It gives the illusion of freedom where none exists, and defuses a nationalism that could bottle up and explode. This the great city does not need.

Trusts

Disbelievers point to the stock exchanges and say that many people own industry through their purchase of stocks.

Babylon takes control of a nation's industry in a very simple manner. People with large estates have most of their wealth invested in common stocks. To avoid inheritance taxes their owners put these estates into trusts under bank trust department management.

Bank trust departments vote the stock that they hold in trust. In this manner, by voting the stock without having to own it, banks elect anyone they choose to corporate boards of directors. Since usury banks are Babylon's monopoly, Babylon elects their own agents to corporate boards.

These agents, sitting on corporate boards, direct their corporation to make "good will" grants to educational institutions such as colleges and Christian seminaries. The sub-rosa condition is that in exchange for generous grants of money, the corporate directors will participate in the selection of professors and curriculum - and they do. As a result, there are Christian seminaries which have aliens teaching Biblical law. Colleges, built to train Saxon leaders, now teach that the Saxon male is the enemy of the world.

In this way the ancient bulwarks of Christendom have been handed over to Babylon and have become educational indoctrination centers churning out Dharmatized Christian-Hindu robots. Young impressionable Saxon nationals walk in their front doors and emerge four years later as citizens of Babylon.

KING

"Woe to you, ye powerful, who with power strike down righteousness; for the day of your destruction shall come." I Enoch 95:8

In spite of the constant eye-wash and theatricals, the fact is that worldwide, ALL leaders of countries (kings, presidents, premiers, etc.) are put in office and kept in office by the international merchant. They are necessary to protect his interests.

These kings must have an army to keep them in office or else abused populations would soon drive them out.

In the West, the illusion of democracy is maintained by the election system's managed by the merchant's media. It selects and advertises Babylon's agents for public office. Voters vote for the best man they know, but the only one they know to vote for is always a media-selected agent of Babylon. All major political dog-fights are stage managed. Only in the backwaters of the world do a few political leaders truly speak for their people.

"I beheld the angels of punishment ... they are preparing for the kings and powerful one's of the earth ... I beheld a deep valley burning with fire. To this valley they brought monarchs and the mighty." I Enoch 52:3-5, 53:1-2.

The King's Legal System

To abolish the rule of God's WORD understood by all, and substitute in its place the decrees of Babylon, the king establishes his own courts.

To head these courts the king appoints judges to rule that the king's decrees are legal.

To help the judges "law-schools" are established. These schools train people to find their way around and through the voluminous maze of conflicting statutes enacted by the king. These lawyers are legal "officers of the court" and belong to the court system.

They spend their lives instructing and advising people as to the king statutes and the legal way to circumvent the ancient laws and customs of their nation.

It is from this "lawyer" group, a group firmly grounded in inter-nation statutes and doctrine, that the merchant's media chooses most candidates for public office.⁵ It is a rare one who escapes God's condemnation:

Thus, the governing process that Babylon's government uses to support its hand-picked king rests in the hands of those who have a vested interest in seeing that the merchant's legal system prevails.

"Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered." Luke 11:52

PRIEST

In India, the priest is supreme. He chooses kings and appoints merchants to manage the priestly wealth given them by Asoka.⁶

In Dharma-conquered lands foreign to India, the world's great merchants choose kings who in turn appoint priests to bless them.

"The Prophet who shall presume to deliver a message in MY NAME, which I have not commanded him to deliver, or who shall speak in the name of other gods: - that Prophet shall die!" Deut 18:20

Government Regulated Churches

The establishment "Christian" Church in America is paid not to teach the WORD. If it did Babylon would fall, which is why Babylon pays it not to. Babylon exempts them from taxes that are paid by all others.⁷

The Scriptures say that the WORD is King of kings and that "man" was made in the image of the WORD.

It is logical to expect that those made in the image of the WORD would study the Word day and night. It is logical to expect ministers of churches to teach church members the WORD so that they would know what God requires of them.

Therein lies the problem. If people studied the WORD day and night and learned what God requires of them, they would expel the alien, overturn their altars, abolish the income tax, seize the land held by monopolies and divide it, and rule their own self-sufficient farms as kings and priests under the WORD, the King of kings. Babylon would then be no more.⁸

⁷ HR #285 lists the regulations that churches must comply with to receive their tax-exemption.

I belong to a Christian organization whose members spoke at churches to raise money to buy Bibles for school-children and to place in hotels and motels for travelers. I have spoken in lots of establishment churches and sat through countless services. During this entire time I have heard a lot of "religion", but I have never heard an establishment preacher teach God's Laws.

A Christian Church cannot be a Christian Church if it does not teach the WORD. America's churches today are great social clubs - the poor man's country club. However, to learn God's WORD one must learn by his own study, attend a home church, or attend one of a handful of small churches that still teach God's Law's, Statutes, and Judgments.

WORKER

Beneath the three castes of merchant, king & army, and priest - stands the worker. The worker's labor supports Babylon and the three ruling castes. The major duty of the three ruling castes is to keep the worker at his work - and they do.

Summary

Today's kings are creatures of Babylon, as are the great merchants and certainly the priests. Together they conspire to bring all the world under their rule. Which of your local establishment politicians, wealthy merchants or state priests condemned Babylon's assault on Ruby Ridge and Waco?

⁸ See "Censored Scriptures" handout.

The conspiracy has created a class of people who perceive Babylon to be the ultimate victor and have abandoned their nation and have become "integrationists" - citizens of Babylon.

The Integrationist - Babylon's Citizen

Pat Buchanan gave a talk to the Boston World Affairs Council from which I have excerpted the following.⁹

"...A few years ago, Ralph Nader wrote to the executives of 100 giant US. corporations, suggesting how they might show their loyalty to 'the country that bred them, built them, subsidized them and defended them.' At the annual stockholders meeting, Ralph said, why not begin with a pledge of allegiance to the flag?

"Only one company responded favorably. Half did not respond at all. Many sent back angry letters declaring that they were not American companies at all. Motorola denounced the request as 'political and nationalistic.' Other companies likened the idea of a pledge of allegiance to loyalty oaths of the McCarthy era. Why were the heads of the corporations outraged? Because for years they have been trying to sever their bonds to the country of their birth.

"In 1997, the head of Boeing told one interviewer he would be delighted if, twenty years hence, no one thought of Boeing as an American company. My goal, said Phil Condit, is to 'rid [Boeing] of its image as an American group.'

"Back in the 1970s, Carl Gerstacker of Dow envisioned a day when Dow would be free of America. ...

⁹ The full talk is carried in Lebensraum, Ingrid Rimland

A spokesman for Union Carbide agreed: 'It is not proper for an international corporation to put the welfare of any country in which it does business above that of any other.' In any test of loyalties, for such as these, the company comes before the country.

"Early in the 1970s, Zbigniew Brzezinski, later Jimmy Carter's national security adviser, wrote, 'A global consciousness is for the first time beginning to manifest itself ... we are witnessing the emergence of trans-national elites ... composed of inter-national businessmen, scholars, professional men and public officials. The ties of these new elites cut across national boundaries, their perspectives are not confined by national traditions... and their interests are more functional than national.' The one force that can de-rail the rise of this new elite, warned Zbig, is the 'politically activated masses,' whose 'nativism could work against the cosmopolitan elites.'¹⁰

"Last month, UN High Commissioner for Human Rights, Mary Robinson, toured northern Mexico. Her concern: the U.S. Border Patrol. By heavily patrolling the accessible crossing points, said Ms. Robinson, our Border Patrol is 'forcing' illegal aliens to take more perilous routes into the United States....

"Wall Street Journal editor Robert Bartley has been quoted as declaring 'the nation-state is finished.' He calls for an amendment to the Constitution to throw open America's borders to immigration from all over the world. Bartley's vision of America as a Global Mall is embraced by the global corporations that advertise in the Journal and seek access to an inexhaustible supply of low-wage foreign labor....

"'I believe globalization is inevitable,' Bill Clinton told Larry King at year's end. ..."

Anti-Saxonism

Babylon's obstacle is "man" - the Saxon. To destroy this obstacle is the reason for the present integration media blitz. This is the reason that Babylon is doing all in its power to pull down Saxon heroes and icons. Their agents burned Robert E. Lee's picture in Richmond; they are attacking the Confederate flag in S. Carolina; they have blacked out George Washington from view; they forbid prayer in schools, they accuse Thomas Jefferson, a sponsor of the "African Colonization Movement" to send Blacks back to Africa, of having an affair with a black slave.

In spite of DNA evidence, and without allowing discussion or debate, Babylon has put the supposed descendants of the illicit union on the university speaking circuit in Virginia to destroy Saxon nationalism by claiming that the founding fathers were themselves integrationists. If they can make Jefferson into an integrationist they can persuade other Saxons to become integrationists. From there is only a short step to Babylon's "globalism". New recruits for Babylon!

Why The Saxon?

The Saxon nation is more than an organization. It is more than politics or a religious sect. It is even more than skin deep.

Each Saxon has been appointed a king and a priest by God Himself.¹¹

As long as one single pair of Saxon-Adamites live - a male and a female - Babylon will never be safe.

This is why 30,000,000 Russian-Saxons were killed and their land given to the Slav-Khazar alliance to rule. This is why 9 million German Saxons were killed after WWII ended and half their land placed under Slav rule. That's why Saxon South Africa was destroyed. That's why the American Southland was raped and looted. That's why 40,000,000 of our babies have been murdered - most by alien doctors. That's why our children are forbidden to read God's Law in school or post it in the king's courtrooms. That's why an eternal war is being waged against us by the powers of darkness.

The Rest Of The Story

We know the rest of the story. We have read the Book.

First, God promised that he would punish us for allowing strangers into our land¹² and for not enforcing His Law.

To punish us God put hooks in the jaws of the strangers and has dragged them to our land. He did this because he said he would. Now think when you read the list whether or not God is true to his WORD and is doing what he said he would do:

¹¹ "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6

¹² "Receive a stranger into thine house, and he will disturb thee, and turn thee out of thine own." Ecclesiasticus II, 11:34; "The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low ... he shall be the head and thou shalt be the tail." Deu 28:43; "Thou hast forsaken thy people...becausethey please themselves in the children of strangers." Isa 2:6; "For I have loved strangers and after them will I go." Jer 2:25

"If ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I also will do this unto you;

1 - "Ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it ...;

2 - "They that hate you shall reign over you;

3 - "Ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

4 - "I will break the pride of your power;

5 - "Your land shall not yield her increase...;

6 - "I will send wild beasts (strangers) among you which shall rob you of your children ... and make you few in number.

7 - "I will bring a sword upon you ...;

8 - "I will send the pestilence among you;

9 - "I will ... cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you;

10 - "I will make your cities waste;

11 - "And I will bring the land into desolation: ..." Lev 26:14-35

God's WORD says that among our people, "Two parts therein shall be cut off and die, but ... I will bring the third part through the fire." Zech. 13:8.

Already, the media-concealed crimes committed by strangers against Saxons have inflicted far more casualties than all our wars, and Babylon's agents now want to take the victims' weapons so that our enemies can finish the job they have started unopposed .

Babylon's End

But God has not forgotten his people. He also says:

"When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him." Isa 59:19; "I will send My Word and save thee and thy seed." Adam & Eve 12:6;

Already, the WORD is loose and running in the land. This WORD says that all the traitors have been condemned by God:

"I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me." Ezek 20:38

This is the day when God will order another Gideon to once again gather the few from the many called, and these few will vanquish the enemies' great numbers. They will remember, "Whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." Matt 16: 24-25

To prepare for this day Jesus said:

"He that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22:36

Neither has the false shepherd been forgotten:

"Go ye ... and smite: and begin at my sanctuary." Ezek (9:1-6)

The Greatest Weapon Against Babylon

But of all the weapons of God, the greatest and the one Babylon fears the most is the WORD itself:

"The word of God is quick, and sharper than any 2-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit." Heb 4:12

The result of using this weapon has already been written:

"And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face ... and I will call for a sword against him... I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee ... I will give unto Gog a place there of graves and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude." Ezek 37:21-39:29.

The flood of strangers pouring into our land is coming here only to find graves. Then, Babylon will burn, and its merchants wail:

"Babylon the great is fallen ... the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. ... And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more. ... The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment ... And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea ... cried when they saw the smoke of her burning ... for thy merchants were the great men of the earth ... And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev 18:1-2,11,15,17-18,23¹³

Then, the Saxon nation will at last be left in peace, and under their own vine they can obey God's command and rule God's creation as kings and priests. Then they can worship God the WORD who created them in the beginning as his own special treasure.

¹³ "Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all."

WACO II?

The 7th Circuit Court has ordered the Indianapolis Baptist Temple in Indianapolis, Indiana, to vacate and allow the government to confiscate the building on April 10th as a result of its refusal to collect withholding taxes from its employees.

The church is not registered as a 501c3 state church, but has continued to operate as a free independent church and school under the Constitutional doctrine of separation of church and state. The church maintains that since it is not a government church it does not have to work for the government by collecting taxes. The church has appealed the court ruling.

When asked if the church members planned to hand the church over on April 10th, a church spokesman replied that they would do as God leads. It is a fact that the government FBI stormed the Waco church and killed its men, women and children for much less defiance.

The internet reports that the out-of-control behavior by American government agencies has caused members of the mid-West militias to fear for the safety of the Baptist Temple church members. As a result, mid-West militias are being put on alert.

CHINESE ALIENS: "Dear Brother Hoskins: I have a friend who works for the Department of Revenue. He walks the beat in Chinatown looking to collect the retail sales tax from the businesses. He told me that the Chinese are here by the thousands. They exist as an entire sub-culture. They enter as illegals, and those that sponsor them want pay-off as quickly as possible. The quickest way is crime. They are illegal. They are schooled from day one in the illegal tactics of prostitution, making/selling drugs, robbery, petty theft, extortion, kidnapping and murder for hire. It is almost impossible to break down their business activities. They don't speak English and don't interface with our community. They may have a small laundry which they declare is their legitimate business, but drive exotic foreign cars worth many times what they can make from that laundry. All the money they collect disappears. They do not pay taxes. You can't break their code, you can't get the facts. We don't even have any idea how many are here. We have no census of them - but there are thousands. The Revenue Agents say that the illegal entry has been going on for years. It has only been recently that they have begun to investigate the cargo ships that the recent rash of discoveries has been made. You compound these with the illegal Mexican, Haitians, Cubans, etc. and we begin to understand Isaiah 38 and 39." W. D. - California

DOUBLE NAMES: "Dear Richard: Was interested in 'Matilda Byrd' in your 'Silver Spoon' article. You mention that she was never married and her brother was William Hoskins. Wondered why she was not a Hoskins?" L.J. - Ohio

RKH: Good question. In Essex and King & Queen Counties, there used to be a lot of Hoskins. To tell them apart most children were given double names. A lot of Virginia families still do. My children's last name is Hoskins but they are called Granville-Sydnor (for an ancestor who chose prison rather than give oath of allegiance to the federal government), Georgie-Hume (named for an ancestor condemned to be hanged, drawn and quartered for revolting against the king), John-Hundley (for a grandfather), Rebecca-Royster (for a great-great grandmother), Robert-Byrd (for an ancestor who fought in the Revolution) and Ella-Garnett (for a great-grandmother). At family reunions where several hundred people are present, double names help prevent confusion.

JOSEPH PAUL FRANKLIN: "Dear Richard: I am now reading I Maccabees in the Apocrypha and you just happened to have a quote in your latest newsletter from I Maccabees. Interesting.

Question: What is it that you have against Hinduism?"
J.P.F.¹⁴

RKH: Christianity is a separatist religion. Hinduism is an integrationist religion. It accepts all religions without regard to "race, creed or national origin", and requires its followers to do the same. The integrationists' "toleration of evil" was born in India. Our fathers believed that God banished the serpent to India.¹⁵ Its poison has emanated from there ever since. Hinduism tolerates everything from whores to tattoos. Christianity doesn't. I believe you told me that you consorted with a whore who betrayed you and I read elsewhere that a nurse in a hospital identified you by your tattoo. Hinduism and its offspring, Christian-Hinduism, is an integrationist religion. Christianity is not.¹⁶

¹⁴ Franklin shot the pornographer Larry Flint. He is also accused of shooting a number of interracial couples.

ESAU-EDOM: "Dear Brother; Scripture teaches that we are not to abhor Edom." S.E. - Idaho

RKH: Quite right. After looking after our own we are to give the stranger "crumbs from the table". This is predicated on Edom obeying the Law not to approach the altar, living in our land, or hating the WORD which is God. After all, "Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? And am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies." Ps 139:21-22.

One Percent Money

Three banks - Macquarie, Rothschild and Mace-Westpac - invented what became known as gold loans. They borrowed gold from Australia's Central Bank at 1%, which was quite happy for a 1% return on the gold in its vaults which otherwise earned nothing. The borrowers immediately sold the gold, invested the proceeds at 18%, and contracted to pay futures prices at a 15% premium to miners who had millions of ounces of gold locked in the ground but who were cash-strapped. The loan from the Central Bank was literally to be repaid in gold as it was mined from the ground - and paid for at the futures price that had already been contracted for. The banks replaced the gold they had borrowed from the Central Bank and made a completely no- risk profit on the deal!

At the same time this was going on, tens of thousands of farmers and small businesses were forced to pay the murderous 18% official interest rate and upwards and went to the wall. On Target Vol. 35, No. 29, Australian League of Rights,

Chapter 307

INSTIGATED WARS

Babylon has quietly enveloped the world under the name of the New World Order and Globalism - but it is the same Babylon that our fathers knew. The plan is ancient.

The Scriptures that warned us were banned by renegade priests millennia ago to keep us from being able to defend ourselves.¹ The same priests today keep their lips tightly sealed about Babylon's crimes in exchange for Babylon's gold. The scribes of Babylon tell us daily that good is bad and bad is good. Thus, with the scribes and pharisees leading the way - Babylon continues its march.

This issue will look at Babylon's use of war as a tool of change.

Dog Fighting In Lynchburg

I was talking to a police officer the other day. He told me about dog-fighting in Lynchburg. Both Blacks and Whites fight dogs.

Three years ago when I was in better health, my boy John Hundley and I were out in the hills and stumbled onto a hollow in Amherst County where over 70 grown Pit Bulls were chained next to their shelters. All except for one or two, wagged their rear ends wanting to be petted. We met dog buyers there who had come a long way to buy these fully grown dogs, but the owner was away. I wondered at the time who would buy a grown Pit Bull weighing a 80 to 100 pounds. Now, I think I know.

The officer told me that the police can't stop the dogfights for two reasons. They don't know where they are being held, and usually the fights are held in parts of town where the police really don't want to go.

The Pit

A pit has a pitmaster or ringmaster who is the top man. He says whose dogs will fight and whose won't. He provides the place, the competition, the crowd, and everyone follows his rules. For arranging the fight he gets a cut of everything that goes on in and around his pit. No handler fights his dogs without his permission and without paying him.

To start a fight, dog handlers put their animals on leashes and taunt other similarly restrained dogs. When the dogs are fully aroused they are then released to fight. A great deal of money changes hands in dog fights.

Babylon's Dog Fights

Babylon does the same thing to the nations of the world that dog handlers in Lynchburg do with Pit Bulls.²

The Priests Create A King

In India, many centuries before Christ, the priests deposed an uncooperative king. They did this by taking a boy of no particular distinction, training him, and then claiming that their protege was the long lost son of the true king and the reigning king was an impostor. The great King Asoka, the father of Buddhism, came from this line. He was a creation of the priests. A handler.

In that day, news was spread by temple priests. In short order everyone in the land heard the news about their being a new king. Since the story came from priests, it was believed and the sitting king was duly deposed and the priest's protege became the new king and the priests ruled through him.³

The Two Systems

There are two systems in the world today that encompass religion, government, trade, and work. The National system and the International system, that operate between nations or inter-nation. The first is that of individual nations. The second is that of those who wish to trade between different nations.

² A "nation" is a race. A "country" is a taxable entity that may contain more than one nation.

³ Hindu priestly castes even today retain control of their religious organizations, with their incredible wealth, by choosing a baby, training him, and ruling through him for his lifetime. He is not allowed to marry since children would complicate temple wealth ownership. At his death the priests say that the religious leader has been reborn in another child (reincarnation) and so they repeat the procedure to secure the next high priest. With variations they repeat this procedure in their selections of kings (presidents, premiers, rulers) worldwide.

Their entirely different focus makes each an enemy of the other.

The Nation

A nation is a race, a separate people with its own religion and way of life. There are many nations. There are the Japanese, Chinese, Vietnamese, Slav, the several Black nations, the Saxon nation and Jewish nation⁴

Nation Antipathy

There is a natural dislike, distrust, and even hatred that exists between the different nations of the world. This aversion to each other is the thing that makes them different nations. It is something understood by everyone; each believes that the safety and well being of his own people can only come from their own because only their own understands their nation.

The Saxon System

The natural system of the Saxon is based on obedience to the WORD. The WORD instructs him to divide the land and have no monopolies. This results in a self-sufficient farm system (SSFS) in which every man is a king and priest, ruling his kingdom by his God's Law system.⁵ Every Saxon understands the rules that are clearly outlined in the WORD. They

4 The Jews scattered over the world are agents of the ITC. However, when gathered together in Palestine they tend to become a nation whose focus is entirely different from that of their international trade representative kinsmen.

5 "In the beginning was the WORD, and the word was with God, and the WORD was God." John 1:1, and "The WORD was made flesh, and dwelt among us." John 1:14 are also at instantly enmity with anyone who will not obey the rules.

The Babylonian System

Babylon's system operates inter-nation - "international". It was a system born in India, the creation of the international merchant.⁶ Its purpose was to destroy the natural antipathy that each nation has for other nations so that the Indian merchant can come from abroad and buy and sell in safety, or use his foreign or domestic agents when necessary.

The substitute offered to national systems is the full blown Hindu trade caste system consisting of Priest, King & Army, Merchant; and Worker. Individual nations have their own individual systems. Conquered nations have the Babylonian trade system.

The cloying sticky glue holding the polyglot system together is - TOLERANCE!⁷ The trade system tolerates things forbidden by the WORD. It tolerates many gods and their many heresies. It tolerates strangers, monopolies, usury, murder (Thugs), promiscuity, episcopal kings, episcopal priests, merchant monopoly, tribute, racial intermarriage, and the free movement of outcasts to do labor that is beneath the other castes.

6 "A merchant shall hardly keep himself from doing wrong." Ecclesiasticus 26:29; "Babylon ... for thy merchants were the great men of the earth." Rev 18:21,23; "The love of money is the root of all evil." 1 Ti 6:10

7 In every conquered nation the one statute that may not be violated is that everyone must accept everyone else without regard to race, creed, or national origin. If a nation can be trained to do this they become inter-nation or "international" and will accept the entire Hindu trade system because they cannot refuse it.

Victory Of The Nation State

We tend to think in terms of what is good or bad for the Saxon nation to the exclusion of other nations. This is natural, but the fact is that if ANY nation on earth - Slav, Islamic⁸ Vietnamese or Saxon - if any or all of them become independent and establish their own nation-state - the Hindu trade system is excluded and in that nation Babylon's Hindu trade system dies.

Nationalism is the divisive thing that the Hindu trade system must suppress at all costs if it is to survive. Thus, separate nations holding the potential of becoming nation-states are the enemy of the International Trade Cartel.

In Saxon lands, the greatest enemy of the ITC is the Saxon's SSF system and the Saxon himself - naturally. Unlike most other nations, the Saxon's God commanded,

*"Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father."
Numbers 36:6⁹*

In addition to excluding other gods and their teachings, the God of the Saxon commands that anyone with any admixture with another nation becomes a member of the nation with whom he is mixed. This is instinctive with all who have not been cartel trained as anti-Saxon "Janissaries".¹⁰

Since the Saxon is made in the image of his God the WORD, this means that as long as a single Saxon male and female live - the Hindu trade system of Babylon is in danger.

⁸ Islam is a nation in that it accepts all Islamic believers as part of "the nation of Islam".

⁹ "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

Kali - Death Goddess

Kali, wife of Siva. One of the gods worshiped by Babylon. Around her neck are the heads of her victims and around her waist are their severed hands. Serpents, messengers of the gods, crawl at her feet. One hand hold a severed head; another a weapon. Her other hands are blood stained. Earrings put her in constant contact with the World Force that surrounds her head. The third eye in her forehead allows her to see with spiritual insight. Kali reigns supreme when Saxon fights Saxon or nation fights nation. She cowers most Christian priests who dare not condemn her and by their silence tolerate her. She stands triumphant on a slain white devil. To the Hindu - devils are white.

The suppressed Saxon Scriptures warned that the Naphidem stranger means to "kill us all" so that he can inherit the world for his own (see #286).

War

The Hindu trade system uses war to further its agenda:

- 1) It relieves economic depression by forcing captive nations to borrow money into existence.
- 2) It creates demand for expensive weaponry.
- 3) It destroys enemies.
- 4) It allows the system to seize private and public wealth during periods of martial law.
- 5) It destroys material possessions creating replacement demand.
- 6) It forces concessions from defeated enemies producing on-going tribute.
- 7) It is a population control measure.

To illustrate, I have selected a few of the more recent wars:

War Between The States: The Hindu trade system conquered the North and imposed its trade system while the hybrid Self-Sufficient Farm System in the South continued to exist as independent nation-states within individual states.

To strengthen its nation-state, the entire United States, but particularly the South, supported "The African Colonization Movement" under which male slaves were to be trained and repatriated back to Africa at age 20 and females at age 18.¹¹ This, combined with Andy Jackson's plan to relocate Indians beyond the Mississippi, threatened the cartel's inter-nation "international" vision for America. Both the Indian relocation and Black repatriation plans had to be dismantled.

¹¹ The slave system in America was forced on them by the English king who was a creation of the International Trade Cartel. The same was true in South Africa.

The cartel's economic system of the North was based on usury. Usury is a monopoly. When debts are used to squeeze the people and reduce them to servitude, an economic depression develops as money is paid back into banks and little new money is borrowed into existence.¹² This is what had occurred. A grinding depression had overcome the North in the early 1850s and would not go away. The immediate cause of the war was to relieve this deep on going depression. The following outlines the technique used to get it started:

President Lincoln told the South that he wanted peace.¹³ The South believed him and expected peace. Secure in this promise they were startled out of their complacency and enraged to discover that Lincoln had sent an invasion fleet loaded with troops to Charleston Harbor intent on combining forces with Fort Sumter troops to storm the city of Charleston. This provocation put South Carolina in a warlike attitude.

Scribes of the Cartel media reported the event differently in the North. They said that the South fired on the Northern flag when supply ships bearing food arrived on a humanitarian mission to supply food to the hungry boys in blue. The firing on Fort Sumter was presented as an unprovoked warlike act against the flag, honor and humanity of the North. The North was incensed.

This is how America's alien-owned media and its media-selected king worked together to bring the Saxon North and the Saxon South into conflict. A great deal of money changed hands in this fight and the Hindu trade system spread from the North and engulfed the South. This merged the South's SSF nation-state system into the Babylonian caste system of the North. Land was taxed, farms became unprofitable and were abandoned, cities sprang up overnight to stockpile, feed and house Southern workers made surplus by the destruction of their farm system. There they waited for the international corporations to hire them. A new day had dawned. Kings had been reduced to being slaves.

BOER WAR: Gold and diamond fields were discovered in S. Africa. Babylon wanted these fields and wanted to import thousands of cheap Black laborers to work them - which was forbidden by the Boers (Boer: S. African farmer) who wanted their own independent nation-state.

The media scribes told Britain that the Boers were abusing White British citizens who worked the mines. Britain sent troopships full of soldiers to protect them. The Boers' choice was to fight the British soldiers already in South Africa or to wait for the troopships to land and then fight both. They set a deadline for the British to withdraw. When the British didn't - the war was on. Tiny South Africa was destroyed, her population died by the thousands in concentration camps and cheap Black labor poured in to work the mines.

A great deal of money changed hands. Farms were taxed. The Boer nation-state was destroyed. Trade-cities sprang up overnight. Another nation-state foe of Babylon died.

WWII: To end WWI, Germany surrendered on the condition of Wilson's "no territorial aggrandizement". In violation of this condition, the victors took Germany's foreign colonies, Alsace-Lorraine, West Prussia, Silesia and Pomer-ania. Austria suffered most. Many millions of Germans were given to strangers to rule. This incited Germany.¹⁴

Germany had had a king (Kaiser) hostile to globalization. He was removed after WWI. To keep him from returning to the throne, the ITC first supported the Jewish-led German communist party. These communists were suppressed by German nationalists. These nationalists were then supported by the banking system that determined that at least they could keep the government out of the hands of its former rulers.

These nationalists behaved like nationalists once they obtained office. They stopped tribute payments and Germany blossomed while the rest of the world remained in a terrible depression. A war was necessary for the double-purpose of destroying the reborn German nation-state and at the same time to get the world out of the 1930s depression. The war was engineered in the following manner:

In Polish-occupied Germany, the Germans were thrifty farmers and merchants. The Slavs were not. The ITC media aroused the Polish-Slavs to attack German-Saxons and they killed over 50,000 of them. This was all the additional incitement Germany needed to invade Poland.

The scribes of the cartel media did not report the killing of German-Saxons in either Great Britain or France - they only reported that Germany had invaded Poland in violation of a mutual defense agreement between England and France and Poland. This was the provocation used to get England and France to declare war on Germany. The dogs of war had been incensed and were released to fight.

¹⁴ "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15; "Whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother." "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

America Enters WWII

America's handler, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, promised he would keep America out of war. He immediately ordered American destroyers to protect British ships carrying armaments to Great Britain - an act of war. This provoked Germany.¹⁵

Roosevelt also instructed the Dutch Government in exile in Britain to cut off oil supplies from their Dutch East Indies oilfields to Japan if Japan did not withdraw her troops from Manchuria. Japan could not exist as a modern nation without oil. But, withdrawal from Manchuria would cause her to lose "face" in the Orient - something that Roosevelt's advisors counted on. Japan's choice was to call her soldiers home and "lose face" - or fight. Predictably, Japan chose to fight the one she perceived to be persecuting her. She unleashed her dogs of war against Pearl Harbor.

Babylon's media had soft-peddled all that had gone before Japan's "unprovoked" attack on Pearl Harbor. The attack was all that America needed to declare war on Japan. None of these events happened by accident.

Germany Declares War On America

Germany had already been provoked by American attacks on German submarines and merchant ships and America's anti-German policy of supplying war materials to Great Britain. It was well known that she had an offensive/defensive agreement with Japan. The outbreak of hostilities between

¹⁵ See Vigilantes, VPC, Hoskins

America and Japan caused her to make official the undeclared war in the Atlantic already in progress, little of which had been reported by the media.

The cartel-selected handlers of nations had skillfully released their dogs and while the dogs fought the ring-master collected the bets. A great deal of money changed hands in this fight. Saxon killed Saxon by the tens of millions. When it was over the ringmaster continued to manipulate the survivors.

CHINA: Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek ruled China. China was a confederacy of semi-independent warlords united to fight the Japanese invader and their own communist insurgents.

The atomic bomb ended the war with Japan and the United States sent war material to Chiang Kai-shek to fight the Communist enemy.

This war aid bound for China was then pushed off-ship into the Indian Ocean. Lack of war material at a critical time caused the Chinese Nationalists to fall to the communists under Mao.

The Anti-McCarthy Witch Hunt

Senator Joseph McCarthy, head of the Senate's Un-American Activities Committee was highly successful in his hunt for communists in Washington. Then he learned that the mishandling of American war material dispatched to China caused the fall of Nationalist China. This was high treason! This had more explosive power than even his exposure of communists in Washington. The New World Order's conspiracy was larger than anyone imagined.

To stop McCarthy before the country erupted into a revolution, the pitmaster set his media to the task of shutting down the McCarthy investigations. They went after him him tooth and nail - and got him. The stress caused McCarthy to have a heart attack which killed him. But, before he died he wrote a little book called *The Fight For America*¹⁶ which has been blacked out by the iron curtain over America. However, there are still people who have copies. The story won't die. The cartel who ruled then rules now. The one difference is - now we know.

KOREA: The Korean communists had no war material with which to wage war. America had surplus war material that had been stockpiled for the invasion of Japan and had never been used. This stockpile was divided. Half went to the communists in Korea and the other half to the communists in Vietnam.

America's media-selected rulers armed both Korean and Vietnamese communists. The purpose being, to bring both the nation of Korea and nation of Vietnam into the Babylonian octopus through war.

Of immediate value, a nice steady low key war was needed to keep America out of a post WWII depression that usually follows the shutdown of war spending. The fact that American and Korean lives were lost was of absolutely no importance to the ITC.¹⁷

VIETNAM: The other half of the surplus munitions earmarked for the invasion of Japan was sent to N. Vietnam and distributed to the communist insurgents there. The war changed Vietnam from a nation into a taxable entity called a country - a part of the Hindu trade cartel. There are interesting by-lines:

- * The communist leader, Ho Chi Minh, was trained by the CIA. This information is contained in the above mentioned book.

- * The US transported more than 1,200,000 Cochine Chinese from N. Vietnam to S. Vietnam and abandoned them in the midst of native Vietnamese. Finding themselves in the midst of a hostile Vietnamese population, they became "Vietcong" bandits to survive. This gift of the American government caused Vietnam's "civil war". The civil war was the excuse the Vietnamese government used to expropriate private property which will later be "privitized" into the ITC. Standard procedure.

- * The Vietnam farce went so far as having the UN demand that UN forces give loudspeaker warnings before making attacks on communists, and the American media saw nothing strange in this.

- * The US had the president of S. Vietnam assassinated.

- * The CIA had 50,000 S. Vietnamese landowners assassinated to aid the transition of S. Vietnam into the NWO.

The result of the American government's actions in the Far East has been to destroy the Chinese, Korean and Vietnam nation-states and install cartel governments in their place. These new countries ruled by ITC appointed handlers are now available to further the aims of the NWO whenever their handlers are ordered to do so.

ALGERIA: Algerian Islamic fundamentalists used the ITC's own political voting system and, in spite of the cartel media monopoly, to the consternation of the cartel, voted themselves into power. This is the first time such a thing has happened. Their ITC government refused to step down; they couldn't. To do so would withdraw Algeria from the International Trade Cartel.

War ensued. The fighting between Algeria's ITC government and its Islamic people has been going on for almost a decade and nearly 100,000 lives have been lost. It has been brutal.

Unable to subdue its own rebels, the pitmaster who oversees the affairs of local governments at last stepped in and ordered the state of Israel to help Algeria's hard pressed handler fight his rebels. The following item recently appeared in a financial paper:

Israel to help Algeria fight terror: Israel is to provide expertise to help Algeria build a counter-terrorism unit in what is seen as a significant strategic move by Israel to improve ties with the Arab state. (Financial Times, March 17, 2000)

This has nothing whatsoever to do with improving ties! Simply put, Islamic nationalism in Algeria threatens to unseat the ITC-imposed government, create an Islamic nation-state, and withdraw from the ITC. The cartel has responded with a crusade to crush the Islamic nationals. Thus we have the paradox of a Jewish state and an Islamic state combining efforts to subdue Islamic rebels.

If necessary, the ITC will call in as many subject countries as needed to help with the effort - Islamic, Jew, Christian, Buddhist, Black or White - as many as they need to subdue the revolt against the cartel - for that is what it is.¹⁸

Make no mistake, a revolt against a government, any government, is a revolt against ones who established that government - the International Trade Cartel, also called the New World Order, but whose ancient name is - BABYLON!

CHECHNIA: Turkic Chechnia is Moslem. It is also a nation. It is also a nation attempting to establish its own nation-state.

Slavic Russia is also a nation. It is Christian Orthodox. It has long been the mortal enemy of the Turk. Slavic Russia is also making rumblings about becoming a nation-state. Thus far, there are only rumblings because Slavic-Russia is still firmly in the hands of the ITC.

The ancient Slav enmity against the Turk serves the ITC well. War between the two allows the media-elected Russian government to re-establish its iron grip over its Slav subjects. The war against Chechnia also destroys a breakaway nation-state. It's a win-win situation for the pit-manager, as most ITC-arranged conflicts are.

The following news item slipped under the media's iron curtain:

"Russia's new president Putin dismissed the mounting evidence that the Russian security services had a hand in blowing up blocks of flats in Moscow as 'raving madness.'

"'It is immoral even to consider such a possibility,' he said. The explosions which killed nearly 300 people were blamed on Chechnian terrorists and served as the pretext for the invasion of the Caucasian republic." (Financial Times Weekend, March 18/March 19, 2000, p1)

It is the writer's opinion that the Chechian affair is just one more in the long list of ITC-instigated wars. The primary reason most of these wars are instigated is to keep nations from becoming un- manageable nation- states.

Summery

A Chinese philosopher once said that one must know two things about war; himself and his enemy. If he knows himself and his enemy - victory is assured. If he knows only himself - he stands only half a chance of victory. If he knows neither himself nor his enemy - defeat is inevitable.

Babylon has rolled out its media guns to keep Reform Christianity from telling the Saxon who he is and what his God requires of him. This information would keep the Saxon from defeat.

Babylon has also discovered that Reform Christianity has discovered who Babylon is and is telling the Saxon nation that, too. To prevent informed Saxons from reacting to this news by gathering together to become a Nation-State and separating from the cartel, a worldwide anti-Saxon attack has been launched.

We, whom God chose in the beginning as His messengers, must agree that in spite of the natural antipathy with which we regard other nations and with which they regard us, that we must hold in our protests at our borders in the face of constant ITC "staged" provocations. Different nations must agree to disagree while they join forces to banish the ring-master who would live on our blood.

The Saxon's mission is to teach the separate nations of the world that the Hindu trade system is in reality a Hindu slave system. No longer can we afford to maintain a Hindu caste system in which the stranger is above and we are beneath.

We must teach our people that we can no longer allow the Hindu slave master to loose the dogs of war whenever it suits him so that in the end he can walk over the bodies of our dead and take the survivors and make slaves of them.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: An American pastor sent me a booklet The Phinehas Hoods which attacked your book Vigilantes of Christendom. I went back and reread the book and I still cannot find the erroneous passages he said were there. So I wrote back and told him I agree with you. You are one of the few who understand our predicament and you are a steadfast friend of SA.

Neither did I like the way the alien media attacked your book, War Cycles / Peace Cycles. Saxons should realize that such attacks are done by the enemy and their agents to try to demonize our people. We can clearly see this in David Irving's trial against Deborah Lipstadt. Although he only used facts, her lawyer said he manipulated them to suit his ideological bias. We pray for his vindication.

Jews are leaving SA. Their Synagogue's are closing in many places, including a huge old-age home. Still, the few left are so ill-mannered that we have had a few fights with them last week. They are so used to having their own way that it came as a surprise when a Christian tells them they are Jews and behave as such.

A TV programme 20/20 shown over the American ABC TV station stressed the crime situation in S.A. and they did not spare the details. They showed how whites are murdered without motive and with much cruelty. Also in clear language they said that it started after the ANC took over and that ordinary law abiding citizens have no protection and no rights. Rights belong to criminals who are 99% Black. The authorities protect the criminals so crime continues to soar.

North of us in Zimbabwe (Rhodesia) chaos rules. Mugabe lost the referendum that would back up his stance that he can change the constitution to allow black war veterans to take over White farms. So far they have occupied 600 farms bringing all farming activities to a halt. Tobacco and other plants, largely for the export market, are rotting on the farms and in green houses. This was Mugabe's only foreign income and his monetary situation is so critical that he can not pay for fuel from Mozambique or electricity from S. Africa. He borrowed R800 million from this government, but I see no improvement. He incited those Blacks who in some cases were not even born before the bush war. They are posing a threat to the White farming families. A judge ruled against these squatters, but the police and what is left of the army (the rest sit in the Congo helping to overthrow the Congolese government) refuse to act as Mugabe has not ordered them to act. It seems to us that Whites living are in great danger.

To the east, Mozambique (Portuguese East Africa) had floods caused by cyclones and as the land is very flat, overflowing Zambezi, Limpopo and other rivers quickly covered the land. Our helicopters flew for four weeks airlifting Blacks out. The locals complained about the thousands that drowned and about the aid that came too late. In the end it turned out that the food and medical supplies sent by many countries simply disappeared from the storerooms. It had been stolen by officials and sold on the black market. These same cyclones starting in the Mozambique channel caused floods in the low veld near the Kruger Park, Northern Transvaal etc, especially in those area where vegetables and fruit are produced. The price of these commodities has already risen. We have not had so much rain since we moved out here and it continues.

The Human Rights Commission started their hearing with-out "Die Afrikaner" newspaper. They sent the report by Claudia Braude on racism in the media in English to the office and our editor refused it, asking for a translation. Nothing was received to date and I doubt if it ever will. Apparently Mbeki and the rest have such inferiority complexes that they cannot tolerate it when they are criticized or told in what a mess the country is in. Newspapers according to them must only praise them and show all the good they are doing.

Around the New Year many fires were started by arsonists in the Cape Province and entire mountains were burnt black.

With Best wishes, K.J.

Chapter 308

LEAVE US ALONE

In this century, many nations of the world have felt themselves oppressed and have removed themselves from the control of those they identified as their oppressors. The Egyptians, Palestinian Jews and India removed themselves from British control. Ireland and now Scotland have revolted against England. The Russian Slavs threw off the rule of their Russ nobility; the Indonesians severed "Dutch Colonialism" and black Africa has rejected white rule and chosen, for better or worse, to rule itself. Even the American Indians are exerting their claim to self-rule in their "reservations" over which they exercise the sovereignty of small countries.

The craving for independence is not confined to the colored nations alone, it is also to be found in the Saxon nation and is supported by their Holy Scriptures which prophesy that in the last days;

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16

It is unimportant whether one agrees with the growing Saxon craving for independence or not; it is important to know that in spite of their rulers calling the Saxon craving for self-rule a "hate crime" - the ideal of freedom and self-rule exists and has perhaps found an articulate spokesman in Hans Schmidt, the author of a new book End Times/End Games.¹

Hans Schmidt is the the head of GANPAC - "German American Political Action Committee". This is the only political action committee speaking for Americans of German descent, one of the largest ethnic groups in the country. However, the craving for independence that it evidences speaks for growing numbers of Saxons worldwide who rightly or wrongly feel that their race is oppressed and desire the same self-rule they have extended to others. The following is from the Foreward of Schmidt's new book and is printed with permission.

A Personal Message

After having nearly completed this book, I was asked by one of my closest collaborators what I would say to Jews if I ever had the opportunity to speak to them at one of their numerous gatherings. Well, here it is. I do hope you notice the exasperation.

Why don't you leave us alone?

We don't need you to create a happy and prosperous life for us. Wherever we settle on this earth, we get along well without you. Look at the last, almost pure white stronghold on earth, namely, little Iceland, and notice what an orderly, nearly crimefree society our people can create when there are no Jews in important positions. All other white nations on earth are in an unstoppable decline precisely because the Jews within their borders have assumed positions to which they are not entitled: Not by virtue of their race, their religion, their culture, nor due to their talents or nature.

¹ End Times / End Games, Hans Schmidt

We don't need your politieians and your political system, a system designed to further your interests, but which is alien to us because it is based upon lies and deeeit, eorruption, terror and hypoerisy. For eons, our ancestors did just fine when you were not around. They ruled themselves, it was a rule according to their needs, wants and inclinations.

We don't need your war propagandists like the late Walter Lippmann, Samuel Untemyer, Ilya Ehrenburg, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, and so many others before and after them. We realize you needed them in order to create a war psychosis in the Ameriean, Russian and their peoples whenever it suited your needs. We can tell you that our Aryan peoples would have been better off with just knowing the truth. Only the truth would have made a lasting peace possible, but the dispensation of the truth was, and is, seemingly not ever in the interest of your tribe.

We don't need your zillion "experts" in the press, on TV, and radio to inform us of world events from the Jewish perspective, or to tell us how to create a happier life. Without you, before you were around en masse, our peoples were God-fearing, cheerful and more satisfied than they are now.

We don't need your race-mixers, multi-culturalists, "liberals", integrationists, soeialist do-gooders, and promoters of "diversity". Your ADL, Simon Wiesenthal Center, AJC and so many other groups would do well to eheck for "diversity" and "integration" first in their own offiees before jumping on non-Jews who do not seem to eomply with your insatiable demands that all others, but not you, abandon their heritage.

We don't need your "finaneiers". Billions of people on this earth would be better off if there were no Baruehs, Sehiffs, Greenspans, Rubins, Milkens and all the others whose principal aim seems to be to eontrol the wealth created by others.

Imagine how much happier the multitudes of Asia would be just now if George Soros, undoubtedly with the generous assistance of his "ethnic" brethren, had not felt the need for further riches, and began toppling the Asian and Russian currencies.

We don't need your philanthropists. For someone who steals a billion, it is easy to give one hundred million away, and then pretend that he or she is a great benefactor of mankind. The real charities of the world, for instance, selfless Catholic nuns in the hospitals, Red Cross nurses on the battle fields, or people connected with the SOS children's villages and the Salvation Army, are usually non-Jews.

We don't need your loan sharks, gangsters, porno kings, betting parlors, pimps and dope pushers. There are still some areas in Aryan lands where these "professions" are not allowed, and everybody knows that in such areas little crime can be found. We realize that without crime there would be fewer job openings for Jewish judges, lawyers and even law professors at universities, but we would gladly part with them.

We don't need the Jewish icons of our age: Not Albert Einstein, nor Sigmund Freud and Karl Marx. The harm they did to all of humanity (generally with the wholehearted support of all of Jewry,) is inestimable. For ourselves we still have Luther, Kant, Schopenhauer, Nietzsche and Heidegger - to name but a few. But there are thousands.

We don't need your art dealers, art connoisseurs and art critics who are all so determined to alter the psychological make-up of the masses of our people by destroying their healthy instincts for what is ugly or beautiful. Without your brethren in the art business, truly great Aryan artists might have again a chance to create masterpieces which will endure for centuries or even millennia.

We don't need your kind of government ministers to rule us, your ambassadors to represent us, and your behind-the-scenes administrators to tell us what to do with the land originally cultivated and civilized (mainly) by Anglo-Saxons and Germans. Your Kissingers, Albrights, Achtenbergs, Rubins, Holbrookes, Kornblums and Lawrences could never be in the same league with outstanding people like George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams and Benjamin Franklin, to name but these few.

We don't need your merchant moguls. Long before you came upon the scene, the grain from Poland and the Ukraine reached Western Europe without Jewish grain dealers making huge profits, and Scottish whiskey was shipped across the world without the Bronfmans. Nürnberg, Augsburg, Leipzig, Florence, Venice and Milan were great trading centers long before the Gimbels, Saks, Mays and Bloomingdales became known.

We don't need your music. Not Schoenberg, nor Mahler, nor Bernstein, nor all your other fiddlers. And, certainly not the cacophony camouflaged as music which you currently impose on our youth. I mean those horrible, soul-destroying noises like rap and hard rock. Listen to Wagner's "Tannhäuser", Beethoven's "9th", and Strauss' "Also sprach Zarathustra", or Mozart melodies, and realize whereof I speak. No Jew could create anything remotely like that (not even Mendelssohn, who was one of your best.) We find it symptomatic that conductor Leonard Bernstein ended his last public performance shortly before his demise not with a composition by himself, or, for instance, by Gustav Mahler, but with Beethoven's 7th Symphony.

We don't need your artists in sculpture, painting and architecture. Contemplate, for a moment, if you can, the garbage your people are creating and promoting. Look especially at your depressing Holocaust "art". Then compare this truly worthless junk with the works of the ancient Greeks and Romans, and Michelangelo, Rembrandt, Dürer, Titian, Breker, Wren, Schinkel and so many others of our stock with truly artistic gifts. There is no comparison!

We don't need your inventors and inventions. ALL the great inventions that have had such a lasting impact on our lives, for instance, cars, jet planes, TV-sets, rockets to the moon, computers and electron microscopes (to name but very few) are brain children of Aryan minds. The greatest typically Jewish invention is the Atomic bomb, and that will probably be your undoing.

We don't need your "Hollywood", with everything which this term means. The harm done to the Aryan mind through the incessant noxious effluent from "Hollywood" created by you and your kind in the movie and TV studios is inestimable. You know of the harm done to our offspring, or why else would you impose a taboo on the question of what really causes young children to murder their school mates and teachers? It is not the possession of guns.

We don't need your rabbis preaching brotherhood and tolerance to us, pushing a mythical "diversity", while they, and you, are the most self-centered and intolerant people on earth. How many "Goyim" do you allow in the top echelons of the ADL, the American Jewish Congress, the Wiesenthal Center or the "Presidents of major Jewish Organizations"? None? How come? Where is your tolerance and your continuously alleged desire for diversity?

We don't need the multitudes of your professors and teachers brainwashing our youth to the point where they have lost all knowledge of our glorious past, and have developed a proclivity for indecency, arrogance, dishonesty and crudeness. Collectively you manage to befuddle our offspring to such a degree that soon they will really believe, contrary to all facts, that there are no differences between races, peoples, tribes and individuals, with the exception, of course, of the Jews, who tell us they are God's Chosen, an allegation nobody is allowed to question.

We don't need your abortionists. How many lives has your "Holocaust" against innocent white babies, as yet unborn, cost us? (A single Jewish doctor, and a "Holocaust survivor" to boot, a Dr. Morgenthauer operating in Canada, admitted in October 1998 that so far he has performed 65,000 abortions, most of them obviously on Aryan girls.) What is it that draws your doctors to this ignominious profession? Is it because of the easy money they can earn, or do they enjoy the untimely removal of every fetus because, by chance, the properly delivered and fully grown Aryan human being might be just one more person whom you must hate?

We don't need your professional Holocaust survivors (Elie Wiesel and Simon Wiesenthal come to mind,) who collectively have created what Professor Butz called "The Hoax of the Twentieth Century". Their insidious admixture of fact with fiction has created a fairy tale that in later centuries may prove "the" text book case for a successful, albeit temporary, propaganda coup of world-wide dimensions. Whether you have managed to replace the blood libel against the Jews with a blood libel against the Germans (or Christians and Whites in general) remains to be seen. We doubt it.

We don't need your judges telling our people (who still constitute the bulk of Americans) that they can not begin the school day with a prayer. We don't need their orders to hire blind people to operate computer systems, or to rent to homosexuals, even though such practices are abhorrent to us, or that we must accept abortion on demand because you say so (and because it seems in your interest.) We also don't need your judges to tell our sound-of-mind children that they can be held back in school because imbeciles must share the school benches with them, and the teachers have to pay more attention to the feeble-minded than to healthy students.

We don't need your laws. Many of them are against the natural laws upon which our ethical behavior and our morals are based. Your use of double jeopardy and ex post facto laws, and your frequent transgressions against time-tested statutes of limitations, is abhorrent to us even if you clothe your actions under the guise of a search for justice. Never in the annals of our culture, and until your appearance as a power factor in Western jurisprudence, have veterans of a war long gone by been persecuted for actions which more than fifty years ago had been legal. Your OSI is one of the most pernicious examples of the illegitimate use of perfidious laws whose sole purpose is the exacting of vengeance by one single group. It also exemplifies the pattern of a continuous and flagrant transgression by the Jews against the ethical prohibition of conflict of interest that was imbued in Western Civilization before your people became too powerful.

Along with the above, we don't need the rules and regulations you, above all, have imposed upon us, and finally pushed down our throats as the "laws of the land", namely, the statutes pertaining to "affirmative action"; "civil rights", "separation of Church and State", "immigration of Third World peoples; "special preferences for HIV-infected homos"; "anti-gun control"; "school busing" --- their number is almost endless. Few Jewish legislators ever voted against an increase in taxes, and, not to forget, every single law passed by so-called democratic legislators is used to hog-tie the people even more. "Democracy" as practiced today is your game.

We don't need your lawyers; private, corporate or governmental. Rarely has one single profession caused so much harm to a nation as have Jewish lawyers (or, lawyers imbued with a Jewish Talmudic Weltanschauung) to the Untied States. Harvard, the current citadel of the teaching of Jewish shenanigans, was a far better university before it became overrun with Jewish faculty members and students. There had been sound reasons for a numerus clausus of old.

We don't need your writers. Almost all the great literature in the English language, literature that can still be seen on the shelves of libraries, was written by our people. With agents, publishers, professional critics and newspapers that accept their articles, and the book sellers now mostly belonging to your tribe, it follows that today's bestsellers are essentially your products. Will any of them eventually be part of the great literature enduring over the ages? We doubt it.

We don't need your "celebrities". Television would be so much better without the likes of Seinfeld, Koppel, Wallace, Rivera, Larry King, Barbara Walters and, not to forget, Jerry Springer. We remember when Jews created good movies and good TV series because the Jewish owners of studios and stations had to be careful not to insult the sensibilities of the Aryan viewers and listeners? Now, with your power and influence being nearly limitless, you believe that you do not have to mind us anymore, and your true tastes and inclinations come to the fore. (The mention of Jerry Springer allows the comment that perhaps no individual in the United States epitomizes Jewry better than this "entertainer": brash, pushy, and always in need of accolades and recognition; obviously also beset by deep insecurities and, last but not least, with a love to dwell in the gutter where normally no decent person would venture.)

We don't need your scientists, no matter how many truly excellent ones you yourselves have among your people. But the truth is that the greatest scientists of Western Civilization, those that made the seminal discoveries, were ALL Aryans: Leonardo da Vinci, Galileo, Newton, Copernicus, Leibnitz, Kepler, Lilienthal, Oberth, to name but few of tens of thousands, were all Northmen. The thought arises how many potential great discoverers belonging to our peoples were never able to develop their skills because too many Jews at too many of our universities had occupied the study places rightly belonging to them?

We don't need your input in military affairs. You do not have a great military tradition in the ways of Frederick the Great, Napoleon, Hitler, Wellington, Nelson, Robert E. Lee, Nimitz and others. Your demands that young women enter combat alongside their brothers, and your orders that homosexuality be accepted by the military as merely another form of "sexual orientation," are destroying the Armed Forces of this nation. In the next war, a war sure to come, will you accept responsibility when the dismal results of your actions assure defeat?

We don't need your psychiatrists, psychologists, school counselors and lonely hearts columnists. Our people were far happier and mentally healthier without their advice. If your immoral, unethical and nihilistic TV, radio, "educational" and press propaganda had not destroyed the morals of the masses (and thereby also caused the collapse of the family-oriented society,) nobody would have to write to or talk to the likes of Ann Landers, Abigail van Buren, or Laura Schlessinger.

We don't need your historians. Although they pretend to be the epitome of objectivity and evenhandedness, not one of them - not one! - can ever be truly neutral, and write or teach without having his Jewishness "coming to the fore", so to say. Our children are being taught to hate their own ancestors, to look down on those who created the great European and American nations. American school children of the 1990s are quite familiar with the notorious (and false) figure of "6 million" Jews killed in World War II, but none know the actual number (407,316) of American soldiers who gave their life for their country in the same conflict. That is your doing! You cannot deny it!

We don't need your Spielbergs, Katzenbergs, Eisners et al. As far as we are concerned, none of your movie makers have been able to surpass the artistry and talents of our David W. Griffith, Walt Disney or Leni Riefenstahl.

We don't even need your medical doctors and dentists, although many of them are not only expert in their field, but also truly dedicated human beings who perform modern miracles with techniques developed by them. However, an Aryan cannot fail to remember Roentgen, Barnard, von Behring or Fleming and so many others who, in times gone by, were able to study at our universities because a numerus clausus prevented the Jews from overextending themselves. (How many of our able students can at the present not study medicine or other subjects of their choice because their slots are taken by too many Jews?)

We don't need the fashions you surreptitiously impose on us. Are you proud of the fact that as a result of your silent imposition hundreds of millions of people on earth clothe themselves in Marxist, anti-social garb like blue jeans, which are actually dungarees, namely, pants to wear when clearing the dung out of the stables? As a result of your propaganda, the very people who abhor finely tailored military uniforms, believing that wearing them indicates submission to authority, actually dress in a sloppy uniform that denotes not freedom and individualism, but anarchy, and political correctness cum abject conformity.

We don't need your Tikkun olam, your belief that you, of all people, can repair or create a perfect world. You must remember that, left all to yourselves, you, contrary to us, could not exist. You would wither. Your Zionist entity in the Middle East, the Jewish state of Israel, could not exist for a year without financial assistance from abroad, mainly without tribute garnered from America and Germany. And such a people wants to repair the world? Get real! Furthermore, we consider the assumption of any homo sapiens to be able to "repair the world", and create earthly perfection, to be blasphemy.

We don't need your New York Times, Washington Post, U.S. News & World Report, and the innumerable other Jewish-owned and Jewish-controlled newspapers and magazines on earth that provide such a skewed world view to our masses. Do you seriously believe that your method of having mostly Jewish columnists digesting the daily news for us improves our knowledge and mental health? Would our H.L. Mencken or an Oswald Spengler today have a chance to see his comments published? We doubt it.

We don't need you, the self-proclaimed eternal innocent victims of the alleged bigotry of others, to impose guilt complexes on our peoples. Whatever has happened to you in the past was usually a reaction to your nefarious actions. Separate from us -- we let you go --, and you shall suffer no more, we hope. All by yourself you may even create the earthly paradise of your dreams.

We don't need your constant calls for change, or progress, or reform, or growth, and revolution, etc., etc. Often our peoples are quite satisfied with their situation in life as it is, and your neverending endeavors to destroy the good that is, for nebulous rewards in the future, create only unhappiness and mental sickness.

We admit: You are superb politicians. Far better than we are or will ever be. You have a single-mindedness like no one else; you have honed your political skills for thousands of years, and you have the great advantage of not being plagued by a bad conscience when others suffer because of your actions. You are fantastic in your ability to play one side against the other. This is why "democracy" is your game. You bribe politicians and judges; you lie to the voters; you exploit the human weaknesses of others, and generate transgressions when they are not there. You set son against father, daughter against mother; sibling against sibling, and entire tribes, peoples and nations against each other. People who are watching you and your doings constantly, cannot conceal their amazement when they notice the ease with which you create your false values out of nothing, and how you are able to diminish true values to the point of nullity. There are no better magicians than you. Your ability to divert, with your shell games, the attention of the Goyim masses from the essentials of life is astonishing. But just as your financial speculators can only create the illusion of wealth, so does your unquestioned savvy in politics create only the illusion of freedom. With all your intelligence and political perspicacity you really seem to live under the illusion that you can create a better world for all, while in fact you are only able to destroy everything you touch. We do pity you.

Finally this: Do you realize you are smothering us? With you around we can't breathe, and we are greatly stifled in our creativity. We don't want to see the world through Jewish eyes, something almost unavoidable today. Abe Rosenthal, Charles Krauthammer and William Safire must be stand-ins for thousands of your brethren of similar ilk, persons who pre-chew every thought that might enter Aryan minds, and prevent our self-assertion where and when it is most needed. Your people are masters at obfuscation, lies, deceit, and dishonesty through selective reporting. The result of your attempts at trying to alter the Aryan psyche through mind-manipulation can only create discord and dissension. Alas, in the final analysis, although you know us well, you will never understand us, just as we understand you but we shall never really know you, and therein lies the danger.

We know that you believe you are the best and brightest of human beings, and that you enrich our lives immeasurably. But you are wrong. We, as rational people, have to weigh one against the other: your unquestioned talents in some fields of human endeavor against the destructive effects you, as a collective, have on a broad spectrum of our existence. Perhaps most of all, many of your endeavors run counter to our ideal of what life is all about.

We also know that you have been told, and most of you seem to believe it, that we "hate" you. That is why your fanatical activists have been subverting the Constitution with so-called "hate" laws, most of which were passed to assure special privileges and safeguards for you. But, truly, honestly, we do not hate you. We hate your lies and your basic dishonesty. We hate many of your nefarious actions. We hate when you, as a collective (people, religion, tribe, sect, culture, nation,) try to impose your immorality, your lack of ethics, and your odd and archaic "Weltanschauung" on us. We hate it when you flagrantly enrich yourselves on the fruits of our labor, and later claim that it was all your accomplishment. But we especially hate what you do to our children. You - most of all - are destroying their minds, and therewith their future.

Therefore, --- Just butt out of our lives. Leave us alone. Let us separate. You are so intelligent, you believe you are so much superior to us, and you are the Chosen of your God. Show us what you can do by yourselves by creating a viable entity just for your people (Parasitical Israel obviously isn't it.) When you leave, take along all the gold and diamonds you have so diligently amassed. We don't need it. But let's exchange our cultural values: You take the Picassos, Oldenbourgs, Rothkos, Warhols and Epsteins (etc.) with you, and we'll take back all of our Rembrandts, Titians, Dürers, Holbeins, Michelangelos, and the like. A fair trade. We give you what you like, and we repossess what comforts us - art works which express the needs of our souls. And, just imagine, you can keep all that wonderful abstract art, including the Holocaust monuments, for yourselves. That ought to make you happy. Our sincerest wishes are with you, and we promise not to invade you or make inordinate demands on the wealth you are sure to create all by yourselves.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins, On Saturday, my sister-in-law phoned. She had a letter stating that a black farm worker demanded residential rights. It seems that this worker started working on the family farm in the 1970s. At the moment he looks after the cattle. He is no longer young, but no black was ever turned away on account of old age. They get a pension and stay free until they die. So there must be more to this story. His two sons are teachers and must have told him to lay a claim.

Most of my father's farms were from the 18th century. The main one dates back to 1850 when the first in my father's line came directly from the Cape Province to settle there. He farmed and raised cattle and had a few sons to help. Luckily my late father kept a journal on the family history. There were no blacks living in this area when we got here. The landscape is open grassland. The Zulus had previously warred against other tribes and they had no place to hide from them so most fled long ago to what is now Botswana.

Many present day historians write about the Anglo-Boer war as if they have all the knowledge in the world - and they are so politically correct. It must come as a surprise when books written by eyewitnesses just after the war from manuscripts they kept during the war are reprinted and the contents differ completely from theirs. One such book was by Rev. J. D. Kestell who fought in DeWet's commando. He describes the person DeWet as a strong personality who got his fellow Boere to do what he wanted even though no real discipline existed before. The secret of his strength was apparently that although he was friendly towards everybody he was never intimate with anybody. He was secretive as a sphinx. In his own book, DeWet wrote that he quickly learned to keep all his plans to himself in case there was someone around who might carry information to the enemy.

Poor Rev Kestell spent a relatively comfortable life before the war. He quickly found that in guerrilla warfare he had to adapt to enormously changed conditions and there were no comforts what-so-ever. After the war Rev Kestel began a children's home in the Free State and he became known far and wide as Father Kestel.

I read and think about the same hatred displayed towards the Southern States of North America, Germany and South Africa. One reason was definitely to break up the farm system and take possession of Southern plantations and the riches that emanated from the land. In Germany, it was to harness their labor and to take possession of their inventions. In our case they wanted the minerals under the ground and to take over our strategic position on the trade routes that go around the tip of southern Africa.

But, there is more. Trade was one. Before WWII we could not make a safety pin, it had to be imported from England. As factories were set up we became self-sufficient, especially in those areas where they boycotted us. Now, with the new labour laws passed by the ruling blacks, these trade unions are killing industries. The trade unions have so much power that a black worker can do practically as he pleases.

We hear from certain American preachers who pretend to be our friends but really aren't. They prove it by always attacking someone on our side who is really doing something. But the thing that worries me is the silence of our own people on all that is wrong that is going on around them. That upsets me. Few seem to find fault with sex education for kindergarten children on TV; two day sex seminars at schools - even the youngest children who should not even be bothered about such things. One mother kept her child out of school, but that is still not good enough. People are afraid to be called names if they stand up for what is right and proper.

Terre Blanche will be going to prison for a year. He is the leader of the militia on whom we had placed so much hope.

He hesitated at the last moment, the black curtain descended, and the lights went out in South Africa.

Best wishes, K. J.

WELCOME HOME: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I recently received your Vigilantes of Christendom. Fascinating, enlightening material.

I was born in North Carolina and like most Americans trusted the media and the Judeo-Christian way. I moved to Japan in 1984 and that is when I began to question what I was taught in the U.S.. The current movement in Britain to re-write the Coronation Ceremony for Prince Charles could perpetrate a crisis of epic proportion.

The former Bishop of Durham, Right Rev. David Jenkins, has been spearheading such a move for about three years. Dr. David Hope, Archbishop of York, number two in the Church of England hierarchy, has thrown his support towards changes that will result in a secular multifaith "installation ceremony."

The group of reformers wants a role for the Roman Catholic and Methodist Churches, the Chief Rabbi and a representative of Islam instead of the exclusive leadership of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

It is proposed that the eucharist be removed from the ceremony.

Such reforms would throw into question the establishment of the Church of England and the monarch's role as Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England. The monarch is Supreme Governor by virtue of being sovereign." TKC", Vol 13, No 3)

BOB JONES DECLARES WAR AGAINST GOD: "Bob Jones is dropping its ban on interracial dating" declared Bob Jones III on CNN's Larry King Live. "I'm pleased that they've changed the policy," said Gov. Bush, the Republican Party front runner for president. The school started admitting Black students after it lost a 13-year battle with the IRS and its tax-exemption, but the school banned interracial dating.

Jones, playing stupid, told King that the school had no biblical reference to support interracial dating.

The Lynchburg News & Advance of Oct 24, 1998, p2. said this about Bob Jones University. "The schools ban on interracial dating or marriage prompted the Internal Revenue Service to revoke its tax exempt status in 1970, a decision upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court."

It is a fact - interracial dating leads to interracial marriage.²
The Scriptures say this:

"If there is any man in Israel who desires to give his daughter or his sister to any man who is of the seed of the Gentiles, he shall surely die, ... for Israel is holy to the lord and every man that defiles must surely die. ... And to this law there is no limit of days and no ceasing and no forgiveness ... And thou Moses, command the children of Israel ... that they shall not give any of their daughters to the Gentiles and that they shall not take any of the daughters of the gentiles; for this is accursed before the Lord. ... And it is disgraceful to Israel to those that give and to those that receive from the Gentiles any daughters, for it is unclean and accursed to Israel ... for there will be plagues upon plagues, curse upon curse, and all punishment and plagues and curses will come. ... and if they blind their eyes to those that commit uncleanness ... then shall the whole people together be punished, ... and there will be no respect for persons, and no consideration for persons, and no taking of ... offering and burnt offering ... as a sweet savour, that it may be acceptable. ... And on account of this I have commanded thee, saying: 'Testify this testimony over Israel: see how it happened to the Shechemites and their sons, how they were given into the hands of the two sons of Jacob and they slew them in torments, and it was justice to them, and it is written down for justice concerning them.'" Chapter 309

AUSTRALIA VISITED

I received an invitation to speak to a church conference in Australia. Never having been to Australia and having heard nothing but good things about it, I accepted with pleasure.

Long Trip

The trip from Lynchburg started with a 4 hour drive to Dulles Airport in DC. The Dulles waiting time was two hours before the 4 1/2 hour flight to Los Angeles. The Los Angeles wait was 3 hours before a 14 1/2 hour flight to Melbourne.

The seats on transpacific planes have built in extensions on top that fold inward against the sides of your head holding it immobile. In theory, this allows you to sleep, if you are one of those who can sleep on planes.

Arriving in Melbourne, I retrieved my baggage, presented my passport and visa, and went through customs. I thought they might look askance at my food supplements and vitamins, but the thing they pounced on were the two apples I had been saving. A dog checked me over and passed my food supplements, but not the Apples! Customs have apple sniffers? The lady inspector relieved me of my contraband apples and passed me through. I had officially arrived in Australia.

I then re-checked my baggage through to Cairns (pronounced "cans"), and waited 3 hours for my next flight.

Observations Thus Far

The airports I passed through all looked alike. It's almost impossible to tell what city or country you are in by the airport. The planes on the ground all look alike. The buildings all look the same. The people do, too.

The only planes I saw were Boeings - all made in the U.S. - mostly 747s. I didn't see any European built "airbuses". The cities where the airports are located also all look alike. Even the buildings look alike.

Money Changers

In Melbourne, I turned in my U.S. dollars for Australian dollars. The money exchangers gave me Australian dollars for US dollars at the rate of .5641¢ each. I later exchanged them back at the rate of .6161¢ - a 9.2% profit for the money exchanger - one way. Since I exchanged my money twice - once for Australian dollars, and then exchanged the Australian dollars for US dollars - I paid 18.4%.

There were long lines waiting to exchange millions and millions of dollars - half for US dollars, the other half for Australian dollars. Travelers trade them coming and trade them back when they go. Back and forth, back and forth. Out of each million dollars exchanged coming and going - $192,000 goes to the money exchanger for performing a virtually risk free operation. The grabber is this 18.4% rakeoff is legal! The people who do this must make a million dollars a day profit and there are several desks open doing blockbuster business.

Japanese

In Melbourne, there were large numbers of Japanese employees working for the airport. Many spoke with heavy Japanese accents and were difficult to understand. The loud-speaker announcements on the plane and in the airports were in Japanese as well as English as were the Airport signs. This bespeaks a strong Japanese economic presence in Australia.

Psychodelic Jap

Surprises often remain long after more important things are forgotten. One such surprise remains fresh in my memory.

One thinks of Japanese as having black hair, black eyes, yellow skin and slant eyes. Every Japanese I have ever seen has these features. In the airport a Japanese passed me who had yellow hair, yellow eyebrows, and yellow eyes - which must have had help from yellow contact lenses; he was Japanese but looked like a new species - an oriental goldfinger - or a creature from Star Trek. It was nothing I have ever seen before. It startled the daylights out of me - and everyone else.

Announcement

The airline personnel are always polite. Leaving the plane American Airlines/Quantas announced; "We wish to thank all our 'one world' customers".

Plane Makes

While waiting for the flight for the next leg of my journey, I looked out the airport picture window and studied the many different aircraft on the ground. There were Vietnam Airlines flying Boeings 767; Air China - 747; Quantas - 767 and 747; Fuji Airlines - 747; etc. I know there is the European made "airbus", but I didn't see any on this trip. Just American-made Boeings. There were no German, French, Italian or Japanese made airliners. Just American.

Dungarees, Chewing Gum & Indians

Something else. Everyone in the international hodge-podge of races seen in the airport wore dungarees. Dungarees were designed to be worn to clean dung from stables - which is how they got their name. With every other person wearing them they looked like a New World Order uniform.

A surprising number of otherwise nice looking individuals sat in terminals chewing gum. It seemed familiar - like I had seen it all before. Then it came to me. They looked like a herd of cows lying in a pasture chewing their cuds in unison. I've seen cows look like this a thousand times when I was a boy. That's why it looked so familiar.

I noticed a large number of Indians in the Melbourne airport. Two attractive young lady shopkeepers told me they came from New Zealand.

Australia & Its People

Australia is as big as the United States. There the similarity ends. The habitable parts are the coastal regions. The interior is a vast inhospitable desert.

On the east coast is a strip of habitable land about fifty miles wide. Going west from there you run into mountains. On the other side of these mountains is the desert. It's a barren land much like our own American southwestern deserts where nothing lives. I understand that in other parts the habitable coastal region extends much farther inland with the land becoming increasingly arid the further you go. These semi-arid stretches are where many cattle operations are located. But, the most profitable region is the coastal strip.

Australia's population is only 18 million, most of whom live in large cities, the largest of which is Sydney - 4 million; Melbourne 3m; Brisbane 1m; Adelaide 750,000; Darwin 750,000.

Southern Australia is cool - the north - tropics. Cairns, my destination, was in the tropics. It took more than two hours flying time to get there.

Northern Australia

I was met at the Cairns airport by my congenial host, Hank Roelofs, and driven to our destination about two hours south. We passed miles and miles of sugar cane. I was told that the next several hundred miles were the same - sugar cane. I also saw a few banana plantations with their banana stalks neatly enclosed in plastic bags to protect them from insects.

Conference Center & Speaking Australian

The conference meeting center was our destination - and quite adequate for our needs. Our host had a large family and they introduced me to the Australian tropics and the Australian language. Walking out on the grounds in back one could pick a banana from a tree, a coconut from the ground, a lemon, orange, grapefruit or mango from its own tree. Quite different from anything I have ever experienced in Virginia.

Someone commented on the number and irrationality of the "chooks". A chook was a new animal to me. Exposing my ignorance once more I asked what in the world they were talking about. I learned that in Australia a "chook" is a chicken. A "mozzie" is a mosquito; "porridge" is oatmeal. "Mate" is a comrade - not necessarily a wife. Have to be careful - the Australian language can be a barrier to speech.

There was one rooster that crowed at night instead of in the day. I named him General Lee because he would have been right on time if he had been crowing back in Virginia.

Driving In Australia

The position of the steering wheel took getting used to. It was on the wrong side. I was seated in the "passenger side", which is the driver's side, but with no steering wheel, accelerator, or brake. One is strapped in and helpless. Combine that with everyone else driving on the wrong side of the road - panic is just an instant away. Dozing off after being awake for the past 40 hours, I awoke to find myself driving on the wrong side of the road with an approaching car also on the wrong side, and the steering wheel gone! It's what nightmares are made of. It took a while to get my heart out of my mouth. What a way to wake up!!

In the main north-south two-lane highway there were stretches that were well maintained. Other parts contained numerous potholes and were really quite hazardous - especially when driving at night.

I was told that many of the great corporations doing business in Australia are tax-exempt, and that the burden of paying most of the taxes fell on the little people. Of those taxes, the part that should have gone to road repair goes instead to shelter, feed, and support the tremendous number of illegal immigrants flooding into Australia (called "boat people").

The bulk of the Australian population is concentrated in the larger cities to the south. The further one goes to the tropical north the less dense is the population. I was taking a walk one morning along the main north-south highway about 15 minutes after daylight and one car passed in the time I walked a mile on the highway.

There was one stretch of highway built by American engineers during WWII of which the Aussies are very proud.

A half-dozen people pointed it out to me. Australians have their share of criticisms about the U.S., along with everyone else, but they really do like America and trust her much more than Americans do.

April 25th, ANZAC Day

ANZAC Day is Australia's "memorial day" and the country makes a great effort to honor their war dead. There are speeches, parades, streamers and decorations, wreath laying and events - all extensively covered by newspapers and TV. There are long talks and newspaper articles rehashing Gallipoli and the other battles in WWI, WWII and the Boer War in which Australian troops participated. It's really quite a big thing.

There are also occasional articles protesting Australian involvement in British wars where Saxons were forced to fight Saxons.

Government Criticism

The Australian government are control freaks. They've got a law prohibiting almost everything and another law taxing everything else. There are roadblocks that check licenses and registration. A $150 dollar fine for no seat belts. They even tax "rainwater". I drew the line when I heard this last one, but it appears to be true. In Australia, if you build a dam to collect rainwater you must pay a tax on that rainwater that is supposedly collected since water is taxed. I asked what was one to do if someone built the dam, paid the tax, and there was no rain. Sue God? or sue the government? I'm still waiting for an answer on that one.

The top tax rate is 90% in New Zealand and 69% in Australia.

Australia Pays Indonesia

There is almost universal criticism by Australian Saxons of the political candidates selected by the newspaper owners for them to vote for. There is also criticism of their foreign policy once elected.

For instance, Indonesia, their closest neighbor to the north has a largely Muslim population of between 140 to 170 million compared to Australia's 18 million. Indonesia has laid claim to the northern half of Australia and Australia pays them tribute to keep their hostility at rest.

Part of the on-going tribute takes the form of Australia's military forces training Indonesian soldiers in Australia and sending Indonesia economic aid. Australia gave Indonesia Australia's vast oilfields which lie between Australia and Indonesia as part of the ongoing tribute. This most generous multi-billion dollar gift only satisfied Indonesia for a time.

Just last year, Australia's tribute was $150,000,000 in "aid". One month after payment of the "gift", Indonesia used the money to buy the surplus East German navy for $150,000,000. This purchase was done at a time when Australia has almost finished doing away with its own navy so as not to antagonize its northern neighbor. This purchase gives Indonesia an instant navy at a time when Australia has practically no navy at all to defend its shores.

To further show its peaceful intent, Australia has cut its armed forces back to just over two front line regiments - and these troops are now employed away from Australia under command of the UN protecting Asian Christians facing extermination by Moslems in E. Timor.

In essence, Australia's government has rendered Australia defenseless. No navy, no army, and only a skeleton airforce. It no longer even has an armed militia to protect the country in the army's absence since the government passed draconian laws against private gun ownership to pacify Indonesian suspicions of Australia aggressive intentions.

Everyone appears well informed about the situation. Everyone complained about weapons confiscation. But, it's debatable how much good that will do if hostilities break out.

Ownership

I was told that over 86% of businesses in Australia are owned by foreigners. Most of the extensive sugar cane fields, among other things, are owned by corporations such as Monsanto and Kraft. Japanese feedlots abound everywhere as well as Indian cattle farms; Chiquito has extensive banana plantations. The unending cane fields adjoining our conference center were owned by Indians.

Countryside

Australia has some of the most spectacular views in the world. I was taken on tours that included deep extinct volcanoes, impressive waterfalls, and rainforests.

In one place in the rainforest grew a 500 year old tree called a "figtree". A half a millennia ago a bird left a seed in the top of a forest giant which took root and put out its own foliage above, and octopus like tentacles dropped below that started to descend to the ground. When at last they reached the ground they took root and grew more tentacles which in time killed the host tree leaving the fig tree as the sole survivor.

The fig tree appears to consist of hundreds of impenetrable roots that serve as its trunk, and it grows into the stratosphere where it is crowned by lush branches and foliage. Perhaps thirty men standing arm to arm might be able to circle its base. Impressive. I've never seen anything remotely like it.

There were also volcano lakes where three feet from shore the water is five feet deep and 15 feet from shore the water is 300- 500 feet deep. People swim at their own risk. I never saw a life guard the entire time I was in Australia.

Then there were the billabongs. I was told that a real billabong is a bend in a creek that was bypassed and formed a little pond; but every swimming hole in the mountain streams seemed to be called billabongs. Everyone swam. Adding spice were signs that read, "Watch for crocodles!"

Abos

The Australian black aborigines are called "Abos" by Saxon Australians. They constitute 2% of the population and constitute 74% of the prison population. Their mythology says that they were created in the "dream times" when the earth was young. The Australian tourist industry promotes this "dream time" scenario as well as Aboriginal handicrafts and a certain weird sounding one note musical wind instrument that was heard in the movie "Crocodile Dundee".

The government treats the Abos as wards of the state and lavishes all sorts of privileges on them which include houses, education, and medical attention. Vast tracts of Australia are set aside for their use at the expense of the Australian Saxons in much the same way that land is being set aside in the U.S.

for wilderness areas and Indian reservations. This is causing a great deal of resentment from Saxons who are displaced.

I was driven through several Black settlements. They appeared to look very much like the many Indian and Black communities here in America. I was told that the reason many Abo houses are without doors is because the Abos burn them in their fireplaces. I was also told that the Abos much prefer orientals to eat because they complain that whites are too salty. The speakers telling these stories always quickly add that cases of Abo cannibalism are infrequent today.

An Anglican priest lectured on his experiences in Australian prisons. He said that white inmates receive much the worse attention and privileges in a prison system overrun by Abos. Because the Whites were receiving so little attention, he spent most of his time with them. When his activities came to the attention of the Anglican hierarchy, he was called on the carpet.

He said that Abos inmates are allowed unlimited visits from their friends, with their immediate family often being flown to the prison at government expense. In contrast, whites are allowed only one visitor a week.

Outback

There seem to be at least a half dozen schemes to develop the "outback". They ranged all the way from tapping a vast fresh water lake that supposedly lies under the desert in order to start irrigation - to flooding the region with sea water since it is below sea level. The purpose of the latter scheme is that the flooding would allow ships to reach areas of Australia that are presently inaccessible. In the latter case Australia would look like a vast mostly-flooded volcano where only the rim would be visible.

Complaint & Five Words

The complaint most often heard in Christian Revival circles is that God's Commandments ("The penalty for murder is death"; "The penalty for rape is death". etc.) are almost never taught from the pulpits of the country. If the Word is God and God's Commandments are never taught, how can the nation return to a God whose requirements are unknown? Their motto is 5-Words - "Obey and Teach God's Commandments". Sounds good to me.

They say they want more teaching of God's Laws even if it means sacrificing inspirational talks which are now current fare. That also sounds reasonable to me. I find myself guilty of neglecting this. Perhaps in the future I should start my own talks by FIRST going over as many of God's Commandments as I can before getting into other things. Reform starts at home.

Guilt Complex

There is a general complaint about the "guilt complex" that the media and government are trying to instill in whites. This complaint came not only from conference attendees, but from others whom I met in towns and resorts.

It is my opinion that the "guilt complex" syndrome is part of the plan to "humble" the Saxon. A humbled warrior is no warrior - especially when his weapons have been confiscated.

One criticism of their own government was the long standing policy of organizing groups of young girls to meet visiting US warships. This leftover from WWII is sponsored by local civic committees. The girls go out on dates with the ships officers, which increasingly mean that they go out with Black U.S. navy officers. Social interaction between races is disapproved by large sections of the Australian population.

The Australian Glance

The "Australian Glance" has been cultivated by the Australian media. Before making a comment on "race" the Aussie first glances around to see who might be listening. Then he says what he was going to say. This is called the "Australian glance".

Covered Sidewalks

Because of the frequent tropical rains, most of the businesses in the towns in the northern provinces have covered sidewalks. This allows customers to go from store to store without getting wet during rainy seasons.

Land Ownership

Australians are acutely conscious that almost everything is owned by foreigners. Just about every store or business you see in America is mirrored in Australia. The land itself is foreign owned. That which is not foreign owned (and also largely tax-exempt) is state owned. For proof of the statement I was told that if one misses 3 tax-payments his property is seized and sold.

Flags & Weddings

I saw a number of Confederate flags displayed in store windows. The signs at railroad crossings also looked like confederate flags at a distance. Same colors. Made me feel right at home.

Went to a wedding. Casual acquaintances seemed intensely interested about the War Between The States. I asked the reason for their interest in something so far away from them and was told that Australians were interested in anything having to do with their Saxon family. Interesting answer.

Accents

I was told that there are three identifiable accents - New Zealand, Australia, and Tasmania. The Australian accent with which we are all familiar is supposed to be English cockney of the 1850s - frozen in time.

How Aussies View The U.S.

Australians know everything that is worth knowing about the U.S. (except the geographic location of Virginia). Our group knew everyone in America connected with "reform Christianity". In my case they had recordings of talks I had made that I had forgotten I had made. They, along with everyone else in the world, are acutely aware that Clinton is a national disgrace. They seem to look on the U.S. as the center of the Saxon world. Yct, they have no illusions.

Murdoch has Chinese wife

Murdoch, an establishment Jewish media mogul, has a Chinese wife. This points to an all-out media push to open China to world economic-usury expansion. New borrowers are necessary if the West is to preserve the present "good-times".

Trip back

On the way back we drove through Cairns to reach the airport. At 5:00 AM in the morning I was surprised to see crowds of youngsters up so early. I was informed that they weren't "up early" - they just hadn't gone to bed.

On the plane I sat next to a Saxon impersonator. This was the 2nd one I had sat next to. They are so sure of themselves that they will say most anything. Some of them act the part quite well.

Coming to Australia it took two days. Leaving Australia I reached Los Angeles two hours before I left Australia. That's right. I left at 11:55 AM and got to Los Angeles the same day at 10:00 AM. That's what I call moving right along! I suppose that if I just kept on going round and round the earth in the same direction I could take ten years off my age. Just a thought. Maybe not.

Anyway, it took 41 hours to reach home even when it was all downhill. I had a wonderful time, but I was sure glad to be greeted by my wife and my daughter at Dulles.

Outside Lynchburg I stopped and got three hamburgers. One each for Joshua, Sarah and little Kate - my two Rottweilers and my little Cairn Terrier. Dogs are practical beasts. So am I. They went wild when they saw me, then they discovered I had food and so they sat relatively quietly to be fed. Then, with the "excitement edge" removed by the hamburger, they again proceeded to jump all over me since "daddy" had arrived home. But, it wasn't half as wild as it would have been. It's a trick I learned from the way our enemies handle us.

What I Learned From The Trip

Australia feels itself to be a Saxon nation - at one with the other Saxon nations of the world and especially the United States.

Australia appears to have the same problems America does. The most visible and immediate is the flood of immigration. Aliens are everywhere. There is the problem of foreign ownership of almost everything in Australia - much of it tax-exempt. Compounding these problems are unresponsive politicians selected for election by the media-owner. They don't appear to care in the least what the people think about anything.

Taxes are outrageous and all levels of government are control-freaks. There are irritating laws about everything.

The Australian government treats the Abos the same way the U.S. government treats blacks and Indians, and the Abos' criminal conduct and resulting large prison population is building resentment.

Australia has one problem much greater than our Mexican problem. She has a large hostile neighbor to the north, Indonesia. This, combined with a government policy that has disarmed its own military and shipped the remainder overseas, confiscated the weapons of its citizen militia, and helped build up the armed forces of this potential enemy, may point to an ITC plan to turn Australia into the next South Africa.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: It is the world's Good Friday, but rather a sad day for us. We feel the need for prayers more than usual.

It is going very badly in Zimbabwe (formerly Rhodesia). Anarchy is prevalent and not one white is safe. I asked the HNP editor if the whites will take up arms. He said that he does not think so. They have not got the fighting spirit. They preferred to stay when Mugabe took over and they thought that they were on good terms with the Mugabe government - so they thought. One of them was Martin Olds, a rancher who was a personal friend of Mugabe. But, this did not save his life. This black dictator along with the rest of the blacks is absolutely fickle and untrustworthy.

Most Zimbabwe farmers were tobacco, corn and cattle farmers. Some were rich. Now they see their farmsteads go up in flames and their crops wither, rot, or burn on their land. I don't know if these farmers are still fully armed as not one tried to shoot their attackers. If the blacks succeed in Zimbabwe, we can expect worse here. And just think, the whites had won the war against Mugabe and his terrorists before they were betrayed by their own white leader, Ian Smith, who turned the country over to the blacks.

The fact is, many more whites have died here in South Africa and still die daily. May our God forgive us for our slackness in serving Him alone. Many follow the lottery and gambling gods. As for sport, they gave their souls to it only to find that the sports god has forsaken them. Their cricket hero took betting money in India and is out of the game, and rugby is not doing any better. The national pride of old no longer exists and the huge South African stadiums are no longer filled.

To humble the white population's spirit, the fact that the white militia leader, Eugene Terre'Blanche, has had to go to prison for a year for assaulting a black has been given huge coverage. Especially by English newspapers. How they enjoy to vilify the Afrikaner in any way possible.

We are fighting to get our Afrikaans language reinstated. A recent success was with Transet and now Denel the arms manufacturer. They are now having to use the Afrikaans language officially.

The German navy paid us a visit recently, but without fanfare, as not to arouse resentment. They also visit other countries on the west coast.

The fact that David Irving lost his civil case against Deborah Lipstadt gave the Jews immense satisfaction and joy, plus the fact that they ruined Irving financially. It still amazes me how little they care for the truth. But then I remind myself that they don't have the Law. The same with blacks and other dark nations. Exceptions are rare.

Maria got her honors degree in psychology at Pretoria University. It was called a Boere University in earlier years. Now you see enough black faces to think you are in Soweto, and in your heart you know they are affirmative action students who are pushed in and do not even pay their fees.

Our telephone lines have been cut and some poles sawn off. I do not like cell phones, but it helps in such situations because it takes a long time to get the lines fixed at present.

We have never found out why the Americans returned to next door Mozambique. Is it to intervene in Zimbabwe in case the few whites left at last take up arms to defend themselves?

The HNP congress on March 24-25 was very well attended. Prof Pont, one of the speakers made the remark that when he attended the congress two years ago, he knew everybody. But this time he recognized only a third of the people. Others remarked about the many young people with babies in carry-cots, which is a very welcome sign.

Instead of giving up hope when their political parties come to the end of the road, they now join our party where they still find life and hope. All kinds of evenings are organized for those in towns. Especially Pretoria, which we have had to miss on account of our safety situation.

The Conservative Party is no more. The National Party is nearly gone and the Freedom Front never made much of an impact.

The civil case by Mr. Marais against Tienie Groenewald had been heard in court. The judge still has to give his verdict.

We hope you had a pleasant time in Australia. It would be wonderful to have you out here, but it would be most unsafe.

Well, the Good Friday meeting of black presidents at the Victoria Falls only brought support for Mugabe. Mbeki - president of S. Africa, Chissana - of Mozambique and Nujama - of Namibia attended and they only had praise for the way things are going in Zimbabwe. This confirms the feeling that the same black terror tactics will be tried here. Most of them robbed their countries and must continually look to the West for aid - with no plan to pay it back.

The question now will be, who is behind the anarchy and who will benefit. Any ideas?¹

New Zealand offered to take refugees for 6 months, but what will these people return to. Everything on their farms has been destroyed. Any aid the West sends will never reach them and the shortage of fuel and electricity will continue. Especially now that the mobs are burning crops all over.

With best wishes, K.J.

UNFILTERED NEWS

SODOMITES: Lynchburg's mayor recommended that the City of Lynchburg give special privileges to sodomites. Many spoke against his proposal. The News & Advance reported that certain of the witnesses "only quoted Scripture". It did not repeat the Scriptures quoted. Some hostile religions will not tolerate Christian Scripture to be quoted because to them to quote Christian Scripture is equivalent to calling on an alien God - alien to the newspaper.

Lynchburg's mayor attends the First Christian Church on Rivermont Avenue, the church that so royally entertained the sodomite delegation that visited Jerry Falwell's Thomas Road Baptist Church. The 1st Christian's pastor recently officiated at the wedding of his own daughter to a Jew, and enthusiastically approved the union.

KIDNAPED: An 18 year old black entered a Lynchburg home, kidnapped two 12 year old white girls at gunpoint and sodomized them. Lynchburg's News & Advance censored the race of the victims. I know the family.

False-witnesses must be remembered when we come into our kingdom.

Chapter 310

MILITIA & Pelham's Horse Artillery

"A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Pelham's Horse Artillery

The legendary Major John Pelham of Stuart's Horse Artillery was dead. He died in the two story frame house on the corner right across the street from my grandfather's furniture store in Culpeper. Granddaddy pointed out the upstairs corner bedroom where he died. Everybody in town called it "the Pelham house".

He had been wounded at Kelly's Ford after asking if he could join a cavalry charge "just for the sport". A shell had exploded and a small piece shrapnel hit him in back of his head. He fell off his horse and his comrades thought he was dead. They threw him across his horse's saddle and carried him the 5 miles or so back to the railroad at Brandy Station. When they lifted him from his horse they discovered just a trace of blood in his hair from the small wound and also discovered that he was breathing. He was put on a train which took him 8 miles to Culpeper.

He lingered for a few days before dying. Everyone wondered why the ride from Kelly's Ford to Brandy Station on the back of a horse hadn't killed him itself - it would have killed most men.

The story was that when he died four girls put on mourning for him - but that was just gossip. There was never a hint of inpropriety about his relationship with the fairer sex. He was 26 when he died. An Alabama gentleman.

Pelham The Soldier

The difference between horse artillery and the regular artillery was that horse artillery had to keep up with the cavalry on the march. They used the same guns as the rest of the Confederate artillery, but keeping up with the cavalry required six horses per gun instead of the usual two - and spare teams galloping with them which were constantly being changed. The work hauling guns with the cavalry was grueling.

Confederate militia batteries were different from those in the union army. They followed the French system instituted by Napoleon using six guns per battery instead of the English system of four guns. Southern logic said that a six gun militia battery could hold its own against two Union 4-gun batteries and whip a single 4-gun battery. This is how it usually worked out in practice.

There was another difference - a major one. The Federal government provided guns, ammunition, caissons, horses and harness for its artillery. Members of the artillery militia furnished all this at their own expense - quite a considerable expense.¹ Not everyone could afford to serve in a militia artillery battery.

Pelham The Hero

"I ask you sir, what is the militia? It is the whole people, except for a few public officials."

George Mason

Two hundred guns of the federal artillery lined up on the heights on the north side of the Rappahannock River overlooking Fredericksburg. Their massed fire protected the Union army's pontoon bridges as the federal army fought its way across the river. Fredericksburg's defenders didn't have a chance. One by one each pocket of Southern resistance was obliterated by the concentrated overwhelming cannon fire.

When across the river, the union army passed through town and formed up on the plains beyond. Something less than a mile ahead rose Maryc's Heights occupied by Lee's Army. At the foot of the heights was a stone wall behind which waited Stonewall's veterans. The Union army made a proud picture lined up in its tens of thousands in their fine new blue uniforms and their hundreds of flags and drummers.

¹ As the war went on new artillery units were organized using captured horses and ordanance.

The artillery that had obliterated the Southern resistance to the union army's crossing now turned its attention to the Confederate positions. Hundreds of shells shrieked overhead to explode in the Confederate lines. It was part of the softening up process before the massive Federal juggernaut moved forward.

Into this maelstrom of noise, the shrieks of shells and thunder of explosions, John Pelham suddenly appeared, riding out of the Confederate lines into the no-man's-land between the two armies with two of his guns and their cannoneers. In full view of both Union and Confederate armies the little cavalcade of horses and riders then turned to the Union left and galloped all the way across their front to its left flank. Soldiers of both armies watched in amazement.

Reaching their chosen destination, Pelham gunners quickly unlimbered, brought their guns to bear, and fired two or three shells with fuses cut long, and then quickly hitched up and moved their guns to another location a quarter mile away and repeated the drill.

The Union artillery on the heights across the river quickly swiveled their guns around and open fire on this pesky little hornet. Half a minute after Pelham left his position, the area where he had been was pulverized by hundreds of shells smashing the surrounding trees and plowing up the ground. By then, Pelham was firing from still another location. Again Union guns devastated the area, but Pelham was somewhere else firing his shells into the massed union army.

Pelham's Shells

The sparkling fuses of Pelham's shells could be seen far off by Union soldiers waiting in battle lines for the command to attack Marye's Heights. They soared and then bounced along the federal lines from left to right threatening to explode any second. Anxious Union soldiers frantically dodged out of the path of the menacing projectiles not wanting to be one of their victims when they exploded.

The magnificent Union army dissolved into a confused mob with men dodging Pelham's sparkling shells. Regiment mixed with regiment; the Union generals were furious.

John Pelham and his men were undeniably brave and daring, but it was also obvious that it was just a question of time before they were killed. General Stuart laughed and sent orders recalling Pelham and his guns.

John Pelham and his men galloped back across the front of the Union army the same way they had come - but this time to thunderous cheers of both Confederate and Union armies. Uncommon valor is universally appreciated by brave men. It took two hours for the Union generals to sort out the mess and reorganize for the attack.

Brave, handsome, Major John Pelham was 26 when he gave his life for his country. He was mortally wounded a year later in my great-grandfather's back yard at Kelly's Ford.

The Militia

"The militia is a voluntary force not associated or under the control of the state except when called out; a permanent or long-standing force would be entirely different in make-up and call."

- Alexander Hamilton

Major John Pelham was a product of the militia system of the Self Sufficient Farm System (SSFS). The militia of the 13 Colonies made it possible to win an earlier war against Great Britain's king. The militia of the Southern Confederate States almost won their independence from the king & standing army system of the United States. It is something the International Trade Cartel (ITC) has not forgotten, and would rather not deal with if at all possible.

War is expensive. A militia is expensive. The militia expense was not unbearable when the land was divided and people were well off. But, after the Southern Farm System was conquered and the wealth of its owners transferred to the feudal system's corporations, it became unbearably hard to equip a militia with the heavy ordnance it needs to fight modern war. People just didn't have the money. A cannon, caisson, shells, powder and horses were expensive enough earlier, but when cannon are mounted on tanks and the means to pay for it had gone - it was impossible. The militia was figuratively in danger of having to fight an atomic age war with bows and arrows.

Arming The Militia

"The strongest reason for the people to retain the right to keep and bear arms is, as a last resort, to protect themselves against tyranny in government."

- Thomas Jefferson

The ensconced feudal system had won their war and now controlled the country and its wealth. A militia was traditional. It had been part of the country from its earliest days. But, WWI showed that as the wealth of the people declined, they could not afford the heavy weapons needed to fight modern wars. The militia was not properly armed. It was a question of battlefield survival for militiamen. The people demanded proper weapons for their men.

Weapons Solution

The solution offered by the country's ruling feudal-system to the problem of supplying militias with heavy weapons was to "lend" them the needed weaponry on condition that the command of the militia would no longer be local - it was to be shared jointly by the governor of the individual state and the president of the country. In all matters pertaining to the state the governor was to act as supreme commander and in all things pertaining to the defense of the country - the president would be the supreme commander.

It seemed to be a workable solution. In matters like race riots and labor troubles, the governor commanded. In matters pertaining to outside enemies of the country - the president.

National Guard - A Federal Asset

The National Guard proved itself. It provided a large part of the muscle of America's armed forces during WWII. But then, Little Rock! Gov. Orval Faubus called up the guard to prevent the integration of the schools (or so the tale is told - see HR #289), and then stood down when President Eisenhower took over control of the national guard from him, ordered it away from the school, and sent in the 81st Airborne of the regular army to force the integration of Saxon children with those of strangers.

The president of the United States had no intention of sharing power over what had formerly been the independent militia with governors of states. The National Guard was now an enforcement arm of the federal government masquerading as a people's defense force - or militia. Its new mission was to defend the feudal system of Babylon - not the people the system persecuted.

Confirmation

This new state of affairs was confirmed when the central government's FBI invaded the state of Idaho. The governor of Idaho stood by, let the FBI kill Idaho citizens on Ruby Ridge and did nothing. There was nothing he could have done. There was no militia to call upon and all that was left was the National Guard and that was under federal control. Idaho was face to face with the fact that it was defenseless against invasion and murder.

This was again confirmed at Waco when invading federal forces of the FBI massacred members of the Davidian Church. In neither the case of Idaho nor Texas did their respective governors believe that they had the power to interpose the state's National Guard between the victims and the US government agency that was tormenting their citizens - not even to save their lives.

The Davidian Defense

The thing the ITC's media never ceases to ignore is the Waco defense.

When the ATF, in an unprovoked attack, stormed the Davidian Church complex, the Davidians grabbed their shotguns and attempted to defend themselves, their wives and their children - and they did a good job of it. This is why, when the subject comes up, the government always talks about the 4 government agents who were killed vs. the "SIX" Davidians who were killed "See! Two more Davidians were killed than those lost by the government!!"

The thing that they never mention is that the shotgun defense by this religious group shot the government's ATF all to pieces.² After 45 minutes the ATF raised the white flag. The Davidians magnanimously accepted their surrender and allowed them to collect and carry their wounded (most of them were wounded) and limp away from the church with their tails between their legs. The ATF had lost 4 killed, but the rest of the ATF storming party had ceased to exist as a viable military force.

If the Davidians had known that their gallant armed defense had condemned them all to be burned to death as punishment for the FBI humiliation - men, women and children - it is doubtful if any of the ATF would have been set free. They would have been held as hostages.

The lesson learned again is even free people with shotguns can present an obstacle to out-of-control government.

Rebirth And Arming The Militias

"Firearms stand next in importance to the Constitution itself. They are the American People's liberty teeth and keystone under independence... The rifle and pistol are equally indispensable... The very atmosphere of firearms anywhere and everywhere restrains evil interference - they deserve a place of honor with all that is good."

- George Washington

The Ruby Ridge and Waco example of what an all powerful immoral central government can do to its own people triggered the rapid rebirth of citizen's militias. There has been no real problem of getting volunteers. The problem has been that of weaponry. How does one have a real effective defense force with inferior weaponry? The answer is - it can't. Not really.

The U.S. feudal government, using the excuse that a few outlaws during the 1930s used tommy guns while committing crimes, passed laws virtually outlawing ownership of automatic weapons and made the ownership of other sophisticated weapons so difficult as to be almost impossible. This has resulted in a populace in which most families are armed, but are armed with weapons which could only with difficulty cope with the weaponry of a modern day army.

The matter of having inferior weapons is compounded by the system's worldwide campaign to confiscate the weapons in the hands of private individuals - except for establishment people who are almost all armed.

The confiscation effort is of course to keep the workers in the condition of serfdom.

One State's Response

"Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect everyone who approaches that jewel. Unfortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright force. Whenever you give up that force, you are ruined... The great object is that every man be armed... Everyone who is able may have a gun."

- Patrick Henry

Not all state governments have gone along with this campaign to disarm the public. In 1997, the state of New Hampshire authorized its attorney general to bring suit against the United States. The following is taken from a shooting magazine printed in Virginia.

"1997 Session House Joint Resolution 3 requiring the attorney general to bring suit against the U.S. Govt. for violating the U.S. Constitution and the New Hampshire constitution by enacting a military firearms ban.

RESOLUTIONS: ... (1) The assault weapons ban is unconstitutional because it deprives the people of their right of self-defense under the 9th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. It does so by limiting the tools which the people may use to protect themselves, their families, and their communities from an assault. The assault weapons ban prevents the people from responding to the threat of force in kind, relegating the people's use of defensive weapons to weapons of lesser force than those which might be used against them. The state cannot limit the means for self-defense without abrogating the right of self-defense.

(2) ... The assault weapons ban nullifies the 2nd Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The assault weapons ban prevents the people from acquiring and owning the military firearms necessary for the fielding of effective militias. The militia, as provided for in the Constitution, is the people's army and exists for the purpose of defending the Constitution ...

(3) By nullifying the utility of militias, the assault weapons ban renders null and void those provisions under Article 1, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution which provide for the organizing, arming, and fielding of militias and makes moot the state's authority to appoint officers and to train and discipline militias.³

(4) The assault weapons ban is unconstitutional under the 10th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution because the power to regulate firearms to the limited extent to which such powers may be available under the U.S.

Constitution lies with the states, not with the federal government ...

Whereas, the assault weapons ban qualifies each individual absolute right of self-defense, guaranteed by the 9th Amendment, by limiting the rights of the people to defend themselves with tools appropriate to the task. The "right of self-defense ceases to exist if the state is able to assert the power to limit the nature of the response which an individual may make to a particular threat of force. Individuals have the absolute right to respond to force in kind. ...

Resolved ... That the attorney general be required to bring suit against the U.S. Government for violations of the U.S. Constitution and the N. Hampshire constitution in enacting the assault weapons ban, which prevents U.S. citizens from owning military firearms.⁴

The above sets forth the legal objections to de-facto outlawing of militias and the confiscation of their weapons. It is the editor's belief that when a push comes to a shove, the king's law comes from the barrel of a rifle and it makes no difference what sort of legal arguments are made. The cartel that rules the West will do whatever it chooses to do if they feel that they have the force to do it, and it appears at this time that they feel that they have the force to do whatever they want to do, and they really don't want a well-armed militia in the land.

Conclusion

"The highest number to which ... a standing army can be carried in any country does not exceed ... one twenty-fifth part of the number able to bear arms ... To these would be opposed a militia amounting to near half a million citizens (When this was written the total population was only 3.5 million) with arms in their hands, officered by men chosen from among themselves, fighting for their common liberties... It may well be doubted whether a militia thus circumstanced could ever be conquered by such a proportion of regular troops."

- James Madison

George Mason said that there were 500,000 militiamen in a population of 3.5 million. Today he would count a potential of 40,000,000 militiamen. This is the sword that could snuff out Babylon's lights in a minute. But, this could only happen if the militias were of one mind and pointed in the right direction.

Facts The King Must Deal With

The best of all scenarios for a tyrannical king is not to have to deal with a John Pelham and his guns, or a Robert E. Lee's militia army. Without a militia, a king would have no revolt to suppress!

The basic fact is that there is a militia and the king must deal with that fact. The second fact is that a very large part of the militia take their orders from the King of kings - not him.

Orders

The fact that the large part of the militia is loyal to the King of kings and take their orders from him is something that "Little Willie" and his ilk consider treasonous. For instance, consider the following order:

*"He that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one."
Luke 22:36-38.*

The KING of kings instructed his followers to arm themselves. How can the anti-Christ feel comfortable on his throne when Isaacs-sons, supporters of the KING of kings have armed themselves?

The KING of kings also told his followers:

"The land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it." Num 35:33

The followers of the "KING of kings" see that there is much innocent blood shed in this land and the guilty are not punished as ordered, but are "restrained" in prisons and then released to do the same again and again.

The KING of kings instructed that someone must be punished for this evil. He said:

"Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people." I Ki 21:42

Can the WORD be more clear? The WORD that is God never lies. It always means what it says. The life of the one worthy of death must be forfeit, or the lives of the followers of the King of kings will be taken in their place. It's that simple. That is a sentence from which, once executed, there is no appeal.

Yet, the Scriptures say:

"When thou art in tribulation... even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God (the WORD), and shall be obedient to his voice (the WORD), ... he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them." Deut 4:30-31

The Story Of David

Once before, the Philistines ruled the land. They used extorted tribute from every Son-of-Isaac. They also used iron weapons to back their tyranny but forbade the children of Israel from even having blacksmiths because they could also make swords.

We have read the story and we know that things got so bad under the heel of the Philistines that the ill-armed militia was called up anyway. David joined his brothers at the front. He volunteered to fight the giant when no one else would. He went forward and stood before the Philistine giant and reached down and selected a stone and placed it in his sling.

The giant taunted David, then drew his great sword and advanced on him. David slung his stone at the giant and it hit him in the forehead where it sank into his head. The giant fell to the ground. David then used the giant's own sword to sever his head from his body.

The Story Known By The Faithful

Scripture explains Scripture.⁵ The giant is obviously the powerful one. David the weaker. David picked up a stone, a rock. We know what a rock is:

*"Who is a rock save our God." Ps 18:31.*⁶

OK. Let's start again. David appeared defenseless and the giant powerful. David held in his hand a rock. He placed it in his sling and slung it and the rock hit the giant in the head causing him to fall. With his fall the Philistines fled.

⁵ Whenever someone quotes Scripture that conflicts with other Scripture - someone is mis-interpreting Scripture.

Why the head? The giant is the messenger of the Serpent.⁷ The curse God placed on the serpent was that the seed of man "Shall bruise thy head." Gen 3:15.

The serpent always organizes his children in an episcopal manner - from the top down - to ensure that they all understand, say, and do the same thing.⁸ Sever the head and the serpent dies.

The Scriptures say:

"David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him, but there was no sword in the hand of David." 1 Sa 17:50

There was no sword in David's hand, only a stone. With that stone he slew the giant. It was only then that David picked up the giant's sword and severed his head and the rest of the army pursued the Philistines and then used their swords.

Conclusion

Our militia consists of every ablebodied man in the whole Saxon nation. Most Saxons don't know that! Our people don't know that the answer to their every problem lies in the WORD. Why? Because - the "rock" of the king's state priests is not as our "Rock".

Why is this? It is because the false priests hired by the king with tax-exemption and riches from the use of the serpent's media have withheld God's WORD from the people.

⁷ Read about "giants" in HR #286.

⁸ God organized his people in the presbyterian manner in 10s and 100s from the bottom up. Beware episcopal organizations. They serve a single master.

These priests of the serpent priests haven't told God's Saxon people that they are under sentence of death - a sentence passed on them by their own God because unavenged innocent blood has been shed.

When the rock of truth at last forces its way past the king's hired state priests and scribes, and reaches those for whom it is intended, and the truth is understood that our people have everything to gain by obeying God and everything to lose by not doing so - truth will no longer be seen to be just a stone lying in a creek- bed. It will be an irresistible weapon. With the WORD - our militias will have both incentive and direction that will allow them to serve their nation, their God, and to save their lives which at this moment are forfeit because of our nation's disobedience. The giant will fall.⁹

Then we can use the giant's own sword to finish the task, and the sword will be of the latest manufacture.

Chapter 311

FIJI Revolt Against Indians

Why should some of the most powerful countries of the world unite ranks instantly to quash a revolt led by an insurance salesman on a tiny insignificant island?

Coup

On May 29, 2000, the son of an opposition member of the Fijian Parliament staged the third coup attempt in 13 years. He and his supporters stormed parliament as it was sitting and took the prime minister and seven cabinet ministers hostage.

NOTE: Serpents are fought by crushing their heads:
Gen 3:15

The website (Fijilive.com) of the rebel leader, George Speight, a high profile local businessman, said that he was reclaiming the land for his own people.

The coup took place on the first anniversary of the appointment of Mahendra Chaudhry, an ethnic Indian, as prime minister. Ever since then relations between ethnic Indians and ethnic Fijians have deteriorated.

President Ratu Sir Kamisese Mara, who was not a hostage,¹ declared a national state of emergency and stated in a radio address, "I would like to assure you all that the rule of law and good government will be maintained. There are lawful democratically recognized avenues for airing grievances. I urge this group to follow lawful means in raising their dissent."

NOTE: HR readers instantly recognize this ploy. All feudal systems are establishment creations. The leader and the legislators are democratically elected from a pool of PC candidates selected by the media owner. In office, these agents of the media-owner appoint judges and army officers. These judges rule that the king is right and the army officers squelch dissent. The taxes of the great merchant supports the king and his army and the banker chooses which PC merchants will manage bank assets. Nationalist rebels are their eternal enemy. It's how the system works the world over.

The army and police backed the 1987 coup, but did not appear to be siding with the rebels. The former prime minister, Sitiveni Rabuka, who led the 1987 coup tried to mediate between the rebels and the government.

NOTE: The 1987 coup was an establishment coup. That's why the army is not supporting the present "national" coup.

The Mystery Of Fiji

Fiji is the small island on the upper right edge of the map that includes Australia. It is interesting that the world's powers have united almost overnight against this small and insignificant little island.

Indians

Ethnic Indians account for some 45% of Fiji's population of 800,000. But, they control most of Fiji's economy. The Indians were initially brought to Fiji by the British in the late 19th century to work sugar cane fields. Since then they have virtually monopolized the island's economy and last year took over its government. Ethnic Fijians, who represent 51% of the population, are demanding that the country's Indian population be stripped of political rights.

NOTE: Indians are the world's preferred feudal system operators. Their mixed racial background gives them tolerance for many gods. Their caste system tends to confine their ability to cause mischief to one specific area. Their lack of any code of morals allows them to do almost anything.

International Condemnation

The U.S. State Department warned, "The consequences of any unconstitutional seizure of power would be very substantial." The U.S. ambassador to Fiji labeled the coup leader a "common criminal", and Australia's prime minister, John Howard, said that he was horrified. George Speight met with Fijian chiefs while Fiji's military leaders declared martial law and have refused to negotiate with Speight.

NOTE: This is an astute move on Speight's part. The existence of a "Fijian chiefs council" indicates a system of rule or custom equivalent to our "WORD" which is God. It lends legitimacy to Speight's claims.

Imposes Indigenous Fijian Government

On July 3, Fiji's military named an all-Fijian government to replace the mixed-race coalition of the Indian Prime Minister. The Army's chief named Fijian banker Laisenia Qarase as prime minister to rule Fiji for two years. The military stressed that it will retain executive power until all 27 hostages are released. The military excluded the native Fijian rebels from the government officials they selected.

NOTE: All the above should be expected. A feudal system's military is selected first because of loyalty to the system that selected them. It is expected that they would select one of their own as prime minister. It is obvious that a usury-banker is a feudal-system asset regardless of race. It is also obvious that the military are reluctant to act as long as the nationalist rebels continue to hold establishment hostages.

Australia Threatens Fiji

On July 18, Australia announced a range of sanctions against Fiji including a 30% cut in aid in an attempt to force the restoration of the former government.²

Ratu Josefa Iloilo, chosen by the Fijian banker Laisenia Qarase to be president, angered the coup leader by nominating a government that excluded Fijian nationalists from all key offices. The Fijian nationalists complained that Laisenia Qarase was too accommodating towards Indians.

NOTE: For representatives of the Fijian feudal system to select rebel nationalists to govern would be to shoot themselves in the foot.

Australia's foreign minister ratcheted up the international threats by stating that Australia was stopping joint defense programs and trade agreement co-operation. Also, Fiji's rugby team would not be granted visas for a match against the Barbarians team that had been planned and other Fijian teams would be banned until the Indian government had been restored.

The threat was broadened by the foreign minister when he stated that the U.S., the European Union and Japan might follow Australia's in this move. He ruled out using tougher sanctions as advocated by Australia's trade union movement. However, New Zealand, the U.S. and Britain joined Australia in announcing sanctions against Fiji.

NOTE: This propaganda announcement was made to give ammunition to the media to use to beat the native

² Each situation is a bit different. In Fiji, corporations own the sugar cane plantations. The last thing they need are Fijian nationalists taking back these lands. That's the reason that they put Indians in to rule. Indians are nationalists only in India.

Fijians into a pro-feudal PC state of mind - thereby isolating the nationalists.

Hostage Crisis Ends

July 13, the hostage crisis ended. After the last of dozens of hostages were released, the Fijian Great Council Of Chiefs confirmed the ethnic Fijian banker Ratu Iloilo as the country's new president. Iloilo had been Specht's, the nationalist's rebel leader's choice.

As the crisis ended, the hostage takers held a traditional ceremony seeking forgiveness by offering a drink of kava, a narcotic drink, to the last captives freed. Chaundhry, the ousted former Indian prime minister shook hands with Speight and the two hugged.

NOTE: In giving up their hostages before anything concrete was made doomed the rebels. The establishment thus far tolerates "talkers" to show how much "freedom" there is in the system. They are much less tolerant of actual attempts to overthrow ITC rule.

World-Wide Nationalist Support

The Fijian rebel leader received support from nationalist movements from all over the world. The editorial of the National Action News is representative:

"Australian Nationalists sympathize with the revolutionary national uprising in Fiji...

"Australian Nationalists condemn any Australian government action designed to impose 'sanctions' on Fiji. The behind-the-back trade unions ban on Fiji travel and commerce are really State devices ... Australians should demand these bans be lifted. .

"Australian Nationalists believe that the Fijian national uprising is directed at the politics of nationless, cultureless, raceless, free-trade globalisation, and whatever actions occur as might be construed as 'targeting' the Indian minority in Fiji, should be dismissed as necessary tools which preserve Fijian identity and independence.

"... We are not surprised to learn that the Australian Labor Party gave 'advice' to the Indian Fijian Labour Party on ways to consolidate the Indian bloc-vote and about methods to buy-off some native groups so that a 'coalition' and supposedly 'democratic' government could be formed. Bluntly, the former government was a front for the globalisers who were relying upon the Indians to 'modernize' Fiji. This interference in Fiji's politics must end!

"Australian Nationalists reject any propaganda from internationalist lobbyists that the crisis in Fiji obligates Australia to accept so-called 'refugees'. No Indian refugees must be accepted!

"Australian Nationalists rejoice in the inspiration which the Fijian national uprising has given to small Melanesian peoples in the Solomon Islands and in West New Guinea "Across the Pacific there are peoples who are rejecting the globalisation process. ... When the Indonesian army moves against the freedom fighters of West New Guinea, Australians will see the move as a move against local nationalism. The same forces agitating against the Fijian national uprising will call for the suppression of all Melanesian revolutions.

"Australian Nationalists call for a new Pacific freedom bloc. The future 'White Australia' will certainly support for others what it demands for itself."³

Coup Leader Arrested

July 27, 2000. George Speight, Fiji's nationalist leader who toppled Fiji's Indian government, was arrested by Fiji's military who withdrew their promise of amnesty for those taking part in the coup.

After arresting the leader, the army then assaulted a school in Suva, Fiji's capital where 300 of Speight's armed followers had been camped for the past week. The army's Maj. Politini said about 30 nationalists and one soldier were injured in the firefight that followed and dozens were arrested.⁴

Speight, champion of the native Fijians, was charged with illegally possessing weapons and threatening Fiji's new president. He was seized at a checkpoint along with his advisor, Tevita Bukarau, spokesman Jo Nata, and a bodyguard.

First housed in army barracks, he and six of his key advisors have been taken to an islet within view of the capital, Suva. The army is considering bringing the charge of treason against him and his followers, a charge carrying a maximum sentence of death.

July 28, 2000. The Fijian military extended its crackdown and has arrested hundreds. There are warnings of civil war and reports of reprisal attacks against Indians on the island of Vanua Levu where two New Zealanders were taken as hostages. Alexander Downer, Australia's foreign minister announced that he is "delighted" over the actions of Fiji's military. The military now claims it is acting on behalf of indigenous Fijians.

The worry is that Mr Speight has caused a big shift in Fijian politics and that Fijian nationalism has been reawakened.

Lessons

The leader of the Peasants Revolt in England met with the king under a flag of truce and guarantee of safety and amnesty. Trusting in the word of the feudal system he went and was murdered. His followers were hounded to death and hanged by the hundreds. This has been the history of meetings between the system and those who want independence.

NOTE: Note that the feudal countries of the world - Australia, New Zealand, Britain and the U.S., instantly presented a solid front opposed to the nationalism of one small island group.

Napoleon took the crown from the Pope and placed it on his own head and had to fight the united nations of the world who were instantly allied against him. Nationalist Germany withdrew from the international banking system and almost the entire world came against her.

NOTE: Trust in a banker, even though he was a native, proved disastrous.

NOTE: Trust in amnesty granted by the Fijian army was disastrous even though the army is native Fijian.

Kings are kept on thrones by armies. Kings and standing armies are inseparable. The ITC carefully selects the leaders of its armies all over the world and pays them to keep their king on the throne. It has always been so. If the king goes, their pay stops and militias fill the void they leave.

Today, there are more wars in progress struggling for separation from the world's feudal system than ever before. The great fear of the feudal system is that different nations will learn to work together to be different in spite of their natural antipathy toward each other.

Conclusion

The fact that some of the most powerful countries of the world instantly united their ranks to quash a revolt on a tiny insignificant Pacific Island is proof that the International Trade Cartel recognizes that nationalist revolts of whatever size are contagious. Unless instantly suppressed, any one of them has the potential to light the fire that will one day destroy Babylon.

Letter From S. Africa

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: Most Rhodesians seem to have made arrangements to be out of the country during the elections as it is their school holidays. They booked at holiday resorts out of the country.

Heaven knows what will happen if Mugabe comes in again, for he is claiming all the farms. He tried to take over the gold mines, but I think he stepped on Oppenheimer's toes, because he had another story the next day.

Many farmers left some staff to look after the property and animals when they left, but these workers had no chance when Mugabe's thugs turned up, so they also fled. I am not sure if all the Rhodesians sent their dogs to safety. Look at the enclosed picture of how Blacks treat dogs and that is the reason why it worries me.

The HNP father of a Rhodesian cattle farmer said his son's farm was on the confiscation list, so he removed every single animal. When the squatters came they could not stay longer than the money they got from Mugabe lasted.

Mugabe is encouraging Namibia's Sam Nujoma to do the same to whites in his country and old Sam is so stupid that he will chase away a substantial number of German investors who use modern techniques in desert conditions. Blacks flee from Zimbabwe in large numbers to get away from the violence.

Here in the area next to Swaziland in the Piet Retief district, farmers and former soldiers keep a tight rein on criminals. It used to be easy to commit a crime and flee over the border, but no more.

Most of Africa is in turmoil. I wonder if the Blacks always know on what side they are fighting. In the Congo, two forces that are supposed to keep the peace, Uganda and Rwanda, are fighting each other. Nothing ever changes in Africa since the inhabitants do not. AIDS is starting to take its toll among the more educated Blacks. One went three years ago for tests and found he had AIDS, but he still infected many black women.

We are looking into the postal situation. We cannot use Postnet, a private company, as they can only pick up the mail. The Postal Service has the monopoly. To cut local problems, we are considering a small post office with one white woman. At least she sorts the letters. We missed so much mail from America and even local letters and newspapers are lost.

It seems as if all parties in opposition to the ANC party will take part in the local elections under the Democratic Party (DP) banner. The smooth talking Tony Leon, a Jew, must have convinced many to join so that they can oppose the ANC, as if that is a possibility. So we have a DP Jewish Party, and a ANC Jewish/Black Party. As usual the HNP Party is not in the least interested.

It seems certain that Prince Charles and Camilla will marry in Scotland like Ann did. All I can say is that Camilla, whose grandmother was Alice Keppel, a Jewess, is no beauty in any sense. A friend reminded me that Camilla's great grandmother was Alice Keppel. She married an Emset and was Edward VII's mistress. Anyway, unlike Diana, Camilla will not mind whatever secret organizations Charles belongs to. The British public said that they do not want her as Queen, but how much say have they in any case? The bishops have been busy for some time with the coronation ceremony, which will no longer be based on the Bible, but will include all religions.

Ruffy, our adopted Alsatian, is starting to take the work of a watchdog seriously and now barks at blacks. It is something to see a proud dog instead of the dejected animal that came here.

We made a firebreak on the 16th because the grass grew high with all the rain. The winter is now much colder than it has been during the last few years.

Last night, the 6 o'clock news reported that the regime intends taking 30% of all white agricultural land. That is not the homelands with their good soil and rainfall that has been lying fallow for years, or ruined by keeping too many animals on the grazing parts. One can actually see the Transkei border because nothing grew on their side. The trees were chopped down and scarcely any grass is to be seen. In the squatter camp opposite us, they immediately remove all grass so that only the bare ground remains. But when they look for thatching grass to cut and sell, they are quick enough to ask the white farm owner to cut his grass. For safety we do not allow any strangers to come onto the property. They always come with a story to buy something. Those who trust them end up as statistics.

Impact mentions that thousands of white Rhodesians have come over the border. Some were taken in by people in Messina, the first town after the customs. Many live in tents. Will try and find out more about the situation. There are many game and vegetable farms along the Limpopo River which forms the border." With best wishes, K.J.

RKH: White Zimbabwe farmers are in debt to banks. Black occupied farms will not be able to produce mortgage payments. The farms will then be foreclosed and owned by the banks. It is interesting that the diamond and gold mines have neither been nationalized nor occupied by blacks.

REDUCING THE NATIONAL DEBT

"A house committee, approved legislation Thursday that would set aside extra surplus dollars to pay down public debt and lower the government's debt limit." News & Advance.

RKH: It sounds so good, but those who have read War Cycles/Peace Cycles know that most money is borrowed into existence with pledged property being the collateral. At any one time there is only a thin floating supply of money in existence. In the past, when this floating supply has been used to pay off the national debt, there has been nothing left to pay interest and principal on the remaining outstanding debt, and the result has been a Jubilee crash every 50 years or so. This is the period where money disappears from circulation. It has happened every cycle since the country was founded. It is part of Babylon's usury system. The only way a country's debt can be paid down is to eliminate it outright and repeat the process every 7 years. Someone is going to be hurt by keeping the debt or doing away with it, either way someone is going to be hurt, today or tomorrow. The WORD warned us not to go into usury and debt.

LIBERALS RESPONSIBLE: Tanzania, in East Africa, is a country desperate to enter the modern world. Ancient traditional witchcraft stands firmly in the way. Human skin is used in occult ceremonies. Victims are hunted down, clubbed unconscious and skinned alive. The skin is quickly smuggled across the Zambian border where a middleman waits to buy it. Police say the trade in human skin is inspired by witch doctors who use it to prepare charms to ward off evil spirits or bring good luck. A skin can fetch up to £3,000. Senior police officers from Tanzania, Malawi and Zambia are trying to stifle the skin trade as colonial authorities tried to do before them. In Tanzania more than 5,000 people were executed for being witch doctors from 1994 to 1998 according to government figures. (Story in TKC, POB 1478 Ferndale, WA 98248

HATE SCAM: Laird Wilcox, Kansas author and editor who tracks groups on both the right and the left says, "There is an anti- racist industry entrenched in the United States that has attracted bullying, moralizing fanatics, whose identity and livelihood depend upon growth and expansion of their particular kind of victimization ... the anti-racist movement has become a massive extortion racket." AIDS IMPACTS GOLD MINING: More than 60% of all deaths among Anglo American employees are due to AIDS. In Zimbabwe the prevalence of HIV infection in Anglo's workforce is estimated at 24%. Up to 40% of lost time at the company's Zimbabwe operation is due to the epidemic. Company data indicates that over 60% of all deaths over the last 6 years is due to AIDS.

WACO JUDGE: The media says that U.S. District Judge Walter Smith is firm but fair. This is the same Smith who earlier sentenced eight Branch Davidians to maximum prison terms in a 1994 criminal trial that earned Smith the title "hanging judge". He is now hearing the "wrongful death" lawsuit against the federal government that resulted from "Waco". It would seem that if the trial is not supposed to be rigged then an unbiased judge would have been picked to hear the case. Since one wasn't - it is a safe bet how this trial will go.

HIGH PRIEST DEAD

: The Financial Times of June 24-25, 2000 carried a five column obituary along with a picture of the "man of mystery" - Enrico Cuccoia - who is said to have been one of the central figures in European finance.

Cuccoia was Italy's most powerful banker. He opened or closed the financial door to those whom he chose. As a young man he helped "re-organize" the financial system in Ethiopia (then an Italian colony). His wife's father was his superior at the IRI state holding company. In 1946, Cuccia 38, was picked to head a new institution, Mediobanka, set up to extend loans to Italy's war-torn industry. The bank became the focal point for almost every big business deal in Italy. IRI was Mediobanca's sole owner. The bank was privatised in 1988.

The closer one climbs the ladder of the world's feudal system's episcopacy, the more invisible become its rulers. Now, one question in the article was unasked and unanswered - Who "picked" Cuccia? That's the next rung on the ladder.

3rd World Feudal Systems

The three feudal castes rest on the labor of the 4th caste worker.

The penniless priestly 1st caste controls the banks. The 2nd caste king and army keep each other in power. The 3rd caste merchant is granted franchises and operating capital by the priest's banks and is protected by the king and his army.

3rd world feudal systems are often primitive. The King's taxation/tribute system produces insufficient income to pay the army. The army is forced to extort protection money from the highly visible merchant caste - it is an oriental mafia.

Mr. Juwono, Indonesia's defense minister admits that the military is prone to graft and says that in the next 18 months he intends to audit about 320 yayasan or "charity foundations" linked to military businesses. He says he expects only about a 60% enforcement rate. He says that lack of funding makes it impossible to stamp out all illegal army business but hopes that some will be restructured to become legal commercial entities.

Many within the military complain that "the spoils of businesses are unfairly divided between top brass and junior officers." A perennial complaint common to all feudal systems. The Chinese army supports itself almost entirely with commercial entities that it directly operates. (Story in Financial Times, June 19, 2000, p.5)

LASER: "Red China has at its disposal a laser weapon which was manufactured in the US and passed on to Israel a number of years ago under the strict obligation to keep this secret, and under no circumstances to sell it to a third party. Pentagon experts label the laser weapon as the most dangerous electronic weapons system in existence today. It has the ability to render large formations of soldiers harmless in a matter of seconds by blinding them with a short burst of a death ray. According to experts, the gruesome effect - the eyeball melts literally - would cause the entire opposing ground troops to become panic stricken. President Clinton had refused to place the weapon at the disposal of American army commanders and passed it on to Israel instead. In so doing the Israelis made a packet and one year later they sold it to the Communists in Beijing." (Insider May 15, 1999, Klaus Vaque, PO Box 17200, Groenkloof, Pretoria 0027, RSA, $75/yr.)

ATTILA THE HUN

Usury is the most insidious, destructive, evil system that this world has ever produced. It is the glue that holds Babylon together. It is the bond that enslaves every nation that borrows. Interest and taxes are its hallmark.

Debt free nations who refuse loans, and debt-slave nations so beaten down that they refuse to go further into debt must be made to borrow to feed Babylon. Babylon hired someone to wield the whip. His name - "Attila the Hun".

Attila

"He was short of stature, swarthy and broad-chested, with a large head and hair which early turned gray, snub nose and deep-set eyes. He walked with a proud step, darting a haughty glance this way and that as if he felt himself lord of all."¹

This is the visual impression that generations of Christians have gotten of Attila. After more than a thousand years the rest of the picture is still told by father to son; "Attila the Hun - The Scourge of Christendom;" "Nothing would grow where he walked." He was a demon incarnate.

This picture of Attila was mainly created and disseminated by no less than the Hun leader himself. It was the way he wished the world to view him. He wanted submission from those he negotiated with, and the best way to get submission was to make those with whom he negotiated believe that the alternative to negotiation and submission was unthinkable.² Attila was a very smart leader.

Early Life

Attila was born on the plains of the Danube around 395. He was the son of King Mundzuk and could trace his ancestry some 35 generations.³

Attila was well prepared to become king of the Huns. He grew up in the Hun camp and was trained in the rough and tumble life of a Hun warrior. He learned horsemanship, the bow, lariat, lance, and sword.

At 12 he was sent as child hostage to the Roman court of Honorius. Hun king Rugila in return received the Roman youth Aëtius as hostage. The future leaders of the Romans and the Huns crossed paths and studied each other's peoples to discover weak points, both at the same time.

While in the Roman court Attila formed strong prejudices against Roman opulence, show, and lifestyle. It was his opinion that such displays alienated the common people from their rulers. It was his later policy that both he and his chiefs would dress as the rest of the Huns. Perhaps finer quality, but the same, with virtually NO display of gold and silver ornaments.⁴

The Roman court was marble, silks, gold and silver. The court that Attila later established was made of wood with fine wood paneling. He ate plain food from wooden dishes.

Attila and his brother Bleda conquered neighboring Hun tribes.⁵ To secure sole power Attila murdered his brother.⁶ Within eight years he made himself virtually supreme in Central Europe.⁷ His own special kingdom comprised what is now Hungary and Transylvania. He ruled almost without 4 Note that, with rare exception, "important" rulers among strangers lead ordinary lifestyles. Those who don't are mostly renegade hired help. In the "Hun World" the king owns everything. He parcels his holdings out to his nobles to rule. They in turn parcel it out to managers. The Hun is the "communist" to Rome's "capitalist". Two sides of the same coin. The usurer owns everything in the "capitalist" world. Those paying tribute (taxes, interest, rent, etc) are his servants. He parcels his large holdings (corporations) out to his nobles (corporate managers) to manage. One is a "dictatorship", the other a "democracy" - two sides of the same coin. Both are eternal enemies of nationalism and the "Self Sufficient Farm System".

5 The union of all Turkic tribes has always been the paramount dream of the leaders of the children of Esau. The closest it came was under the rule of Genghis Khan. The next is under UN government rule; the UN is a creation of Esau.

6 Murder in the top levels of cartel leadership is a hallmark of wolf rule - the time honored method of leader selection. It spares the group the ravages of civil war. Think on this when bankers and prelates gun each other down for no apparent reason, and presidents are shot in Dallas.

7 Every political rise to power is financed. Since time began the one with unlimited funds is the usury-banker.

Attila The States-man

Attila was a great leader. His public life was one of deception. While engaged in stalking a prey he seldom let his left hand know what his right hand was doing. But, in more peaceful times, he periodically brought his chiefs together to teach them the art of statescraft so that they could better help him to accomplish his projects. His successors do the same today in Bilderburger type meetings not open to the public, but not really private either.

Acting The Part

When meeting Roman negotiators, Attila on occasion instructed his Chiefs to select the most vicious and ferocious looking warriors from his army. He ordered them to wear rough furs and leather and to eat raw meat. They were instructed to select 20 or 30 prisoners and to inflict the most horrible tortures on them - impalement, dismemberment, and the like. Then, tables were placed in the midst of this collection of screaming dying wretches, interspersed with hideous looking Huns dressed in the roughest of skins who unconcernly sat eating raw meat, with blood dripping from the sides of their mouths. It was in the midst of this scene that Roman-Hun negotiations commenced. The Roman negotiators were mightily influenced by the sights and sounds that surrounded them. All of this to perpetuate a legend and to gain the Huns the most for the cheapest price.⁸

⁸ Ibid., p. 42.

Today, all the above can be achieved easily with "special effects" by the Hun media along with "rent a riot" props. This saves later recriminations and expense that accompany dead bodies.

"Acting the part" still comes before demands. Demands are almost always preceded by the likes of Martin Luther King, Mandella, L.A., etc. type riots. Burning cities, beaten, raped and murdered citizens, and Oklahoma City bombings. Public circuses don't just happen - they are crafted.⁹ Then, tribute money flows and the king's statutes are ratified.

Catalaunain Fields Post-mortem

Attila's foray into France was stopped by the combined armies of the Visigoths and Romans at the great battle of the Catalaunain Fields. Wes Roberts states that "By nightfall, the fields of Catalaunain were heaped with over 300,000 slain bodies of the horde."¹⁰ The E/B states only that the carnage was terrible. Another source says that the combatants fought on mountains of bodies 30 feet high. Whatever the total casualties were they were sufficient to cause Attila to withdraw the following day.

Attila's End

Withdrawing across the Rhine River he returned to his Pannonian home. In the spring of 452, he sallied forth to sack

⁹ The stranger considers acting-deception such a high art form that he awards prizes to those considered most proficient. The contempt in which the public is held is shown by the establishment running brain-dead Hollywood hacks for the high office of president, getting them elected, and then having an opposition gun lobby hire another actor with known intemation tendencies to be their leader.

¹⁰ It has been estimated that there were also 300,000 bodies from the combined armies of Visigoths and Romans. More than half a million dead in a one day battle! Babylon cares nothing for lives.

Italy. After plundering northern Italy's Po Valley cities he met with Pope Leo I. Attila never revealed the agreement hammered out by the two, nor did Pope Leo. Following their meeting, Attila returned across the Alps.

In 453, he married Ildico, the daughter of a Germanic chief whom he had executed for treason. Attila indulged himself in wives and had 300.

The morning after his marriage he was found dead in a pool of blood. The Huns passed on the story about how he had burst a blood vessel. But, the story persisted that Ildico, to revenge her shame by being taken by a stranger, killed him.¹¹

Admitting that a woman had killed Attila was something that the Huns could not do - which may account for the burst blood vessel story. Nor does history tell us of the subsequent fate of Ildico. It does say that it is quite possible that she did what the combined armies of the West could not do. When word was received that Attila was dead the coalition of Germanic tribes subject to the Huns revolted. After a succession of battles they defeated the Huns in Pannonia at a major battle at the Nedao River in which 30,000 Huns were slain including Attila's oldest son.

The Money Trail

The author prefers the above Ildico story, but the rule, "The love of money is the root of all evil" leads us back to the money trail.

¹¹ "Thou shalt not take a wife ... of the Canaanites ... but thou shalt go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4. "So shall we be separated, I and all of Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Ex 33:16. "I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people." Lev 20:24

Rome Needed Attila

Rome practiced the ancient system the WORD calls "usury" - a capital offense.¹²

As every educated person knows, one cannot lend $10 and expect repayment of $11 when only $10 exists. It's an impossibility. Default is inevitable and the borrower must lose his collateral.¹³ The contract is crooked from its conception - which is why the WORD makes it a capital crime. The person making such an impossible loan has pre-determined to do evil to his neighbor.

To get the 11th dollar with which to pay the interest on the 10 for 11 loan, the borrower must make an adjustment to the original loan and offer additional collateral for the 11th dollar; then he will owe $11 but must still repay $12 - even more of an impossibility.

Sooner or later he will have to default. Sometimes he is lucky and takes the money another has borrowed into existence to pay off his loan, but if he does his neighbor cannot get the 11th dollar and bankrupts in his stead.

Rome was left with 12 ruling banker families. The most powerful of them ordered the Roman emperor he had installed to confiscate the wealth of the other bankers and then there was just one banker. The surviving banker was then master of Rome, her emperors, her armies, and her populace by making usury- loans to the people who were frantic for money for food and taxes.¹⁴

War Solves Slow Business

In the Roman Empire almost everyone was in debt, especially in the provinces and countries Rome had conquered. Usury payments and taxes siphoned the floating supply of money out of circulation. Trade slowed drastically and people stopped having children; they could not afford them. The population dropped. Rome was moribund. Something had to be done to breathe life into a dying empire.

War is the sure fire ITC solution. It forces people to pledge their hoarded assets to usurers in exchange for money to buy weapons with which to defend themselves. Instant prosperity! Attila was a godsend, he served Rome by producing Dresdens, Hiroshimas, Atlantas, and Milner's "scorched earth policies" all rolled into one.

Virginia Knows Attila

We in Virginia know Attila. The Crown allowed Indians to burn, rape and murder in exchange for keeping the crown fur monopoly intact. The Crown refused to allow us to manufacture a pot or a pan. They demanded we buy from them. The Crown refused to stop the slave trade because it was a merchant monopoly in which the Crown had a large interest; and, more labor meant cheaper labor and lower tobacco prices - Britain being the monopoly buyer.

¹⁴ Congress, the "supreme ruling power" of the United States, we are told, recoils in horror at the mere suggestion that they audit the books of the Federal Reserve. One does not dare question his master. Who is the more powerful? Congress or the Federal Reserve?

British villainy became unbearable and Nathaniel Bacon rebelled in desperation. His rebellion ended when the survivors were hanged and their estates confiscated - and then "privatized" by the Crown who gave them to its favorites.¹⁵

In 1775, the rebels' estates were again seized, but when war expanded to include the French, we got them back.

In 1812, the British burned the city of Washington, homes in Virginia, and seized slaves to be resold in the Carribean. Their peace negotiations allowed them to re-establish the National Bank of the United States in which the major stockholders were British (see War Cycles / Peace Cycles). Usury banking began to spread like a cancer as people borrowed to rebuild war damage.

1861-1865: Virginia's Shenandoah Valley was burned. VMI in Lexington along with many of its homes also. Liberty City (now Bedford) was burned. Hunter's advance was marked by a sky black with the smoke from burning homes. After the war the survivors went to the banks the victors had newly set up (when I was a boy, Lynchburg's banks all had 1865 as their founding date engraved above their entrances) to borrow to rebuild.

Amherst County, across the James River, was largely woods. Refugees from all over northern Virginia abandoned their homes and their worldly possessions and refugeed there to live in the woods under canvases and hasty lean-tos in preference to living under the mailed fist of the invader. Lynchburg was a hospital center - its homes and warehouses were filled with wounded soldiers so there was no extra room for refugees here. All across Amherst one can walk in the woods and find upright stones where such stones should not be - they mark the last resting place of one of the thousands of grandparents, mothers, or children who died from exposure, starvation and disease. At war's end the refugees went to the new banks and borrowed money to rebuild their burned homes.

With our farm workers gone, many of the farm owners killed, and strangers ruling us - heavily taxed land which had been farmed for 200 years suddenly became a liability. Formerly proud farmers moved their families to town to live in newly built company houses while they worked in newly built cotton mills for starvation wages. General Lee wrote that if he had known the use our enemies would make of our defeat that he would have rather died at Appomattox with his sword in his hand.

General Hunter walked in Attila's steps. He had been a preacher. Sherman a banker. Grant a drunk, and during his entire later presidency was known as a crook. Lincoln's treachery is too well known to repeat, and hypocritically, his wife owned slaves. He delivered the Southland to Rome on a silver platter and our blood, misery, and debt created one of the greatest economic booms the rest of the country had ever seen.

Covering The Tracks

Attila's unfortunate death is almost standard once their job has been completed. Attila look-a-likes often get the same treatment. Napoleon's wars stimulated trade and commerce throughout the world producing the same Attila-like effect; he was poisoned before broadcasting the names of those who financed his rise to power. Lincoln was shot before doing the same; Lenin died before telling who financed his revolution; Roosevelt had a stroke; the Japanese leaders were hanged; and the imprisoned top leaders of NS Germany were held incommunicado before they were put to death. Babylon values its privacy. It can not tolerate an audit or even a mild inspection.

But their secret is not all that secure. The bloody tracks they left walking the money trail are easy to follow. They lead straight to the owners of the world's usury-banks. These owners pay the Attilas of the world to build mountains of bodies that in due time will keep good times rolling - and for that there will one day come a reckoning.

Until that day - the warning that must be shouted from the housetops is:

"The borrower is slave to the lender".

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Thank you for the last Hoskins Report on Militias. They were so similar to our "commandos", except ours did not supply their own field cannons of which they had a few. President Kruger bought them when war seemed inevitable. As the war continued, they got all the ammunition, rifles, cannons and even provisions they needed when they attacked English convoys. Clothes were a problem because they went in everyday wear and tear, so they took clothes from English prisoners when they paroled them. The rules of combat and treatment of civilians were almost the same as those of the Confederate armies and the German armies in WWII.

I got Rev. J. D. Kestell's book and found him very readable. He was on the battlefield to the end, the only one left and a great comfort to all. He always saw the beauty in nature. He tells of the brutality of the English towards women and children and the rape of women, but he could not bring himself to describe this in detail as it upset him terribly.

With the blacks murdering so many white farmers, certain districts have commandos continually on patrol and that does not sit well with the black ANC rulers. After all, it is their own terrorist organizations that are doing the murdering. This morning the radio repeated Mabona when he said that great damage is being done to many farms, burning tractors, buildings, etc. A petition list is going around against the farm violence, but we see it as a waste of time when the regime confirms that they want to remove farmers from the land one way or another. Time will be better spent preparing for the real onslaught and making ready to take firm action.

When whites arrived here there were almost no blacks. Today we are told that two-thirds of the blacks walking the streets are recently arrived foreigners. Apparently some whites even employ them in homes. That seems stupid with all the AIDS around. The AIDS conference in Durban was a farce and nobody can really make out what the true situation is. My daughter heard on TV that there will be more deaths than births in three years' time. Blacks do not understand the nature of AIDS no matter how many times it is explained to them. They say it is their culture to sleep around and that is that. Makoba, who used to shout the slogan "Kill a farmer, kill a Boer" will not last till December. He has full blown AIDS.

Newspapers had a very sad story about a Rottweiler and another dog who were attacked by squatters who cut off their ears and other body parts. Sympathy flowed and donations flooded in. A fence was put around the property. The papers were careful not to mention the fact that the owner was a black woman. Liberal organizations collect funds from whites to look after animals in black areas. They don't bother to have dispensaries for animals of poor and elderly whites who cannot afford the very expensive veterinary clinics. All aid goes to blacks who should not have animals in the first place. It's shocking how they treat them.

I know it is hot where you live, but here it is the opposite - it is bitterly cold and another cold front is on the way. After the firebreak was made we had to get out when two dangerous looking fires started in the veld. There must be something about the sight of flames which blacks love to see. Wild animals have moved closer to the house for protection.

About the shotguns - I wanted an AK47 but must have a permit and this is not possible at the moment. However we have slugs for shotguns that will pierce most objects.

A certain Wendy Orr wrote a book here of how bad our border war was for the young men. Then I look at many youngsters today; they wear earrings, shuffle along with drooping shoulders dress sloppy and many are overweight. A sad sight. Our border boys looked good in comparison.

We were talking about it the other day - is there a reason why we never hear music composed by Stephen Foster?¹⁶

The squatter camp is still growing but now with tiny hut houses. When it rains the inside is as wet as the outside. A black builder is the contractor and although white building

On Wednesday it was so cold inside that a bit of sun outside seemed nice. I grabbed an old ladder to cut dead pieces from the Wisteria. Did not get far before the ladder collapsed with me underneath and a broken heel and ankle was the result. So, it was off to the hospital. Luckily a place with a white staff in all positions. Had to come home on Friday as we just cannot leave our place untended. Sure enough, a huge fire was raging, so my husband had to go out and fight the fire. We are trying to keep a grassy area for the wild animals; about forty guinea-fowl, rabbits, some tiny "steen bok" (antelope). They find it more difficult by the day to survive. The blacks are useless enough, but they still manage to keep hunting dogs. Consequently, nothing wild is safe.

While I was at the doctors, a young woman came in with a knee problem. She had just organized the AIDS conference that took place in Durban, so I thought she would know something about AIDS. But, it seems she had more to do with the catering, travelling and accommodations. All I got from her was, "Eleven (mostly blacks) get AIDS every minute, and six die every minute, and in three years time there will be more deaths than births." A French delegate spoke to blacks on a SA Broadcasting System program. He could not make the blacks understand that soon they will not understand what hit them. Still, white men pick up black women next to roads. One white sodomite said he did a roaring trade with the delegates in Durban. It doesn't seem like this AIDS conference will accomplish anything positive. Living a Bible ordained life and keeping away from blacks who may be AIDS infected will help a great deal.

A funny thing I noticed - the young woman who did the organizing thinks the conference will bring investments to S. Africa; A country with no growth rate, hardly any infrastructure left, whose blacks are the most expensive lazy work force one can imagine, and with a rampant crime rate. Dear me!

A last thing, the white farmers in Zimbabwe finally hit on a wonderful idea - that of closing down all farming activities. If anything works this will. Blacks will riot in the streets demanding the return of white farmers if food shortages get bad.

This just in: I have distressing news. Mr. Jaap Marais, long time leader of the HNP is dead. He warned against allowing the blacks to take over S. Africa and remained a constant thorn in the side of the communist ANC black rule. His knowledge and writings about S. Africa's true history and destiny have kept our spirits high during these difficult days. Under his leadership the HNP has held high his belief in eventual deliverance - in opposition to other white collaborators who have been ever-so-eager to play the traitor. We pray that his replacement will be as great a patriot as he was.

He will be sorely missed. K.J.

RKH: The penalty for murder is "death". When the state substitutes its own "policy" for God's LAW, no one is safe and chaos lies ahead.

JORG HAIDER: "Jorg Haider is the first post-war European politician who has dared to contradict the mendacious post-war propaganda of the victorious allies of WWII. He questioned Germany's guilt regarding the outbreak of the second World War, condemned the re-education of the German/Austrian peoples by the victorious powers, designated the German army as the best and most honorable army of the Second World War, and called Winston Churchill a war-monger and criminal who ordered the bombing and napalm destruction of non-strategic German cultural cities such as Dresden, in which hundreds of thousands of fleeing German women and children were sheltering. Since the end of the war, there has been no politician that has openly proclaimed such unadorned truths. The result was to be expected. he was stamped a 'neo-nazi' and a 'xenophobe' ... Haider must be silenced by hook or by crook. So much for democracy!" (Insider, 1Mar00.)

SWITZERLAND-CRIME CAPITAL: "Alien criminals commit 56.9% of all burglaries, 78.1% of vehicle break-ins and 85.5% of pocket-pickings. In 91% of identity document falsifications and 100% of all jewelry store hold-ups, the culprits have been foreigners. They are also responsible for 2/3rds of all cases of shoplifting, muggings, receiving stolen goods, money laundering, serious physical assault, rape and murder. In the view of experts, the Zurich canton government was itself to blame because of its 'liberalization' policies: the abolition of preventive action by the city police; ... toleration of the drug scene; ... encouragement of drug usage ... and the deliberate encouragement of a multi-cultural society..." (Insider #4/2000 Vol 11)

NETHERLANDS UNCHRISTIAN: "The Netherlands has, in the last 30 years, almost totally lost their Christian faith. According to a poll, only 27% of the Catholics still believe in a personal God. Only 16% believe in a God who cares about human beings. However, 58% of Catholics believe in "some sort of a higher power". Attendance by Catholics at Sunday worship services has fallen from 86% to 27% over the last 30 years. Among the Dutch Reformed, attendance has dropped from 95% to 68% and from 49% to 46% amongst the 'Reformed' churches." Insider Klaus Vaque, PO Box 17200, Groenkloof, Pretoria 0027, RSA, RKH: Today, most "Christian" churches are not Christian, they are Christian-Hindu, and that is not Christian. The people sense the difference. They know that their infidel priests are asking them to follow gods other than the WORD which is God. Those "made in the image" of the WORD stay away from evil.

COMBATS DISCRIMINATION: European ITC social affairs ministers are expected to agree to a directive to combat discrimination because of race including a move to shift the burden of proof from the accuser to the accused.

The directive is the first put forward under Article 13 of the EU's Amsterdam Treaty. The article calls for EU-wide efforts "to combat discrimination based on gender, racial or ethnic origin, religion or belief, disability, age or sexual orientation." The measure is meant to fight discrimination based on race at work, job hunting, promotions, or working conditions. Also when buying goods or services, joining employer's or workers' bodies, or seeking access to social security. Sanctions must be "effective, proportionate and dissuasive". (Story in Financial Times, World News, p.4, 6-6-00)

RUSSIAN SUB: Russia recently lost her latest and best submarine, the Kursk. A defect caused her to sink in 350 feet of water. When Norwegian divers reached the Kursk, they opened in a few hours an escape hatch that had defeated Russian rescuers for days. They found the boat filled with water. It has since been revealed that regular Russian navy deep water divers had been discharged as an economy measure. The Russian divers the Norwegian divers found working were "pick me up" temps hired for the job. The Kursk sinking was a real tragedy for Russia. Russia spends only about $5 billion a year on defense compared with $300 billion for the US. Of the $5 billion, $1 billion was spent building the Kursk but its captain was paid only $150 a month. It would appear that Russia's days as the West's Attila may be numbered.

WORSHIP WITH ALIENS In Our Sanctuaries

Thomas Road Baptist Church

Jerry Falwell's Thomas Road Baptist Church used to be a national church.¹ One Sunday a delegation from the multi-national NAACP arrived in front of the church and told the newspapers that they were there to integrate the church (convert TRBC from a national into a multi-national church).

They strode into the sanctuary and met the deacons. The deacons grabbed the NAACP representatives and rushed them to the front door of the sanctuary and threw them head over teacups down the steps. Thomas Road made no apology for treating trespassers in this manner and most of the people in town agreed.

Of course, times have changed. Jerry Falwell and Thomas Road Baptist Church, once the widely advertised "bulwark of fundamental Christianity", voluntarily changed and became a multi-national church to keep its tax-exemption. But, it is a fact that once upon a time Thomas Road Baptist Church was a national church that obeyed God's WORD.

America's Separated Churches

America's churches once forbade strangers to come into their midst simply because God The WORD forbade it. This was true in New York, Washington D.C., San Francisco, as well as in Richmond, Atlanta and Selma.

The Crowning Humiliation

Integrating nations and mixing their gods is nothing new. In 595 BC, Jeremiah recorded Israel's crowning humiliation:

"We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (2114 Heb: zûwr - racial aliens) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51

This upset over aliens being in the Lord's house was based on an earlier Commandment of God recorded in 1410 BC:

"A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2²

Kill The Stranger

To the above prohibition was added a prohibition issued in 1450 BC:

"When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger (Heb: zâwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh shall be put to death." Numbers 1:51 (No 18:7)

Samaria

About 800 years later (721 BC), after repeatedly running after other gods, God the WORD took the nation of Israel out of the promised land he had given them and sent them into captivity in Babylon. The story reads in this manner:

"In the 9th year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria (capital city of the Northern Kingdom) and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the River Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes." 2Ki 17:6

Sheldon Emry in his book Russia Will Invade America says that over 10 million Israelites went into captivity. The Scriptures continue:

² Bastard: The centuries old definition of bastard is "a child born out of wedlock." This is a re-definition of the original meaning. The KJV translators used the English word "bastard" only twice in Deut 23:2 and Zec 9:6, according to Strong's Concordance. In both cases it is the Hebrew word #4464 and is defined: "Mamzer, a mongrel, ie. born of a Jewish father and a heathen mother: - bastard." The true meaning of a bastard is "a child born from sexual intercourse between a father and a mother of different races!" When this last was written the writer did not have today's knowledge that modern Jews are 8th century Mongol-Turk converts to Judaism whose descendants readily admit that they are alien to the ancient Hebrew-Israelites whose religion they have chosen.

"And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon... Cu'-thah ... Ha'-math ... Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel ... They ... know not the manner of the God of the land. Then the King of Assyria commanded carry thither one of the priest whom ye brought from thence ... and let him teach them the manner of the god of the land ... howbeit every nation made Gods of their own ... unto this day ... they fear not the Lord, neither do they after their statutes ... which the Lord commanded the children of ... Israel ... As did their fathers so do they unto this day." II Ki 17:24-41

The above says four things loud and clear:

* (1) Strangers were imported to live and work in the land of Samaria that formerly belonged to the children of Israel:

* (2) These newly arrived superstitious strangers wanted to pacify the god of the land and petitioned the king to send them a preacher to teach them about God the WORD, the God of Israel:

* (3) The king sent a preacher to teach these alien immigrants, but:

* (4) After learning the WORD, these Arab-Turks had not changed a bit. They were made in the image of their own gods, as we are made in the image of God the WORD, and they continued to blaspheme God The WORD even though claiming to worship Him.³

"I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, ... and caused my people Israel to err." Jer 23:13

Summary To Date

Thus far WORD has told us that: It is a shame to our nation to have strangers in our sanctuaries (Jer 51:51); That no mixed breed is to enter the temple (De 23:2); That strangers who approach the tabernacle are to be put to death (No 1:51): And, evangelized aliens who say they follow our God in reality continue to follow their own ancient gods since they are made in the image of that god (II Ki 17:24-41).

Aliens Volunteer Help Rebuilding The Temple

About a hundred years after going into captivity, 50,000 returned from Babylon to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem. When the news that they had arrived got out, the Turk-Arabs living in Samaria to the north, the oncs who had been evangelized by a Priest of God The WORD, rushed down and offered to help rebuild the temple, explaining that they all worshiped the same god and were therefore all the same. This is how the story is recorded:

"Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; ... they came to ... the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up thither. But ... the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel ..."
Ezra 4:1-3

One can imagine how today's apostate preachers would have handled matters if they had been there. They would have welcomed anyone who said that they followed God the WORD and would have accepted their help to build a house to God. Not only those who said that they followed God The WORD, but also those who protested that they followed a god - any god! After all, according to today's priests, all gods are one!

The Scriptures records what happened when the Samaritan-Turks were turned away:

"Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, And hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose." Ezra 4:1-5

The story as recorded in the Apocrypha goes into a bit more detail:

"Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it ... they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple unto the Lord God of Israel. So they went to ... the chief of the families, and said unto them, We will build together with you. For we likewise, as ye, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto him from the days of Azbazeareth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. Then ... the chief of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not for us and you to build together an house unto the Lord our God. We ourselves alone will build unto the Lord of Israel." I Esdras 6:66-71

Down Through The Years

Israel had a king-high priest named Hycanus. In violation of the Word Of God he evangelized the accursed Edomites and by edict made them members of the house of Israel. In spite of their acceptance of God The WORD they brought their old gods with them and in time rose to power; it was Herod the Edomite, ruler of Judea, who slaughtered the Hebrew children. Under such leadership Judea lapsed into evil ways until the WORD had almost been forgotten. Into this cauldron of evil God sent his son, the "WORD made flesh" to revive the WORD among those who had forgotten. God did this because he remembered his promise:

*"The LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all the people that are upon the face of the earth."
Deut 7:6*

Jesus arrived and taught:

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy but to fulfill." Mt 5:17

And what did the law teach?

"A bastard (Heb: manîzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2

"When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger (Heb: zîwîr - racial alien) that cometh nigh shall be put to death." Numbers 1:51

It was natural that after having said that he was not come to destroy the Law that Jesus should go on to say:

*"I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel."
Mathew 5:24*

Josephus recorded the fact that the law stated:

"It shall be Lawful for no foreigner to come within the limits of the temple." Josephus 12:3:4

Aliens themselves knew that it was not permitted for them to enter the temple. Josephus records that even the general of the Assyrian army, even though a conqueror, found out that that aliens were not permitted to enter the temple:

*"The general of Artazerxes army ... as he was aiming to go into the temple, they forbade him to do so."
Antiquities 11:7:1*

What Jesus Taught

Jesus said that he was in the beginning. It was He who said that He and his Father are one. It was He who had made the Laws and it was He who instructed his disciples in this manner:

"These 12 Jesus sent forth, and commanded them saying, Go ye not into the way of the gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6

He told them:

"I am sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24.

Multi-Nationals Say Jesus Lies

The imperative of the anti-Christ from the beginning has always been:

"Satan ... sought to kill him (Adam-man), and to make him disappear from off the face of the earth."
I Adam & Eve 72:12

The stranger's age-old wish is to destroy Saxon-man from the face of the earth so that they can inherit it. What better way to destroy man than to separate him from his God who created him in his image from the beginning - by making him believe that God lies.

It was Jesus who said in the beginning that man was not to worship with strangers. It was Jesus who said that God does not lie.

Therefore, when Jesus said "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Mark 16:15-16, he was referring to his own. There can be no other interpretation. He has to be talking about his own people Israel otherwise he would be a liar, and the Scripture says "God is not a man that he should lie." Num 23:19.

Other seeming paradoxes to the WORD which liberals use over and over in their never-ending attempt to destroy the WORD can be answered in the same manner.

In spite of what multi-nationals say, Jesus did not change any Law that he made in the beginning or make any new ones. "Think not that I am come to destroy the law of the prophets: I am not come to destroy but to fulfill." Matt 5:17 He nailed it down when he said; "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35.

Conclusion

Today is the day of the nation's WORD of God vs. the gods of the multi-nation. Our nation is the Saxon nation. Our God is God the WORD. Anyone who follows his own mind or says that he has some "private" truth⁴ follows another god.

Anyone who stands before the people and says that he speaks for God the WORD while his congregation contains aliens is a false witness and the truth is not in him.⁵ The multi-national congregation reveals multi-national gods who were brought in by the strangers, and their gods are many. The preacher of such a congregation will serve the many gods before him and not God The WORD who said that we are not to have strangers in our midst. Our God has said to his own children:

⁵ "Ye shall know them by their fruits. Matt 7:16

"Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God Of Israel." Ezra 4:1-3

"So shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Ex 33:16

SLAVES

An entire book can be written on the above, but fear of "overload" caused me to cut it short. Still, I couldn't help but add a story or two that I related years ago and the reader may have forgotten by now. It's a fault that comes with old age.

In spite of what Esau's multi-national media says, Southerners loved their slaves. From Thomas Jefferson down they had all sorts of opinions about their slaves innate abilities, but the consensus among slave owners was that it was all important to "save their souls" from the wiles of the local voodoo practitioner.

To save their slaves' souls Southerners made an exception to the "No stranger ..." rule. They constructed balconies in their churches with outside entrances so that slaves could hear God the WORD without coming in contact with Saxons who worshiped below in the main sanctuary. The result was that slaves had to choose between God the WORD that passed through a Black filter or choose the incantations of plantation Voodoo. It was one or the other.

Slaves were getting sick and dying on the plantation of my great, great grandfather, John Payne Kelly, for no apparent reason. Surrounding plantations were experiencing the same phenomenon. This was serious - slaves were expensive. Neighborhood meetings were held and a general search found that there was a Voodoo practitioner somewhere in the county. Further search led to my grandfather's plantation. There it was discovered that an old crone was a Voodoo practitioner. All the slaves in the county were afraid of her. She told Blacks to get sick - and they got sick. She told them to die and they died. I don't know how many had gotten sick and died, but there were a lot.

My grandfather confronted her and she lunged at him and bit him on his arm. This was serious. She was what they called in that day, "a blue gum niggra." This meant that her bite was poisonous. It was poisonous to my grandfather - the wound became septic and his arm had to be amputated.

I don't know what happened to the Voodoo woman, but when she was gone, the sickness and deaths among the slaves stopped.⁶

Blacks have gods and their gods have power. When freed, the first thing the former slaves did was to desert the White churches and organize their own. Their "preachers" taught Jesus, Bible stories, and reintroduced African chants similar to "rap" today. In church aisles they danced victory dances black football players do in today's football end-zones - called "toy-toying" in S. Africa.

Only multi-national liberals doubt that the Black "Jesus" taught in Black churches is anything other than a voodoo devil with another name.⁷

6 Plantation owners were reluctant to have expensive slaves executed for capital crimes because of the cost. A prime field hand was as expensive as one of today's Rolls-Royce automobiles. Virginia tried to solve the problem by contributing half the value if the owner would have a murdering slave executed. But, executions were rare. This act of seeming mercy violated God's Law.

7 The only god multi-national liberals recognize are gods pieced together to their satisfaction from many other gods.

Churches

As far back as I can remember, Black servants were invited to White funerals and they sat on the back seats in churches. The same was true for weddings.

As far back as I can remember the preacher collected money for missions to Africa. An old timer told me that he wouldn't contribute because the preachers had been collecting money for missions for three hundred years and still the Christian religion never lasted longer than the missionary.

It is an historical fact that the most vicious Black leaders who exterminated the Whites in Haiti were trained by Christian priests. The most vicious leaders of Black slave rebellions in America were trained by Christian preachers (Stonewall Jackson himself taught a colored Sunday School). Most South American and North American bloodthirsty Indian leaders were taught by Christian missionaries. Chinese communist revolutionaries all attended Christian schools. South Africa's Mandella and most of his ilk were trained in Christian schools. Joseph Stalin, the most bloodthirsty of them all, was trained by Christian priests.

There is a lesson here, a lesson that should have been learned two thousand years ago.

"Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6; "Thou shalt not suffer a stranger to eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

A PRAYER ANSWERED

This month I spoke at a Christian Family camp in Wisconsin. The anti-Christian Reform media had waged a 3 week newspaper and TV campaign to discourage campers from attending. They boasted that 600 protesters were expected.

I arrived at camp, about 1 p.m. and parked. Carrying my traveling bag I walked across the road to the camp and passed through about 25 protesters of various ages and sexes who were carrying signs. There were ten others who were media cameramen.

Most of the signs were innocuous. I told various sign carriers that I agreed with this sign and that, So, what was the purpose of their protest?

They answered that they were protesting "hate". I answered, "Do I not hate them that hate thee, do I not hate them with a perfect hatred?", and told them that the Bible requires a person to hate those who hated the WORD. That really seemed to stump them.

But soon, they were back yelling again. I later discovered that this was for the benefit of cameras with telephoto lens who were having a difficult time making 25 people look like the 600 promised protesters who did not show up. As far as mass rallies are concerned, this was a fiasco.

The protest was scheduled to take place all weekend, but the protest leaders couldn't recruit protesters to return once they actually met and talked to some of the Bible campers. They discovered that it wasn't at all like the media had said it would be.

There was a Lutheran youth minister present who seemed to be one of the protest leaders. Along about 4 p.m. it began to rain, and he gathered his little group together across the road near some tall pine trees and held a prayer. Then they left.

I went to my room to get some papers. While there I heard an explosion. It sounded like heavy artillery. It was loud! More than a dozen people witnessed it.

This is what had happened: Five minutes after the protesters prayed, at that very spot, a bolt of lightning struck. This is where it gets interesting. The lightning did not hit the ground; it came within 20 feet over the exact spot where the protesters had met a few minutes earlier, turned into a fireball (something I have never heard of before) and violently exploded. The consensus was that it would have killed the whole party of anti-Christ liberals had they not left five minutes before. No one had ever seen anything like it.

Evidently, their prayer had been heard and answered - in a most spectacular manner.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: The funeral of Jaap Marais was held last Monday. It was very dignified and our people came from far away to pay tribute to this great man. We missed the graveside service because our map is rather old and we got lost. We went straight to the church of President Paul Kruger which was opposite his house. The wheelchair made it easy for me to attend.

Prof. Pont, an old friend of Marais, held the service to a packed audience. At the graveside 17 young people flew the Vierkleur for each year that he was the leader. The liberal reaction was interesting. They said he was a gentleman but a bigot. They could never understand a person who always said no, could not be bought, and did not follow the multitude. If Dr. Verwoerd had survived his assassin, Marais would have been the next prime minister.

The main council decided to leave Willie Marais (no relative) as acting leader till the coming yearly congress. The entire congress can then elect a new leader. We have a few young men with ability, but it is a full time political job and they need an income. Jaap Marais was never paid by the HNP, but a young man with a family needs an income.

Not far from us are a few shops mostly for the black trade. Two funeral parlors for blacks appeared and the squatters began to complain that they have no cemetery near.

Road walking females who once had big expensive car owners as clients are no longer around. AIDS? How a white man could bring himself to pick up these Blacks is beyond our understanding. In days gone by white policemen used to phone the wives and tell them.

The nearby post office is closed once more by striking Blacks. They want money without working. That's the idea.

The cast came off the foot but it will still take six weeks before I can walk. The worst is to see my work waiting and there is nothing I can do about it. My husband took over the kitchen and cleaning, thank goodness, but that keeps him from his own work.

Old Harry Oppenheimer died last Saturday. The Jews call him an icon although he joined the "Anglican church, or rather his father Ernest did when the other son died, but they never recognized Christ. Ernest's estate claimed that it was only worth £600 when he died. I wonder how they will say today since it is well known that Harry's estate is worth billions.

It came to my mind that another similarity exists between the Southern States of America, Germany and South Africa. The attempt by our nations to go their own way worried the Jews no end. They hate apartheid. "Scparateness" by any name is a thing they use to vilify the white nations who dare to say there is enough space for every race to grow at its own rate. Apartheid did not fail. Here, big business used the money intended for factories near black homelands for themselves. Blacks who could work away from home had to move to town and stayed in hostels. The Jews then complained about Black broken homes, but they caused the broken homes. Their idea is; have many workers looking for one job and exploit the black labour by paying them the least they can.

Take Helen Susman, that great liberal. She owned the Union Hotel near the Union Building in Pretoria. She paid her staff so badly that it became a major issue. As one old Jewess told my husband, she only pays the garden boy half wage, "It is better than nothing!"

Eugene Tere'Blanche, the former White militia leader, was sent to prison for something I still have my doubts about. The Black he was supposed to have beaten senseless still works where he did before the incident. Never mind the brain damage they said he had. Anyway, he is out on parole at moment.

Hans told a young political worker last week that we do not intend to vote for a Black communist party or a White communist party.

White farmers and their wives are killed daily, but the media were told by the Black police head not to publish the incidents. Unless our own people keep track of the killings in their own area there are no longer statistics to go by.

The fuel price is still going up. It seems that the sky is the limit since the ANC found out how easy it is to tax Whites this way. Our railway transport no longer exists. Everything goes by road. Since the roads aren't repaired potholes appear and rather than fix them the Blacks put up signs reading "Potholes!" Clever these Blacks, they know how to destroy a country.

I read about Secret German Technology in "The Last Talons of the Eagle". The authors dislike the evil Germans but note that the allies could not wait to get their hands on German inventions. The Stealth Bomber was taken to America and fifty years later it is revealed that it was a German invention. This was just one of many such.

An armed Black came onto the farm and hid among some trees. After exchanging a few shots with us he left.

With our best wishes,

PRIVATIZATION

Members of the ancient Hindu religious priesthood were destitute. Their organization was wealthy. It owned everything.

CONTROL is everything. International Trade Cartel (ITC) control is exercised through "corporations". Corporations own property and they own the people who work for it.

The kings of the world are ITC creations and are corporate employees. Their purpose is to protect ITC wealth managed in ITC corporations. When the ITC cannot gain possession of a privately owned property it is government's job to get it for them. This is done by "privatization". Many individuals refuse to sell their property to the ITC - the Kaiser of Germany, the Czar of Russia, the Catholic Church of Mexico and Spain, the Boer holdings in S. Africa, and the plantations of the Southland, to name a few.

The ITC directs their governments to "nationalize" the coveted property. Sometimes this is done when one country conquers another. The coveted property is then "nationalized"

After people have had time to forget, the property is "privatized" into ITC corporations - the ones who could not buy it from the original owners. This is the reason for the world- wide rush to privatization. Government seized property is being passed on to ITC corporations and paid for with ITC bank credit.

Privatization is Babylon's technique of taking over the world. They have been doing it for a long time and it costs them nothing but paper money or credit. Below are a few recent ones among the scores that take place every week.

Slovakia - El Passo Energy of the US has been named preferred bidder for Slovakia's first energy privatization.

Argentina - One of Argentina's biggest provinces is planning to retire its debt with money gained from privatizing its bank, electric company and casino operation.

Britain - Has just "privatized" 30 tons of its gold reserve. Surprise, surprise - the 30 ton offer was oversubscribed 2 1/2 times.

PASTOR BUTLER

I met Pastor Butler perhaps ten years ago when he introduced himself at a Family Bible Meeting in Spokane where I was speaking. He made a good impression. An elderly white haired man, nicely dressed in coat and tie, above medium height, with a quiet retiring manner. Over the years I have learned that he is a man of his word with a too-generous heart who believes every hard-luck story he is told and will give the hardluck storyteller everything he has. I wrote the following two years ago but never had the space to run it. It tells something of the spirit of the man.

The Raid

Eighty year old Pastor Butler leads the church at Hayden Lake. His congregation holds cross lightings. This makes him a perfect target for the media who has long demonized him. Regardless, he and his congregation have the right to believe whatever they want to believe, the same right that the communists, Muslims, or devil worshiping Hindus have, and with which the media finds no fault.

On Sunday, May 31, 1998, during church service, a provocateur created a disturbance and was conducted off church premises. Four minutes later 11 police cars drove up, giving credence to the charge that the affair was staged because it takes 15 minutes to drive from town.

In Pastor Butler's words:

"Church let out at 12:00 noon. At approx. 12:45, two members of the church and myself decided to go to lunch. Driving down the church's 1000 foot driveway and coming to a clearing and turn in the driveway, we could see a dozen sheriff and state police cars.

"I parked and walked the rest of the way to the county road - Rimrock Road. I could see five of our men lying face down on the road. Looking to my right I could see 6 or so police officers aiming shotguns, pistols, and high-powered rifles at my people!

"I yelled to my men ... 'Get up!, you are men, not dogs!'

"I turned and walked toward the pointed guns asking what this is about and was told to back off or they would shoot. I said, 'Go ahead and shoot. I'm unarmed and only want to talk to you.'

"The police response was to mace and pepper spray my eyes and face. My unarmed men, standing behind me, led me off the road ... I was blinded. My thought is that the police were worried that this 80-year-old WHITE man was going to take their guns away from them." RGB (<http://www.nidlink.com/~aryanvic>)

All together, five were arrested and driven to prison. They were assaulted on their own property, were not under arrest, were not read their rights, and charges were filed only hours later. Most face charges of "obstruction" and "unlawful assembly" on their own property.

Background

The media has had a heyday lambasting Butler's Hayden Lake operations. Cross lightings and WWII Nationalist Socialist regalia is the sort of thing the media loves.

Jewish Defense League's toughs in their sweat shirts, folded arms, in-your-face posturing can do this sort of thing and it is never reported because both they and the media emanate from the same source. With the Aryan Nations Church, that is a different matter.⁸

Setup

Many believe that the present incident was a setup because that's what was done to them before. First, the area media waged a non-stop campaign against the Aryan Nation's church. This demonizes them and conditions the local jury pool.

Next, Aryan Nations reportedly was given information that a group of hostiles were 'en route from California to harass them - for the unpteenth time. This put them on edge. Then, a car drove by slowly as if the occupants were casing the place.

While the gate keepers were in a heightened state of alert, a shot was fired - or the car backfired - depending on who is telling the story. Following the shot (backfire) the car sped away from the scene - thus giving evidence of guilt to the gate guards.

The guards give chase, shot out the tires of fleeing vehicle, and roughed up the occupants - a woman and her son. This gave Morris Dees of the Southern Poverty Law Center cause to enter stage left and file suit.

If this was a rigged incident - it was professionally done. The result was a foregone conclusion. The trial was held before a media-biased jury who awarded a $6 million dollar judgment to the plaintiffs. This effectively wipes out Aryan Nations. Dees gets the Aryan Nation's 20 acres, buildings, flags and paraphernalia - a clean sweep.

A phone call to the AN confirms the above. One point: They say that while they are being forced to move - they aren't defeated by a long shot - and they say they have no intention of giving up their name.

Alien Strategy

It is the editor's opinion this sort of thing is an on-going operation. It is also my opinion if it were not Morris Dees doing the hatchet job it would be someone else. Aryan Nations is only the last of a long list of victims.

The modis-operandi appears to be this: Media-demonize the chosen victim, poison the jury pool, compromise the victim in some manner - either by inciting him to make an overt act, or using evidence (that the public believes is credible) that the targeted victim "incited" a violent act. A case is then brought before a poisoned jury. The result is a foregone conclusion.

How To React

One can react in one of two ways:

"Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves." Matt 10:16

The second way is the way of Barabbas. Barabbas had been one of Jesus' followers:

"Now Barabbas spake with something of austerity ... Therefore I asked him again where he had been of late, and why he had forsaken the disciples. But he answered with still more of passion than before, "Because I am weary of these idle wanderings about Galilee, which bring forth no fruit. Not to sit on stools at the feet of a Scribe did I and my friends join ourselves to Jesus of Nazareth. Why tarrieth he so long idle? Why is his hand so backward to smite the oppressor?" But I bade him be of good cheer, for the hour was not yet come, and Jesus would know better than we the season fit for our uprising." Philochristus, Chapter 13: pp24, p.129

Conclusion

The WORD says that there is a time for all things - a time for peace and a time for war. Since the enemy is doing everything he can to provoke followers of The WORD into committing some act Babylon has declared "unlawful" so that they can be liquidated - be "harmless as doves". Don't follow the way of Barabbas.

While we remain "harmless as doves" the Scriptures promise that the day of the white horse will most assuredly come - in the Lord's own time. After all, did not the Son of Man, the WORD made flesh, say to man:

"Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I come not to send peace, but a sword." Matt 10:34

He said, "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15. At the same time He also said to pay Caesar lest you offend him. A live follower of the WORD is better than a dead one. Today, our sword must be the WORD:

"The WORD of God is quick, and sharper than any 2- edged sword." Heb 4:12

The seed must be planted before the harvest. At harvest time we will be able to say:

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13

Chapter 314

PARABLES How To Survive

Two Kinds Of Christianity

There are two kinds of Christianity:

- * National Christianity, and
- * Multi-national Christianity - called "establishment Christianity" or "Christian-Hinduism".

The two have little in common. The first is of God the WORD - the second is created by the "establishment" to bless the establishment and replace the first.

The persecution of the first by the second forces the followers of God the WORD to tell their story in "Parables" using ancient code words having double meanings.

The Christian nationalist has studied the WORD and knows his nation and its mission. The multi-nationalist has also studied and has chosen the multi-national way because multi-gods seemingly offer more immediate rewards. The rest of the multi-nationals have inherited their multi-gods along with mixed genes.

Only For Those Chosen

The Scriptures say:

"And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. ... lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them." Matt 13: 10-15¹

Sedition

Jesus was the founder and leader of a political/cultural revolution. His followers admitted it then and do so to this day.

In the New Jewish Encyclopedia, "Jesus Of Nazareth," it states:

"In the eyes of Jewish authorities, Jesus' claims to messiahship were particularly distressing because of their political implications, since Palestine had already suffered as the result of attempted insurrections against

"When I speak of our Scriptures, I mean that there are two interpretations of every Scripture. There is first the outer meaning, which is as it were the body; but there is next, the inner spiritual meaning, which is, as it were, the soul. Thus, for example, when thou readest that Eve was made out of the rib of Adam, or that the world was made in six days, or that God talked with Moses in a thorn-bush, the letter of these Scriptures is indeed fable, but the spiritual is truth and life."

Nationalists concentrate on the spiritual: Multi-nationals concentrate on the letter to keep their parishioners from learning the inner truth.

the Herodian rulers. As a probable rebel against Roman authority, Jesus was handed over to the Roman governor, Pontius Pilate, to be tried for treason."

Another source puts it this way:

"The charge on which Jesus was finally condemned was of political sedition (Lk 23:2) ... He did often speak about the 'kingdom of God' as the object of his mission, and such language, particularly in Galilee, was open to nationalistic interpretation." New Bible Dictionary, 2nd Ed, Tyndale, "Jesus Christ, Life & Teaching."

Seditious Objectives

Christians who follow God the WORD believe that the Kingdom of God requires each and every one appointed "king and priest" to exercise their authority. It requires that strangers leave the land; that usury, taxes and contracts with strangers cease, that the land be divided, and that debts be forgiven every 7 years.

The introduction and implementation of these measures, "The Kingdom of God", means the end of the world as is presently known. There should be little wonder why "Christians" are almost daily attacked as "terrorists" and worse by today's establishment.

Now, for the hidden language of God's conspiracy:

Snake Handlers & Water Walkers

Every year or two one reads in the papers about some preacher who handles a rattlesnake because the Scriptures say, "They shall take up serpents". *Mark 16:18*² - and gets bitten.

He got bitten because snakes bite. It's God's LAW - God made them that way. There are two kinds of serpents. The "Serpent" referred to by the WORD is different. There is one Law dealing with rattlesnake "serpents", and another dealing with the other kind. You can take hold of the other kind when one does as directed. Handling snakes is a parable. There are two kinds of snakes.

Every few years one also reads about some fellow in New York telling the world that God told him to walk on water. Cameramen follow him down to the East River and record the actions of the deluded soul as he steps out into the deep and almost drowns himself.

I'll bet that those reading these lines have never seen anyone actually walk on water. You can drown yourself trying. It violates God's LAW of gravity. We know that God the WORD can violate his own law if he chooses, but he said that he doesn't. He said, *"I change not"*³. Therefore, the story must be a parable. One of the simplest.

Peter Walks On Water

Peter saw "Jesus" walking on water. He asked if he could do the same and Jesus said "sure". Peter stepped out and started walking on water. He became fearful and began to sink into the water. Jesus reached out and raised him.

Walking on water is impossible which makes this an obvious parable. This means that we, too, can walk on water if we know what we are doing. The reason is that "the WORD made flesh said we could. "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do." John 14:12.

³ "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6

Let's take it a step at a time. Peter: His natural name was "Simon". Jesus re-named him "Peter" meaning "Rock".⁴ Rock means The WORD, the foundation of all our belief.⁵ Jesus the "WORD made flesh" told "Peter the Rock" (meaning The WORD) to come to him. Peter the rock stepped out of the boat and started walking on water over to Jesus.

Waters are peoples.⁶ Peter began to doubt⁷ and began to sink into the peoples of the world. Jesus reached out and lifted him out of the clutches of strange peoples and their wiles.

The message is clear. With faith and obedience one can walk on waters unscathed. But, if you begin to doubt - waters will drown you. Have faith in the WORD without doubt and you will be saved from them. A follower of God the WORD has to know that there are two kinds of water.

PETER THE ROCK

Some protestants belonging to the Church of England believe that Jesus appointed Peter high priest of the Catholic Church. When the king ran the Catholic Church out of England the king inherited the position. I've known people who look on the King of England as a God on earth.

Many, if not most, mainstream preachers in America believe that the state is God's representative on earth.

4 Halley's Bible Handbook, p. 466.

5 "Who is a rock save our God." Ps 18:31; 2 Sa 22:32.

6 "The waters which thou savest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues." Rev 17:15

7 "Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he sayeth shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he sayeth." Matt 11:23

Many Catholics believe that the pope is God's representative on earth, appointed to the position of high-priest by Jesus Christ.

The belief is based on this Scripture:

"Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say John the Baptist ... He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him ... flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Matt 16:13-19

Ok, lets do it:

"Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? Ans: "His name is called The Word of God." Re 19:13

Now, the million dollar question:

But whom say ye that I am? The disciple who answered was Simon Peter.

"Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."⁸

Different people arrive at this knowledge at different times. Unfortunately, most never get it. But the world is different for those who do. Jesus continued:

"For flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter"

⁸ "Christ"- from the Greek "CHRISTOS": means "anointed," as in consecrated to an office. Tyndale's New Bible Dictionary.

"His natural name was "Simon". Jesus re-named him 'Peter' meaning 'Rock'.⁹

Jesus also said:

"... and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Matt 16:13-19

And the inner meaning:

"... And upon this rock (the WORD) I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee (YOU, the priest appointed by God the WORD) the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Matt 16:13-19

If you are looking for some mediator, the Scriptures are clear about who he is:

"For there is one God, and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus." I Titus 2:5

This tells us exactly who the mediator is and who it isn't. God appointed us "priests" and we get our marching orders straight from Jesus - "The WORD made flesh".

David Slays The Giant

The Scriptures say:

⁹ Halley's Bible Handbook, p. 466. Peter means "rock". The scripture says: "Who is a rock save our God." Ps 18:31; 2 Sa 22:32

"David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him." 1 Sa 17:50

This story is believable as it is - if there are such things as physical giants. The closest I ever saw was an 8 foot man who visited Thomas Road Baptist Church once. I felt sorry for him. He had all sorts of physical problems. Stories make the rounds of giant's bones that have been discovered here or there. But, I have never found a second witness to the stories.¹⁰

As a parable the story of David and the giant is very believable.

Little David the shepherd boy (a shepherd is among the lowest of occupations) volunteered to fight the great giant warrior (giant in attributes?) of the Philistines. He reached down and selected a stone (The WORD) from the brook and slung it at the giant. The stone sank the giant's head and killed him.

The serpent (evil) came to Eve in the garden. Like the Serpent, Goliath, too, was a messenger of death. The WORD said that Adam would crush the serpent's head. In earlier days the evil Naphidcm were called "giants in the land"; HR #286 & #287. There are certainly evil giants in the land today as great or greater than Goliath. God said that we would crush the serpent's head and he would bite our heel (unguarded place). The enemy has studied our Scriptures and knows that we search for the serpent's head. Therefore, he conceals himself so that it is extremely hard to locate him. Strike the head with a stone and the serpent-giant dies. David did.

¹⁰ The Dead Sea Scrolls say that Goliath was 4 1/2 cubits tall - about 6 and a half feet.

Abraham Willing To Sacrifice Isaac

Abraham heard a voice telling him to offer up his most precious possession - his only son. It is obviously a parable since murder is against the law.

According to the story, Abraham took Isaac to the top of a mountain and built an altar. He lay Isaac on the altar. Abraham was obedient, ready and willing to sacrifice his most precious possession, his first born. His son Isaac was also willing to be sacrificed. God then stopped him and showed him another sacrifice - a sheep. Abraham was willing to sacrifice his most precious possession - making the point. "To obey is better than sacrifice." 1 Sam 15:22¹¹

The story illustrates that one who is obedient should be ready and willing to sacrifice his most precious possession if God the WORD requires it of him. God the WORD will never require anyone to break his LAW.

Moses Sees Pharoah

Our people are commanded not to live among strangers lest we learn their ways. Abraham's children went to Egypt, lived among strangers and learned their ways, and were made slaves. Moses went to see Pharoah about releasing the Israelite children from captivity.

Moses, God's representative, staff in hand, faced Pharoah and his advisors. Moses threw his staff on the ground and it became a serpent. A "rod" is something you punish with - a "staff" is something you lean on. The thing we lean on is the WORD. The staff thrown on the ground became a serpent - a messenger. Moses staff was a messenger of "good".

¹¹ "To do justice and judgment is more acceptable than sacrifice." Pr 21:3

Pharoah's priests threw their staffs on the ground and they too became serpents; messengers of "evil". Moses' serpent swallowed up the other serpents.

God the WORD has the power to swallow up the stranger's gods.

Parting The Red Sea

God sent plagues to harass Egypt including the killing of the first born of every Egyptian family. The Pharoah, after losing his first born son, agreed to let Israel go, and they left.

Pharoah soon repented and sent his army to fetch them back. The fleeing children of Israel found their way barred by the Red Sea before them with Pharoah's army behind. Moses used his staff and the sea parted so that there were vertical walls of water on either side and he led the children of Israel through the sea on dry land. Pharoah's army saw what had happened and followed. The sea closed and drowned Pharoah's army.

Waters generally don't part themselves and leave a road that allows you to walk across the seabed on dry land - unless Moses was using Laws of God whose knowledge has been lost to us. This makes the story a parable.

Pharoah is the cartel establishment pursuing Israel; the sea in front is the hostile peoples of the world. Moses used the rod of the WORD to cause the seas to separate and let Israel through. The pursuing establishment tried to follow Moses through these same peoples but they closed in on Pharoah's army and drowned them. There are lessons on top of lessons in this parable. Select those most appropriate for today and run with it.

Devils

Jesus cast out devils.¹²

I have known men who were bent out of shape with crazy ideas. Sometimes they were not only obnoxious but dangerous. Once they replaced their crazy ideas with the truth of the WORD they became normal people. From obnoxious and dangerous to useful and productive is an "about face" turn. It is a change from darkness into light.

False ideas can devil people causing them to even harm their loved ones for no good reason. They can cause entire nations to war with brother nations.

Today's establishment media is an evil serpent. It propagates distortions, misrepresentations and lies. Its evil product produces self-hating devils intent on destroying their own people and God the WORD.

Evil ideas can cause physical sickness. I've seen elders lay on hands and cast out evil spirits. As a result the sick took up their bed and walked. I've seen other sick people go to doctors who used God given Laws to heal them. I've seen others go both to pastors and doctors and still die.

As an appointed king and priest, chosen for your work by your God¹³ - your example, word and witness can cast out devils. Don't doubt it. I've seen it done.

*"He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my father."
John 14:12*

¹² Devil: Greek 1140 - A demonic being, a deity, devil, god.

¹³ "Ye have not chosen me but I have chosen you, and ordained you." John 15:16

Fishermen

Jesus saw men at their nets fishing. They had caught nothing. Jesus told them to cast their nets on the other side of the boat. They did and drew up nets loaded with fish.

These fishermen were already fishing for MEN when Jesus found them. The sign of their catch is the "fish". Even today one sees this sign on walls and on backs of cars.

Jesus didn't just approach anyone - he went after those already trying to fish. Their problem was that they didn't know which side of the boat to fish from. Jesus, "The WORD made flesh", told them what they needed to know and they did it, and as a result of fishing a bit differently their nets and boat were filled. They then left their nets and followed him. They were already experienced at their trade but now had a master who was an expert.

Jesus Made Wine

Jesus went to a party. The host ran out of wine for his guests. Jesus took water and turned it into wine. What makes it a parable is that God the WORD and the Word Made Flesh made us kings and priests and told us NOT to drink strong drink. "It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink." Prov 31:4. Ever since, the lost have misused this parable as their excuse to drink strong drink.

"Wine", 3196 in Strong's Concordance, means "to effervesce intoxicating, banqueting." There is a world of difference between water and wine. Jesus took ordinary people and brought them to life with the holy spirit or the spirit of God the WORD - "wine"! There are two kinds of wine. One for followers of God the WORD and one for the lost.

Not long ago I went to a function at the house of a Lutheran preacher. He kept a well stocked bar. He and his wife were gracious and his invited company were gracious. Most drank. Observing which of the guests drank and which didn't identified who was probably a king and a priest and who wasn't. Important information. The host didn't know the difference between the two kinds of wine. Or, he knew and didn't care. Regardless, this event identified him as a multi-national priest and most of his guests as just lost members of the great masses.

Five Loaves & Three Fish

Jesus taught thousands of people. They came great distances to hear him and most were tired and hungry. He inquired as to what food was available to feed them and was told that there were five loaves and three fish. Jesus pronounced that sufficient and fed the people with what was available.

A fish is a Christian. There were three. The WORD is the bread of life. Three fish and five loaves can and do feed thousands.

Money Changers In The Temple

Jesus saw money changers in the temple and said "Ye have made God's temple a den of thieves."

This is more than just a story. In an age when the religious establishment was virtually all powerful and whose word was life or death, it is a parable revealing the lair of the serpent.

Raising Lazarus from the Dead

There are stories about people coming to life after having being dead, or being revived after having been declared dead in an operating room. Lazarus was dead. Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead. Still, there are two kinds of "dead".

People told me about a fellow who lived over in Stuart Heights, a subdivision near Thomas Road. His wife had died years ago and he had gone into his house, lowered the shades, and never came out. His neighbors seldom saw him and when they did they avoided him because he was "mean as a snake".

With more than a little apprehension I went to see him and knocked on his door. The door opened and a smell hit me that almost bowled me over - it smelled like sulfur. A disheveled chap needing a bath and a shave stood there. I told him who I was and that I wanted to talk to him a few minutes if he had the time.

He courteously invited me in and we sat and talked. After the usual pleasantries I went right into the plan of salvation and asked the fellow if he would accept Jesus Christ. Without hesitation he said, "yes".

Now, I'm an old salesman. If anyone agrees to buy something I'm selling too easily I have grave doubts that he is really sold. But, I said that I would stop by and pick him up the next Sunday morning so that he could make a profession of faith before the entire congregation. He agreed and I left feeling that I had failed.

Next Sunday I drove up to his house. The shades were up. Before I got out of my car he opened his front door and I didn't know it was the same man. He was bathed, shaved, in a suit and tie, and greeted me with a cheerful smile.

He walked the aisle with me, made a declaration of faith before the congregation, and later got married and has walked the walk ever since. That was 30 years ago.¹⁴

There are two kinds of dead. I've seen people raised from the dead. I've seen it many times. I was dead once.

Unforgivable Sin

I have gone to churches just to hear preachers pontificate on what was and what wasn't the unforgivable sin. This is what I heard:

"Whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come." Matt: 12:32

I usually left church still not knowing what in the dickens the preacher was talking about when he explained the "unforgivable sin". Explained another way its simple.

The ancients explained it this way:

"Now if thou closeth thy mouth and thy nostrils against the winds of heaven and sayest, 'The air is as poison to me, I will not breathe it,' behold thou perishest. ... If he shall say knowing in his heart ... 'I will call good evil, and the Holy Spirit I will call unholy: then lo, his spirit dieth within him, and he can no more enter into the life of God.' ... (or) 'Lo, the truth is not pleasing to me, ... it is hateful, therefore I will call it evil.'" Philochristus 13:20- 21

I can get my teeth into this explanation. Don't break God's Laws. Step out of an airplane without a parachute and God's gravity will pull you to the ground and kill you. Violate the

¹⁴ "This thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost and is found." Luke 15:32

Laws of God the WORD and tolerate abortion, murder, miscegenation and sodomy and the whole nation dies.

"I have left them on account of all the evil which they do ... And they will turn themselves to false gods ... forget all my ordinances ... and will walk after the Gentiles ... and will serve their gods ... Many will be destroyed and will be taken captive ... because they have deserted my ordinances ... and each one will worship his own idol for sin, and they will offer their children to the demons ... and they will cast out those who seek the law, and will abolish the whole law, and ... I will deliver them over to the gentiles for captivity ...

"And then they will turn themselves to me ... and I shall gather them from amongst all the gentiles, and ... when they seek me with all their heart and with all their soul ... I will be to them their God, and they shall be to me my people ... I will not desert them and will not deny them, for I am the Lord their God." Jubilees. 1:4-16

Water & The Dragon

"Water" is used again in Revelations:

"There appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon ... stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. ...

"The dragon ... persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. ... And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth." Rev 12:3-4; 13-17¹⁵

The meaning to this reveals the end of today's travails:

The great red dragon is evil. The woman is Saxon-Israel ready to be delivered of God's Kingdom on earth. Babylon's cartel-serpent casts out of his mouth water (alien peoples) as

¹⁵ "And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." Rev 12:17

a flood to drown the woman with racial-intermarriage and war. And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed the flood and buried them. The strangers presently pouring into the West are coming here to die.

The Reason For Parables

The reason for "parables" is to keep the enemy from discovering our secrets and using them against us.

"And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given." Matt 13:10-11

Who is "them"?

"But these enemies of mine, which would not that I (God the WORD) should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27

First, submission, then revelation.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins:

We had a lovely shower and everything looks fresh. We planted some vegetables and flowers and the rain will do a world of good. I am still not very mobile and somehow did not think that a broken heel would take so long to heal.

In a way the great fallaway from the Afrikaans Churches is very sad. The seminaries are breeding places for evil and the professors are hardly, or not at all, Christian. The fruits are there for all to see. They feel happy with every other religion and movement. They really should look to them for their salaries.

I can still remember how hard my sister-in-law's father, a minister, worked, after he retired, to collect enough money to establish a seminary at Pretoria University.

We are happy with Pastor Pete Peters ministry. He is clear on every point except blacks. I do not think he sees many of them.

Something else on my mind is the approaching gun laws. I am dead against the registration of arms even if one is a hunter or collector. Sooner or later they will take them away from their owners. Not a word is said about all those unlicensed weapons in the hands of Blacks - which they use so freely.

A White mother was shot when she did not move quick enough. That shot also hurt her unborn baby. I saw a picture of the little girl, now six months old and beautiful, but she will never walk as her spine was badly hurt by the shot.

Seven thousand black criminals were let out of prison, some hardened criminals charged with every type of crime to their name.

One wonders what is behind the election outcome and the new president in Yugoslavia. It appears to be another revolution like here in South Africa started by the agents of England and America.

Under the firm able hand of the ANC, the animals in S. Africa have foot and mouth disease, a horse virus on stud farms and blacks with cholera - all in Natal. If we did not have Onderstepoort Veterinary University, I shudder to think what would have happened because there is not one Black anywhere around who has the necessary knowledge to do anything about it. Rabies is also endemic, especially with dogs in Zululand. But at least that can be kept under control with vaccination.

Indians were imported by English in Natal to work on canefields. Most left the canefields quickly and in no time were in business. Today one finds them in every profession. Just after 1948 they were given free passage back to India, but few took it. It is interesting to see how highly they think of a light skinned Indian and other Indians who are able to marry Whites.

The situation in Zimbabwe is not improving and more farms are taken even while food shortages are getting worse. The black freedom fighters, who wanted land to farm, have not done a thing to prepare and plant the land they got. When Mugabe tried to take over the Oppenheimer estates, the world powers came down hard and he had to back off.

Households in Pretoria received notes saying that they must look after their Alsations. The ones who are trained are stolen and sold over the border to detect land mines. Others are slaughtered and end up in the market as fresh meat.

Pretoria has quite a large Chinese population who eat dogs. People who eat dogs should not be allowed into this country. Roefie, our adopted Alsation, is such a pleasure. He had forgotten the bad days he spent with blacks. Apart from swimming, he now takes his brush and comb and puts it in front of Hans to beg a rubdown. He has a proud bearing but still loves a hug and lots of love. A black radio announcer, who is very pleased with himself, tells how he kicked every dog in the black township in true township manner. These poor mangy animals - blacks should not be allowed to keep dogs.

Israel, knowing they control most Western countries, seems bent on starting WWII in the Middle East. No small wonder that they want us all disarmed. It makes fighting so much easier when they are armed and we have nothing with which to defend ourselves. We see what is happening to the Palestinians. Little do they realize that one day they will have to pay for all the centuries of persecuting Christians and others, and with the wars they have started.

With our best wishes, K.J.

BYRON DE LA BECKWITH: "Dear Compatriot: Good news! A lawyer has been appointed to handle my appeal.

Interesting here. I'm in a 90% Black inhabited and run jail, 3000 inmates, and I think I know almost all of them, and they know me. We are just as cheerful as crickets. This to me is so far an exact repeat of my time in WWII in the Pacific, only it's today and I'm under the guillotine.

Some day I'll find the financial power to begin paying youall back for your many kindnesses. And yes, it is all worth what it has and will cost. We must win. Up and at 'em, De La" - prisoner - Mississippi

Thoughts On Money

In the US we have both government and private/corporate debt. The increase or decrease in the government debt's rate of increase stimulates or dampens the growth of the private sector and smooths otherwise violent boom/bust economic swings. Increasing or decreasing government debt's rate of increase is used in conjunction with interest rates and oil prices to fine tune the economy. All of them influence the flow of money.

OIL - WEALTH TRANSFER: HR readers know that all governments of all countries and all great world-corporations are ITC assets. Both follow the their master's instructions. When ordered - governments war with each other to stimulate business. To facilitate wealth transfer from white to black the ITC's media demonizes white South Africans: It creates a Karl Marx, Lenin, and Joseph Stalin to take the Czar's wealth and "privatize" it. If oil producing countries need money, or, to slow inflation, corporate "owners" simply raise the price of oil. Rich users pay and poor producers receive. When the proper wealth transfer has occurred the oil price is lowered to shut off the transfer and the world has a new oil price; a new owner for the Czar's wealth; and new owners for S. Africa's riches.

Chapter 315

TWO KINDS of CHRISTIANS

There are two kind of Christians; The National Christian and the Multi-National Christian. The God of the first is God the WORD. The gods of the other fights God the Word and is anti- christ. Identification is always done by God the WORD.

The WORD says: "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15. Their acts also identify;"Ye shall know them by their fruits. Matt 7:16¹

¹ "Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them." Deut 27:26; "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be an abomination." Prov 28:9; "By works a man is justified, and not by faith only." James 2:24; "By thy works thou shall be justified, and by thy works thou shall be condemned." Matt 12:37

Back Porch Preacher

A friend brought his preacher by the house during the summer. He was associate pastor of a fairly large local church. Perhaps 35, he was scheduled to be appointed pastor sometime during the year since the regular pastor was retiring. He had sandy hair, a friendly face and an outgoing personality.

It was warm so we sat on the back porch and talked. My friend said that he and his preacher had been friends for a long time, that he read my newsletters, and that we three thought alike.

He was right. We did. We had some fine conversation and agreed on every theological point. He agreed that God's WORD should be the Law of the land. He agreed that usury, sodomy and abortion were against the Law. He agreed that the Bible stood solidly against interracial marriage and strangers in the land.

I remarked that the leaders of his denomination were AGAINST the very things that we agreed that the WORD of God required and remarked that he would be a breath of fresh air coming into that church.

He looked startled and said that couldn't say anything like that publicly! If he spoke against the things his denomination was doing he would be denied appointment as pastor, something that he had worked and waited eight long years for. He said that he had waited too long to chance losing this opportunity now.²

I took a long look at this young fellow and thought:

* Jesus is the WORD made flesh.

² "For not the hearers of the Law are just before God, but the doers of the Law shall be justified." Romans 2:13; "But be doers of the WORD, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves." James 1:22

* This young man, in spite of his nice words and stated beliefs, is, in fact, taking a stand against the WORD made flesh.

* This means that he is anti the WORD made flesh, * and this means that in spite of being nice, the young fellow is antichrist.

Also; those of his denomination who are against the Commandments of Christ Jesus are also anti-Christ. What else can someone be who is "anti" GOD's Commandments?

This handsome young fellow, with so much promise, who believes the WORD, was returning to his church to support the anti-Christ teachings of his denomination in return for being appointed pastor.

There is the Christian and there is the anti-Christ. "Ye shall know them by their fruits."

The Multi-national

God the WORD forbids aliens in the land. He forbids monopolies, kings, and trade with strangers. He forbids us to have strangers ruling over us. He forbids us to "throw pearls (the WORD) before swine, lest they turn and rend you."

The alien knows this because he has studied us like we study our cattle. He knows that if he is to trade with us, take our goods, inventions, our women, and enslave us to work in his fields and factories and serve in his armies, he must first hire surrogate agents to front for him. Sheep will follow sheep before following wolves.

The Alien's Establishment

The alien creates and rules through his "establishment". The establishment consists of Priest, King & Army, and Great Merchant. They collaborate in order to manage and control the wealth and peoples of conquered lands that they have been appointed to rule.

Building The Establishment

The alien first hires a surrogate King. The King is given money to hire an army. The King's duty is to protect the alien's operation, suppress revolt, and collect tribute.

The next to be hired is the surrogate Priest. He may keep his traditions and rituals as long as he blesses the surrogate King, and teaches Dharma. Dharma is the Hindu teaching that, "One must love others without regard to race, creed, or national origin." When the targeted land has been taught this - conquest is complete. It can no longer ban strangers, monopolies, usury and other things the Commandments of God the WORD decreed to protect his people.³

Last to be hired is the Great Merchant. These individuals manage the great wealth collected from the captive peoples in the alien's new market area. The Great Merchant's rapid rise to "ownership" of great wealth makes them appear to be overnight business geniuses. In fact, none of the Great Merchants operate without bank credit, and the banks are controlled by the priesthood.⁴

To make sure that there is no misunderstanding about what has just been said, I will repeat it:

The establishment's three castes manage both the people and the wealth of the land for their masters. The thing holding the establishment together is their love of money.⁵ The glue that holds the money monopoly in the hands of the establishment is usury.⁶

Nation vs. Nation

A nation is a race. A country is a taxable entity. Establishment Kings rule countries. Nations strive to rule themselves. A country containing multi-nations is perpetually in conflict. Conflict between nations justifies having an establishment king to keep the peace. This is why the establishment sets up taxable "countries" containing two or more nations. This guarantees discord that requires the perpetual presence of the establishment's king to keep the peace.⁷

The Anti-Christ Multi-National Church

The Christian WORD teaches: "A bastard (Heb: mamzér - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2; it teaches, "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7; it teaches, "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33.

The establishment's hired priest is instructed to organize a multi-national religion to preempt national religions that may be the focal points of successful rebellion. These establishment multi-national religions accept all nations without regard to race, creed, or national origin - a direct affront to the Saxon's God the WORD.

⁶ Usury is the fraudulent system of lending 10 for 11 when only 10 exist. "Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury." Deut 23:20

The establishment's multi-national church calls itself "Christian" but opposes the Commandments of the WORD made flesh, which was in the beginning, and whom they proclaim to be their God.

If the WORD made flesh were their God they would obey him. If not, they would disobey. "By their fruits ..."

Burning The Mortgage

I was twelve years old. Mr. Tom Gilliam, church treasurer, stood in front of the congregation of the 1st Baptist Church and burned the Church's mortgage. It had been paid and the church was now debt free. The congregation applauded.

Mr. Tom Gilliam, treasurer of the church, was president of the 1st National Bank.

What's the matter with this scene?

Usury is a capital crime: "Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13. That's the Law of Jesus Christ who was in the beginning.

A usury contract is an extortion contract.⁸ The WORD declares; "If any man that is called a brother be ... an extortioner; with such a one, no not to eat (no contact)" 1 Cor 5:11. Tom Gilliam, a close friend of our family, was a usurer, and also treasurer of the church that called itself "Christian".

It was prophesied that the Levites would allow this to come to pass:

⁸ See War Cycles/Peace Cycles, Hoskins

"Moses commanded the Levites ... saying, Take this ... law and put it in the side of the ark ... that it may be there for a witness against thee. For I know thy rebellion ... behold, while I am yet alive ... ye have been rebellious against the Lord; and how much more after my death? ... For I know that after my death ye will ... turn aside from the way which I have commanded you." Deut 31: 24-29

When the children of Israel went from Egypt into the wilderness they came out with a full-blown Levitical priesthood in charge of the Ark of the Covenant.

The Ark contained three things:

- * The Ten Commandments (Deut 10:4)
- * Aaron's Rod (Nu 17:10)
- * Pot of Manna (Ex 16:33-34)

The "Ten Commandments" represents God the WORD. A rod is used for punishment - a staff for support. This is the same rod that was thrown down in the presence of Pharaoh that turned into a serpent (see HR #314).

Then, there is the manna on which Israel lived for 40 years in the wilderness. I've never seen manna. I've never seen a rod like Aaron's rod that turned into a serpent. This is why I consider this to be a story within a story - a parable.

We already know the meaning of the "Ten Commandments" and "Aaron's Rod"; now for "manna".

Scripture says that "manna" doesn't keep. We ask for it daily and we eat it every day. Day by day, year by year. Without it, we are lost. In my opinion, manna is God's grace and blessing through the WORD. It is food given to us by God the WORD for our nourishment and survival. We need it to get through the wilderness.

The Ark of the Covenant is a Symbol of God's Law (Ex 25:16,21), a place of "entreaty" (Josh 7:6-15); a place for "atonement" (Lev 16:2, 14-17), and a symbol of heaven (Rev 11:15). The Ark of the Covenant is something we look to every day of our lives.

Strangers and the blind go around looking for it in Jerusalem, Egypt, and the Western part of the United States. A movie star acted in a great money making film about the search for the Ark of the Covenant. He should have asked someone who knew where it could be found. We wouldn't have told him because we are told not to, but, we see it every day. We also remember what Moses said, even if the Levites don't:

"Moses commanded the Levites, which have the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, saying, Take this book of the Law, and put it in the side of the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee." Deut 31: 25-26

With rare exceptions who shine forth like diamonds in the mire, the Law that Moses put in the side of the Ark of the Covenant rejects and condemns the unGodliness of today's Levites out of hand. "Ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves." Matt 23:15. Those made in God's image are voting with their feet to leave their presence, and they are leaving in droves, to escape contamination by their unGodly teachings.

These are the creatures who will answer to God for allowing pearls to be thrown before swine which has caused them to turn and rend us. It is they who have blessed the plagues that have descended on us. They are the multi-national Christian priests whose acts are "Christian" in name only.

Multi-National Churches & Their Usury Banks

There was the Continental Illinois and the Barings Bank affairs. When they went under, it was discovered that the head of the Protestant Anglican Church was an owner. Then there was the affair of the collapsing Swiss Banks in the early '70s. They belonged to the Catholic Church! Not only that, the Vatican Bank itself ran on the rocks.

Establishment WEALTH is too important to be left to kings. Kings are Establishment "protectors", nothing more. To deflect the charge of usury and to avoid universal condemnation generated by a thousand years of defrauded debtors, the establishment's vast accumulated wealth was turned over to the hated but sacrosanct Jew to manage.

The Jew's safety and very existence is dependent on the good will of the priesthood who has long stood between them and the masses they have defrauded. His loyalty is guaranteed by his fear of a holocaust that can be unleashed upon him in an instant by the priesthood - and the priesthood's proven ability to act as a buffer by diverting the public's anger.

Actual title to the wealth held in trust by the Establishment traces back to the "Bequest of Asoka", the "Bequest of Constantine", through stock companies whose stock is held in bank nominee names, to inviolate Swiss holding banks, and on to the priesthood whose stated principle is poverty and whose deeds will be judged by God.

Christian Churches don't deal in usury and remain Christian. Christian Churches don't invite aliens into the church and remain Christian. They don't make prelates of aliens and remain Christian. One can't have it both ways. One obeys WORD made flesh or not. One is either an obedient Christian or a disobedient anti-Christ.

Learning Their Ways

Our Saxon nation⁹ is made in the image of God the WORD - in the image of his Laws, Statutes, and judgments. Other nations are made in the image of their gods. A multi-national church must serve multi-national gods. The mixed-breed follows the gods of his mixed ancestors. The result; our people today have been taught to follow many gods. It's planned that way.

Results

Establishment priests have established multi-national churches. These multi-national churches serve multi-national gods. The multi-national gods of the multi-national peoples have taught our people that it is no great thing to accept sodomites, miscegenationists, pedofiles and usurers. The establishment's priesthood in many Christian denominations has degenerated into sodomite and pedofile clubs.¹⁰ rches th>

¹⁰ The Calvary Contender (10/15/00 issue), quotes The Changing Face of the Priesthood, by Father Donald Cozzens as stating that the Catholic priesthood has become "primarily a gay culture". Figures for the number of homosexual priests in the American Church are difficult to pin down. Cozzens says estimates range up to 60%.hout doubt there are far more Christians ou

 Approves affirmative action

 Approves alien immigration Approves interracial marriage etc.

Second Group

Opposes fellowship with sodomites

("There shall be no ... sodomite of the sons of Israel." Deut 23:7)

Opposes fellowship with aliens.

Opposes taxes.

("Of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers." (Gr: allotrios - foreign, not akin.) ... Then are the children free." Matt 17:25-26)¹¹

Opposes gun control.

("He said unto them ... he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22:36-38; "Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow." 2 Sam 1:18)

¹¹ "Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them ... give unto them for me and thee." Matt 17:27

Opposes affirmative action.

("If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." I Tim 5:8)

Opposes strangers in government.

("Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15.)¹²

Opposes alien immigration.

Opposes interracial marriage.

("Let them marry... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou... shall go... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4.)¹³

Which of the two groups follow the WORD and which of the two fights God and is anti-christ?

The WORD Judges

We don't judge - the WORD judges. "By their fruits ye shall know them." Matt 7:20. Judging by their fruits, the first is anti-christ.

¹³ "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (zûwr - racial alien) children; Hosea 5:7; "When they had heard the law... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3

Who in actual fact are they?

The first list of beliefs is taught by a mainstream "Christian" church on Lynchburg's Rivermont Avenue, a denomination to which my Father once belonged. The second is a list (without the documentation) of beliefs of "Odenists" who despise the name "Christian" because of the disrepute brought upon it by multi-national "Christians" like the first group who hate the WORD and the Law.

Summary

The establishment's multi-national church uses the gods of its multi-national following to suppress the WORD. Still, the fact remains, as long as a Saxon is left alive - the establishment's throne is in danger. The WORD causes its people to repent. When our Saxon people repent, they will revolt, and when they revolt they will banish the establishment - its King, its Great Merchant, and the establishment's heathern Priesthood. Then will God's Kingdom be established here on earth.

There are two kinds of Christians - the obedient and the disobedient. The obedient are the nationalists and the disobedient are the multi-nationalists.

Canceled Trip

Last month I drove my beat-up red convertible with my Rottweillers and little terrier in the back seat to take my fax machine to the repair shop. After taking the machine in, I felt weak - hot one moment and cold the next. Then I broke out in a sweat and had trouble breathing. I drove to the hospital about a mile or so away and left my car and dogs in the emergency entrance and walked in. That's when the fun started.

DICK HOSKINS & HIS DOGS

My car had to be moved, it was blocking arriving emergency vehicles. A group of orderlies argued over who was going to move it. One of them came to me and asked, "Does your dogs bite?"

I reassured him and answered "No, indeed".

The fellow didn't look reassured, so I added, "Those dogs do exactaly what I tell them to do." And then, I just couldn't help it, I added, "Those dogs absolutely never kill anyone without permission."

He looked less reassured than ever, so I softened what I had said by adding, "And I very seldom give them permission." With that he left and went back to his buddies and relayed our conversation.

They agreed right then, lets see if I have it right; "I ain't gettin in that car with them Rotts - H... can freeze over before I move that d..... car!"

With that, a little wisp of a blond haired Saxon nurse, stamped her foot and told them that they were all "worthless cowards!" And marched right out, petted the dogs, sat down behind the wheel and parked the car in the proper place.

Our Saxon women are magnificent!

I'm OK. Nothing wrong. After about 5 hours my vital signs settled down and they sent me home.

KINGDOMS: "Dear Richard; I was flying over the mid-west and looked down on mile after mile of squares that marked out tens of thousands of individual self-sufficient farm-kingdoms of our Saxon people - all gone into collectives and corporations now - or standing empty. Our people now work for strangers and live as slaves in their cities.

For letting all this go without a fight we are entitled to all the punishment that our God gives us. After we have learned our lesson, let's do it right! "Thy kingdom come thy will be done - on earth!" G.M. - California

PRAYER: "Dear Mr. Hoskins; Explain about blessings at meals." M.K. - Missouri

RKH: It's a parable. When food is blessed, we ask God the WORD to change the water (our people) into wine (alive, effervesce) and the bread (bread of life - the WORD) into food we can use. In real life we are not to drink wine ("It is not for kings ..."); we are not to offer the wine and bread to aliens "Lest they turn and rend you", (also Story of Judith). We send missionaries to our own lost Saxons (Isaac-sons). We do not send our Bread and Wine to aliens - lest they use the laws that God the WORD gave us to nuke, poison, invade and enslave us. We do not eat blessed food with, or give our God's Laws to - aliens; lest God the WORD curse us for our disobedience.

ODENIST'S OPINION: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Compliments on Hoskins Report #314. Without understanding how parables have always been used to conceal truth (the WORD) from enemies and reveal it to friends, the schism between the "parable" and the "literal" cannot be bridged. I am speaking of the division between those who believe that God's Law cannot be broken and those who demand literal belief in Scripture even when it violates other Laws of God.

At the risk of alienating some of the followers of the Norse Religion, in which the "WORD" was called Wotan/Odin, I offer the following:

It is my opinion that teachers of the WORD should have a thorough understanding of Job 12:7-9:

"But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee, and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee, and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee. Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this?"

The rationalist asks, "How did the WORD arrive on paper and in a book. The teacher answers, "Enlightened thinkers from ages past obeyed the advice of Job 12: 7-9 and encoded truth (the WORD) in parable and allegory. Thus we have the commands to Israel of exclusive territorial imperatives, of the "chosenness" of one's own people, of hegemony, and of compassion for one's own race and family.

Nature's laws are made by God. Nature's laws are also God's laws, direct from the WORD of the Creator.

EUPHEMISMS: The name "Jesus", the Lord's Prayer, the Bible, the 10-Commandments, Christmas creches, prayers at football games, the St. Andrew's cross in the Confederate flag, the white man himself - all are euphemisms for God the WORD. In the mind of the alien they all trigger a vision of their nemesis - God the WORD.

APPLES: Virginia's apple growers are being devastated by apple imports from China. Already imported apple concentrate has grown from 1% to 18%. Growers are going out of business wholesale. What are the multi-national Christian churches doing about it? Nothing! It would offend the gods of their Chinese members.

BLACK CRIME: New York City left-wing liberal leaders angrily denied Justice Department findings that NY police engaged in racial profiling. Mayor Rudy Giuliani said that if officers ignored the race of possible suspects, the crime rate would skyrocket. Giuliani said that "although 89.2% of the suspects stopped and frisked were black or Hispanic, that corresponds to the percentage of blacks and Hispanics identified by witnesses as criminal suspects." (Story in USA TODAY, Oct 6, 2000, 3a)

HINDUS TARGET CONVERTS: Hindu extremists in SW India have launched a campaign against conversions to Christianity. The move came after extremists burned an Australian Christian missionary and his two sons to death. The world Hindu council is sending Hindu missionaries to the the state of Kerala and other Christian regions. Only 2.4% of India's population belong to the Christian faith while 82% are Hindu and 12% Moslem. (Story in Sunday Times, London)

RKH: The Hindu religion stands for forced integration. The true Christian religion teaches separation. To allow even the Indian version of Christian teachings into a Hindu or Buddhist society would destroy the Hindu society in time. It is either the one or the other. This is the reason for the persecution of the true Christian religion by Hindus in high places in America today. Christian Scripture also teaches that the "strangers" who follow Christian teachings must remain separate from man because the WORD teaches "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2.
